10th Interrogatory. Look at "J.E." No. 3. now filed and say whether or not the mortgage claims mentioned in your testimony previously, and the claim of R.D. Wood & Co. and Wm. D. Caldwell now in suit against against the state as you have testified and shown in exhibits "J.E." Nos. 1 and 2 are additional to the claims therein set forth?

None of the mortgages are set out herein (J.E. No 3). Neither are the claims represented by the two suits of Wood and Caldwell. There is an item as I before said of $150. interest on one of those mortgages in "J.E." No. 3.

(Objected to.)

11th Interrogatory. Was any interest other than that $150. due on any one of the said mortgage claims?

Probably there was. Probably the interest on the $3750. was due because the mortgages were dated the same day, but for some reason it was never proved.

(Objected to.)

Neither of the parties desiring to take any further testimony the evidence was here closed.
