October Term 1883.

J. Donaldson Long and others, vs Elizabeth Long and others.	Be it Remembered, That now here, on the first Monday in October being the day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, the Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City being in the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Maryland, in pursuance of the directions of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, transmit to the Court of Appeals here, the Record of Proceedings of a cause which was lately depending before him in the said Circuit Court of Baltimore city between J. Donaldson Long and others Plaintiffs and Elizabeth Long and others Defendants, and wherein the said Circuit Court passed a decree in favor of the said Elizabeth Long and others against the said J. Donaldson Long and others and from which said Decree the said J. Donaldson Long and others appealed to the Court of Appeals here, the tenor of which said Record of Proceedings is in form following, to wit:

Bill of Complaint.
Filed 1st June 1880.

J. Donaldson Long et al vs Elizabeth Long et al	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable George W. Dobbin Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

The Bill of Complaint of J. Donaldson Long of Montevedo in the republic of Uruguery of George W. Long of the City and State of New York of Thomas B. Rodgers and Marian his wife of St Louis in the State of Missouri and of William St. Clair Long of the State of Nevada of Emily Worthington of George Worthington and Hanna W. his wife of Mary Worthington of Thomas Worthington the younger and of John E. Worthington all of Pittsfield in the State Illinois and of James H. Worthington and Harriet his wife of Kirkwood in the State of Missouri and of Helen E. Gauss and Helen W. his wife of St Louis in the State of Missouri, (added by amendment 19th May 1881 by Courts order). humbly shows.

October Term 1883.

1. That a certain Kennedy Long late of the City of Baltimore, being in his life time seized and possessed of a large and valuable real and personal estate, situate in the City of Baltimore did on the twenty sixth day of August A. D. 1823, make and publish his last will and testament, in writing duly attested, to pass real Estate in the State of Maryland, and thereby after directing that all his debts should be paid by his executors therein named, and bequeathing certain specific and pecuniary legacies as therein set forth, devised and bequeathed all his residuary personal estate, or his real estate of every kind and description unto James Hutton, James Wilson of William, John Wilson, nephew to James Hutton and to his the testator brother Henry Long and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such surviving in trust, for the benefit, and to be equally divided between all and every the children which he, the testator, then had, and the child or children whom he might thereafter have and their descendants, in manner upon the conditions and subject the limitations and restrictions in said last will mentioned; that is to say, the testators son, Andrew K. Long during the term of his natural