October Term 1883.

Long et al vs Long et al.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

The complainants in this case respectfully suggest to the Court here, and give the Court to be informed that Thomas J. Long, one of the defendants in this cause, died on the 18th day of February A. D. 1882, in the State of Illinois and surviving him his widow, Elizabeth E. Long, and the following, his only children and heirs at law:

1. Adelaide, wife of Vincent Ridgely, of Galesburg, Illinois.
2. Margaret Long, of Barry Illinois,
3. Mary A. Gamble, wife of John Gamble, Louisianna, Missouri.
4. Isadore, wife of George Harvey,
5. Zillah, wife of George Blair.
6. Marian, wife of John J. Orr.
7. William Henry Long, married to a certain Jane Long, all of Barry, Illinois, and
8. Thomas C. Long of the State of Kansas married to a certain Julia Long.

That the said Thomas J. Long died intestate, whereby all his interest in the estate mentioned in the proceedings devolved upon his said children and heirs at law; and that all the parties hereinbefore named are of full age and are willing to appear in this cause and be substituted as parties thereto, in the place of the said Thomas J. Long, deceased.

And the said Complainants accordingly pray that the proceedings may be amended by adding the said hereinbefore named parties as parties defendant in this cause in the room of said Thomas J. Long, deceased upon their undertaking to appear to the said Bill of October Term 1883.

Complaint and so forth, and that the Court will make such further order therein as may be right.

and, as, &c.

J. J. Alexander.
Complts. Solicitor.

State of Maryland,
Baltimore City, to wit:

I hereby certify, that on this Eighteenth day of December A. D. 1882 before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Baltimore City, personally appeared Thomas Worthington of Pittsfield, Illinois, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he is a relation by blood, of the said Thomas J. Long, deceased, in the foregoing petition mentioned, and that the matters and things stated in the foregoing suggestion are true to the best of his Knowledge and belief.
