October Term 1883.

Isabel Warner, his wife, to the bill in equity of Annie C. Ward and others, against these respondents and others, in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

These respondents admit, that to best of their knowledge and belief, the statements made in said bill, are true as stated, and that sale for partition and for change of investment as therein prayed, will be conducive to the interest of all parties concerned therein, and they consent, accordingly, to a decree therefor as asked, and they pray to be hence dismissed. &c

Wm. A. Warner

Isabel Warner.

Lewis Mayer,

For Respondents, Wm. A. Warner and wife.

Separate Answer of Joseph A. Sprigg, Trustee.

(Filed 15th December, 1883.)

Annie C. Ward, et al.	In the Circuit Court
vs	of
George Warner, et al.	Baltimore City

The separate answer of Joseph A. Sprigg, to the bill in equity of Annie C. Ward, by her trustee, and others, against George Warner and others co-defendants of this trustee.

This respondent answering said bill states, he believes, and therefore admits, the recitals therein to be true as made; that as to the expediency, &c, of sale as prayed, he is unable, of his own knowledge to answer, and is content to abide by, and perform such decree in the premises as this Honorable Court may deem proper in the case, and he prays to be hence dismissed. &c

J. A. Sprigg, Trustee.

Lewis Mayer,

For Respondent J. A. Sprigg, trustee,

Petition for leave to amend Bill, &c, and Order Thereon.

October Term 1883.

(Filed 9th February 1883)

Annie C. Ward, et al,	In the Circuit Court
vs	of
George Warner, et al.	Baltimore City.

To the Honorable Edward Duffy, Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City:

The petition of Annie C. Ward, by her next friend, Joseph A. Sprigg, and of William J. Ward, her husband, asks leave to amend the bill heretofore filed by them in this Court against George Warner and Fannie R, his wife, William A Warner and Isabel, his wife, Annie Warner and Edith H. infant children of said George and Fannie; and leave is asked to amend said bill in equity thus:

1. That said Annie C. Ward by her next friend Joseph A. Sprigg, so sues.

2d. That a copy of "Schedule A." and of Schedule No. 1." as returned by Edward Schwartze, executor and trustee under the will of her late father, George Warner, Junior, and heretofore filed and recorded in this Court in the case of said Schwartze &c, vs your Oratrix and others, in Liber S.B.B. No. 135, folio 268. &c. are filed in this Court as Exhibits D. and E." respectively as parts of this amended bill.

3. And that in addition to the statement in said original bill as to brick warehouse No. 162 S. Eutaw street, Baltimore, it may be described as being the same lot and premises described in said Schedule, and in the deed of assignment of lease from Cyrus Moore to George Warner, Jr. duly executed and recorded, and filed as Exhibit F.," as a part of this amended bill.

4. That a duly certified copy of the decree of this Court made and enrolled in the said case of Schwartze, &c, vs Warner et al, and showing the confirmation by this
