13 answer Yes, sir.

Fourteenth interrogatory. Did you, in that conversation, inform John M. Everist, that you understood the money had been got for the benefit of his wife?

(Objected to as leading.)

14 answer. Yes, sir.

Fifteenth interrogatory. Had you any other conversation with John M. Everist, in regard to the loan of that money, or the payment of the interest on it?

15 answer. None, that I recollect of.

Sixteenth interrogatory. Was that money, principal and interest, paid to you; and if so, by whom?

16 answer. Yes, by John E. McCullough, principal and interest.

(Defendants' solicitor will file a copy of the mortgage and release.)

Cross-Examined for Complainant.

First cross interrogatory. Do you mean to say by your last answer, that no interest was paid to you upon that loan of seven hundred dollars, except what was paid you by John E. McCullough?

1x answer. No; the interest was all paid up, so far as my memory serves me, up to George S. McCullough's death, and Mr. John E. McCullough paid me the mortgage and the interest that had accrued.

Second cross interrogatory. At the time that you made that loan of seven hundred dollars to George S. McCullough, whose note was given you for the money?

2x answer. I can't remember whether it was George S McCullough's note or Mr. Everist's; I think Mr. McCullough's.

Third cross-interrogatory. Did you know anything of the purpose of George S. McCullough in borrowing that money, or of the object to which it was to be put, except what George

S. McCullough told you?

3x answer. No, Sir; he told me it was Mrs Everist.

Philip Gover, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the defendants, being by me first duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God, being examined on the following interrogatories to him propounded in that behalf, makes oath, deposith and saith as follows, that is to say:

First interrogatory. State your residence and occupation?

1 answer. I reside in Baltimore City, and am now employed in the Custom House.

Second interrogatory. Do you know the parties to this suit?

2 answer. I know all the parties.

Third interrogatory. In what business were you engaged in 1857?

3 answer. I think I was in the exchange and banking business; my memory is very bad about dates.

Fourth interrogatory. Were you a member of the banking house at the corner of Harrison and Baltimore streets, and which went under the name of "Philip Gover and Company?

4 answer. Yes, sir.

Fifth interrogatory. Do you recollect who was the company in the early part of your business?

5 answer. Oh, yes, Charles W. Lee, of Belair.

Sixth interrogatory. Was George S. McCullough at any time a partner in that house?

6 answer. Yes, sir.

Seventh interrogatory. Can you state from your memory, at what time Mr. George S. McCullough commenced to be a partner, and at what time he ceased to be a partner?

7 answer. I think Mr. McCullough became a partner in 1863; I suppose the books will tell.

Eighth interrogatory. Where are the books of Philip Gover &
