to them, or in trust for them, respectively, but such testamentary provision on the part of any of my said children shall only affect and dispose of the surplus of such ninth part given to such child, respectively, after first paying ~~and~~ or securing to my husband's estate, any liability of such child for loans and advances, as already hereinbefore declared, and shall likewise be subject to the charge to make good the deficiencies of any other legatees for loans and advances to my husband's estate, after crediting the legacies of the ninth part of the residue of the personal estate hereinbefore bequeathed to such legatees, respectively.

I do hereby constitute and appoint David S. Wilson, Thomas J. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson, and the survivors of them, the executors of this, my will, and I hereby authorize them to after the sale of the Gay street property, until they shall be able to obtain what they may deem its full value, and in the meantime they shall rent said property, and the net rents apply for the benefit of the same persons, and in the same proportions as I have above provided, in reference to the proceeds of sale of said Gay street property; and revoking all wills by me heretofore made, I declare this to be my last and only will.

In witness whereof, I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed my seal on this thirteenth day of February, A.D. eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Mary Wilson, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mary Wilson, the within named testatrix, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto:

Arthur Geo Brown,

Rufus W. Applegarth,
John W. Simpson.

(U.S. Stamp, $17.50.)

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the 29th day of April, 1869, came Arthur Geo. Brown and John W. Simpson, two of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing last will and testament of Mary Wilson, late of said city, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see the testatrix sign and seal this will; that they heard her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be her last will and testament; that at the time of her so doing she was, to the best of their apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that they, together with Rufus W. Applegarth, the other subscribing witness thereto, subscribed their names as witnesses to this will, in her presence, at her request, and in the presence of each other.

Sworn to in Open Court.
