Whereas, since the execution of my will, bearing date the 13th day of February, A. D. 1868, the trustees under the will of my late husband have, with my consent, made a further advance out of the trust estate in their hands, for the benefit of my son, Henry B. Wilson, amounting to upwards of seventy-one hundred dollars, and it is just that I should, by a codicil, charge said advance upon the portion which I have, under the powers conferred upon me by the 13th clause of my said husband's will, given to the children of my said son, Henry B. Wilson, and his wife, Sallie L. Wilson.

I do now therefore will and direct, that the trustees of my said husband's estate, who shall hold the residue of the personal estate bequeathed under said 13th clause at the time of my death, before they shall pay or transfer any part of the personal estate, so held by them, to or for the use of the children of my said son, Henry, in accordance with the provisions of my will, either out of the twelfth part or sum of $12,000 set apart for their benefit, or out of the ninth part of the remainder of said personal estate, shall first repay or secure to my husband's estate the full amount of the additional advances made by said trustees for the benefit of my said son, Henry, as aforesaid, or so much thereof as may remain unpaid by him.

All the other provisions in my said will, and especially those in favor of the children of my said son, Henry, except as the same may be affected by this codicil thereto ratify and confirm.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Mary Wilson, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for a codicil to the will of the said Mary Wilson, dated the 13th of February, 1868, by the said Mary Wilson above named, in the presence of us, who, at her request, in her presence and in the presence of each other, have signed our names as witnesses thereto:

Arthur Geo. Brown,

John W. Simpson,

Frederick J. Brown.

Baltimore City, Ss.

On the 28th day of April 1869, came Thomas J. Wilson, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he doth not know of any will or codicil of Mary Wilson, late of said city, deceased, other than the above instrument of writing, and that he took the same from the Safe Deposit Company, where it was deposited by the deponent after receiving it from the testatrix, who gave it to him at the time of its execution; that the testatrix departed this life on the 17th day of April 1869.

Sworn to in open Court.

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the 29th day of April, 1869, came Arthur George Brown and John W. Simpson, two of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing codicil to the last will and testament of Mary Wilson, late of said city deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see the testatrix sign and seal this codicil; that they heard her publish,
