October Term 1883.

First Interrogatory. State your residence and occupation.

1. Answer "I reside in Baltimore County. I am a manufacturer and am fifty two years of age, son of Philip Kuss deceased, I have resided in or about Baltimore City all my life."

Second Interrogatory. What was the condition of the Kennedy Long property mentioned in these proceeding when you could first remember?

2. Answer. "It was in a very untenantable condition".

Third Interrogatory. How untenantable?

3. Answer "The dwelling was in a very dilapidated condition, the land was in a very poor condition, the fences and every thing like that, the whole place was in a wretched condition".

Fourth Interrogatory. How was it enclosed?

4. Answer "That I cannot say. I think that it was a wooden fence around it to the best of my knowledge. I could not say positively".

Fifth Interrogatory. How far back do you remember the property?

5. Answer "From the time it was purchased by my father".

Sixth Interrogatory. What enclosure if any, was put around the property by your father at the time of his purchase?

6. Answer "Proper fencing".

Seventh Interrogatory. Was the whole of it enclosed by fences by your father?

7. Answer "Yes Sir, that portion which required fencing".

Eighth Interrogatory. What buildings were on the property when your father purchased it?

8. Answer "A dwelling house and stabling and shed, and some out buildings of that description".

Tenth Interrogatory. How far at that time was the property beyond the built up portion of the city?

October Term 1883.

9. Answer "That is a pretty hard thing to answer, But I think it was about Biddle street".

Tenth Interrogatory. How many squares is Biddle street from the boundary of the Kennedy Long property?

10. Answer "That I cannot tell you, I'll have to count them up, five and a half square".

Eleventh Interrogatory. Was it or not at the time of your father's purchase within the limit of direct taxation?

11. Answer. No sir, it was not".

Twelfth Interrogatory What streets now bind upon and run through this property?

12. Answer." Mosher and Mc Mechen, Madison Avenue, McCulloh streets. Druid Hill Avenue".

Thirteenth Interrogatory. What streets if any ran through the property when you first remember it?

13. Answer "No streets ran through it".

Fourteenth Interrogatory. Upon what streets, if any, are dwellings now erected on the property in question?

14. Answer "On Madison Avenue the entire length of the property, on the east side of McCulloh street, the entire length of the property, except about forty-five feet north of Mc Mechen streets, a church on the north east corner of Druid Hill Avenue and Mc Mechen street. It is substantially all improved except the square bounded by McCulloh street. Druid Hill Avenue, Mosher and Mc Meken streets".

Fifteenth Interrogatory. What is the general character of the improvements on the various streets, and within how many years have those improvements been erected?

15. Answer. "Improvements may be termed first class with reference to dwellings of Baltimore City, and I think it has been within the last ten or fifteen years. The first house on the property was erected in 1866".

Sixteenth Interrogatory. Upon what part of the ground is the mansion house of the Kennedy Long property?