And afterwards to wit on the 27th day of March in the year aforesaid the Commissioners named in the last mentioned commission and to whom the same was delivered to be executed made return of the same to the Court here together with the proceedings under and in pursuance thereof which are in the words and of the tenor following to wit:

Maryland Set.

The State of Maryland

To Grafton L. Dulany
John Carriere Junior and George H. Brice
of Baltimore County Gentlemen, Greeting:—

Whereas Andrew K. Long, Elizabeth Balfour, Mary J. Long, Thomas J. Long and James H. Long children devisees and cestui que trusts of Kennedy Long deceased and of Elizabeth Long widow of said Kennedy Long by their petition to the Judges of said Baltimore County Court sitting as a Court of Equity have set forth that the said Kennedy Long by his last will and testament in writing duly made and proved, after making sundry specific bequests devised and bequeathed all the remaining part of his personal estate and all his real estate to certain persons therein named in trust for all the children of said Testator then or thereafter to be born in certain proportions and on certain conditions limitations and restrictions in the said last will and testament mentioned and set forth. The petitioners further state that the only real estate of which the said Kennedy Long died seized to their knowledge and belief was a dwelling house with several acres of land attached near near to if not within the limits of the City of Baltimore. The petitioners further state that it would be greatly to the interest and advantage of the said Amelia J. Long who is an infant under the age of twenty one years, that the said place should be sold and the proceeds be paid to the parties entitled. And whereas it has been suggested to the said Court that you are discreet and sensible men, freeholders of the County aforesaid and the said Court having great confidence in your
