Court of the allotment of the real, leasehold and personal estate of said George Warner, Jr, as made by said Schwartz, trustee and executor, and under which allotment your complainant, Annie, claims and is filed as "Exhibit E." as part of this bill; and that it will be for the interest of all parties concerned, that sale thereof shall be made.

5. That a duly certified extract of the lease from George Warner, Jr, to Ernest Fisher, reserving a yearly rent of $210, is filed as part of this amended bill and marked "Exhibit H."

6. That the surrender of lease of lot on S. Eutaw street, next adjoining that last above mentioned on the south thereof, is filed herewith as part of the amended bill and marked "Exhibit I."

7. That a duly certified extract of the lease from George Warner, Jr. to Andrew J. Ford and James Carrick, reserving a yearly rent of $180, is filed as part of said amended bill, and marked "Exhibit J."

8. That to the prayer of your oratrix, Annie, as in said original bill made, may be added, that in accordance with, and exercise of the power specifically reserved to her in the deed of trust heretofore filed as "Complainants Exhibit B," in this cause, she may be, by the decree to be passed by this Court in this cause, declared authorized and empowered, her said trustee, Joseph A. Sprigg, at her request, uniting, to make sale or exchange of her share of said real estate especially of said three parcels, viz: said reversions of $210, and of 180, and said surrendered lot described in Exhibit I: and forthwith to reinvest the same to her like separate use, and promptly to report to this Court her proceedings in reference to said three parcels of real estate, and to her share of the proceeds of leasehold estate mentioned in said original bill; and that such further action in reference thereto may be had as to this Court may seem fit and proper.

And your orators pray, that an order may be passed granting leave to amend as aforesaid and amending the commission heretofore issued to take further testimony in support of said amended bill.

Willm. J. Ward,
Solr for Complts.

In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City:

On this 9th day of February, 1883, it is ordered by the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, that leave to amend as prayed be, and the same hereby is granted, and that no further process by reason of said amendment is requisite. It also is ordered, that the commission to take testimony heretofore issued, executed and returned be, and the same hereby, is remanded to the commissioners named therein to take such further proof as the parties may adduce.

Edwd Duffy.

Amended Bill of Complaint.
(Filed 9th February 1883.)

Annie C. Ward, et al vs George Warner, et al.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable Edward Duffy, Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City:

The amended bill in equity of Annie C. Ward by her next friend Joseph A. Sprigg and of William J. Ward, her husband, filed by leave of this Court first had and obtained:

Your orators pray, that in addition to the matters set forth in their original bill as filed, the several exhibits marked