And afterwards to wit on the first day of July in the year aforesaid the Trustee aforesaid filed in Court here the following Report of Sale towit;

Andrew K Long and others vs Henry Long and Amelia J. Long.	On the Equity side of Baltimore County Court. Decree (among other things) for the sale of certain real estate.

To the Honorable the Judges of Baltimore County Court. The subscriber appointed by this decree in the above cause trustee for the execution of certain trusts and for the sale of the real estate therein mentioned reports: That having filed a bond with security and penalty approved he duly advertised the said real estate for sale to be made on the 4th May 1833, but for circumstances which he deemed sufficient he postponed the sale to take place the 22d day of May 1833 at 1. O'clock at the Baltimore Exchange at which time and place he offered the said property at public auction being unable to obtain a bid which he thought equal to its value he postponed the sale until the 17th day of June 1833 at the same hour and place when and where he accordily attended and again offered the said property heretofore occupied as a country seat by said Kennedy Long, at public auction. That Charles F. Mayer and William J. Cole became the purchasers thereof at and for the sum of $5500, that being the highest bid made therefor. The undersigned paid to the auctioneer for selling the same the sum of $10. He also paid for a survey and plat of the said property which he deemed it advisable to have made the sum of $8. also the sum of $38. for advertising said property for sale; All of which he prays may be allowed to him. The undersigned also received from General Jesse Green the agent of Henry Long the former trustee under said Kennedy Long's will the sum of $4441.47 a part of the trust property in his hands of which the sum of $4290.54 was principal and the balance interest in arrear from said Henry Long.

The undersigned also received the sum of $1120 from the United States being the amount of a certificate of 4 per cent stock belonging to Andrew K. Long, Amelia J. Long, Mary Jane Long and James H. Long held by the said Trustee Henry Long for their use being part of the residue of said Kennedy Long's personal estate. These several sums are now held by the undersigned subject to this Court's order which he prays may direct him in the disposition of it. There is also the sum of $100. yet due from the said former trustee Henry Long which the undersigned expects to receive in a short time.
