Petition of Amendment of Bill, Consent & Order of Court thereon:
(Filed 19th May 1881)

Long et al vs Long et al	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable George W. Dobbin Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore city.

The petition of the complainants in this cause respectfully shows that since the institution of this suit to wit on the Ninth day of February last Amelia J. Worthington one of the children and devisees of Kennedy Long the testator mentioned in the proceedings and wife of Thomas Worthington and one of the defendants herein departed this life leaving surviving her her said husband and the defendants Emily Worthington, George Worthington, Thomas Worthington the younger, John E. Worthington James K. Worthington and Helen W. Gauss her children and Andrew Worthington son of a deceased child of her the said Amelia, and Margaret Mercleer daughter of a deceased daughter of her the said Amelia that all said parties are of full age except the said Andrew and the said Margaret who are infants under the age of twenty one years and that said George Worthington is married to Hannah Mrs Worthington a defendant hereto and that said Helen W. Gauss is married to the defendant William E. Gauss and that the respective residences of said parties are correctly as the complainants set forth in the Bill of Complaint herein.

And they further show that by the death of the said Amelia the share of the said Amelia in the property and estate mentioned in the proceedings devised to her during her natural life has according to the limitation thereof by the said last will of the testator Kennedy Long vested in
