testament, except so far (and so far only) as the same may be changed by this codicil.

Second. It is my will, that in the event of my grand-daughter, Anna St. Clair Patterson, the child of my deceased son, A. Melville Patterson, receiving or being entitled to any other part of my estate, than that devised in trust for her by my said last will and testament, by reason of the death of one or more of my children or descendents, by virtue of any of the provisions of my said last will and testament, that the same shall be held in trust for her by my son, William Patterson, and his successor and successors, during her life, as provided for the one-fourth interest devised and bequeathed by the eighth item of my said last will and testament, and from and after her death the same to descend and vest as provided for the said one-fourth interest devised and bequeathed by the said item of my said last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I hereto set my hand and affix my seal, this seventeenth day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-four.

Mary L. Patterson, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mrs. Mary L. Patterson, the above-named testatrix, as and for a codicil to her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto set our hands as witnesses, June 17th 1884.

Thos. J. Wilson,
Henry R. Wilson,
Harry W. Wilson,
E. Calvin Williams.

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the 19th day of August, 1884, came William Patterson, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he doth not know of any will or codicil of Mary L. Patterson, late of said city, deceased, other than the above instrument of writing, and that he received the same from testatrix in her lifetime, and retained the same in his possession until this time; and that testatrix departed this life on the 12th day of August, 1884.

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the 19th day of August, 1884, came Thomas J. Wilson, Henry L. Wilson and Henry W. Wilson, three of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing codicil to the last will and testament of Mary L. Patterson, late of said city, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see the testatrix sign and seal this codicil; that they heard her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be a codicil to her last will and testament; that at the time of her so doing she was, to the best of their apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that they, together with E. Calvin Williams, the other subscribing witness thereto, subscribed their names to this codicil in her presence, at her request, and in the presence of each other.
