to any account for or to make satisfaction or to pay any sums or sums of money for or by reason of the said matters charged in said Bill or any of them & he prays to have the same advantage of the Statute of limitations in this behalf and if he had formally pleaded the same.

And this respondent having fully answered all things required of him by the Bill of Complaint prays to be hence dismissed with his costs in this behalf sustained.

W. R. Waltz

George B. Chase } Solr for Geo. B. Chase.

Petition

(Filed 7th May 1881)

J. D. Long et al vs Elizabeth Long et al } In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable George W. Dobbin Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

The complainants herein respectfully show and suggest to the Court here and give the Court to understand and be informed that Philip Hess a material defendant to this suit departed this life at the City of Baltimore on or about the twenty second day of January last past, leaving surviving him his widow Sarah Hess, and several children and the issue of a deceased child as hereinafter mentioned and leaving a last Will and testament duly attested to pass real estate in the State of Maryland whereby he devised and bequeathed his estate and property to the persons named in said last will, and that after the death of said Philip his said last will was duly proved by the executors thereof named therein to wit; P. Hanson Hess and William J. Hess of the City of Baltimore before the Orphans Court of Baltimore City, and letters testamentary thereon were committed by said Court to the said named executors as by a certificate of the Register of Wills of Baltimore City herewith filed Marked Exhibit No. 1 and prayed to be taken as part hereof will appear and that said executors have since taken upon them the burthen of the execution of said last Will.

And the said Complainants further show that the said testator after making provisions for payment of his debts and bequeathing sundry specific and pecuniary legacies died by said last will devise parcel of his estate in fee simple or did pretend to devise the same unto his two sons P. Hanson Hess and William J. Hess and unto his son-in-law Samuel J. Soper, Thomas B. Israel and William W. Coleman and the survivor of them in trust for his the testators widow Sarah Hess during her life and after her death devised that the same shall fall into his residue. And as to his said residue, he devised or pretended to devise one equal sixth part thereof to the said P. Hanson Hess absolutely another equal sixth part thereof unto the said P. Hanson Hess, William J. Hess. Samuel J. Soper. Thomas B. Israel and William W. Coleman and the survivors and survivor of them and the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of such survivor in trust for Annie J. Hess wife of said William J. Hess for her life with remainder to her children by said William with certain executory gifts over — another equal sixth part thereof to the same trustees in trust for Elizabeth R. Israel, wife of said Thomas B. Israel for her life with remainder to her children with other executory gifts over - another equal sixth part thereof to the same trustees in trusts for Sally A. Soper wife of