Easton Gazette.

WILSON M. TYLOR & BRO.,
Editors and Proprietors.
EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Nov. 10th, 1894.

Persons owing the GAZETTE money are forwarned and have been cautioned that if some satisfactory effort to pay is not made, and that without delay, the editors will not be held blamable for the law's stern demands. tf

Persons receiving sample copies of the GAZETTE need not fear to take same from the office when the word "sample" is printed on wrapper. The law only holds the person responsible who allows the publisher to continue the paper under the assumption that it is wanted and will be paid for. The GAZETTE is as careful to discontinue a name as to place on list, if the subscriber makes his wishes known and his paper is not in arrears. But the GAZETTE does not insult a subscriber by removing his name the very date of expiration if same subscriber is presumed to wish to continue. It does frequently remove names though, when it finds out the parties are defrauding the paper, wilfully and knowingly.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against 73 men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these, 28 made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachments. Then under the decision of Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave the bonds. The postal laws make it petty larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

COMMENT on the result is unnecessary. Each person knows enough of the causes which produced it. The most striking feature is now noticeable, that many prominent democrats which before the election were "free trade" out and out, are now "satisfied" and even glad. A democratic editor of Easton who fills his columns full of the strongest "free trade" literature is confessedly a high tariff man and thinks the change back to republican protective principles will be a good one for the country.

"Well, I was not satisfied at least in my voting against the laboring factory man, anyway" was remarked by a good democrat Wednesday, and "it was a bitter pill to vote my party ticket" was said by another. In interviewing one of our old prominent and respected democrats who has had many offices as the gift of his party he said,

MENE, MENE, TECKEL UPHARSIN.

"The great democrat party has been weighed in the scale of public opinion and found wanting. Such has been the verdict of the American people at the late election, and now recorded as a fixed fact, that our next president will be a republican one. The question is easily answered as to the cause of the "late unpleasantness." The democratic party was placed in full power to manage and control our governmental affairs, and how sadly did they mismanage them, which led to a universal want of confidence throughout every section of our country and the people have cast their verdict in accordance with the above facts. When the Senate of the United States had the Tariff Question before them, they behaved like a lot af school boys who failed to know their lessons, creating in the minds of those who had elected them a want of respect, mistrust and contempt. Bringing the question down to our own county which has gone republican by 303 votes, it is easily understood that there has been a want of respect and confidence in our high county officials—some of them—and had our people been given a chance some of them would have been politely requested to vacate, as they had been weighed in the scale of public opinion and found wanting."

THE democratic nose was turned this year in Talbot.

OUR flag will still float for America. Protection and Reciprocity in the days to come.

SOLID South no more. Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia have arrived at their "majority" and have begun to think and act for themselves.

JOSHUA MILES gloried in having his political birth during the Cleveland era of the country. We hope he will enjoy the sensation of glory that comes to so few.

IN one more year the Ledger will be old enough to vote. It celebrated its twentieth anniversary on Thursday by announcing that "All goes Republican," which was a bitter pill, but it swallowed it like a little man. The Ledger is a good paper, in fact it is the best Thursday's paper in Talbot county. Everybody who knows it thinks it good, but no one has a higher appreciation of it than the editors themselves who delight to speak of its excellence. Well, the GAZETTE endorses every word they say and wishes them another score of brilliantly prosperous years.

COMMUNICTED.

HARLEIGH, NOV. 5, 1894.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—

I read with much surprise and sorrow the conclusion of your editorial in the last GAZETTE—November 3.

I cannot speak for the Democracy of Talbot Co. from whom (if they are to be judged by their leaders) I differ on many important points, but for hundreds of thousands of northern Democrats I can safely say that your assertion that they believe in annihilating the colored franchise is wickedly absurd

Can you not realize that even a local paper has grave responsibility for good or evil in the community in which it circulates and that such reckless and false statements produce equal nonsense on the other side and the great mass of people are (as far as your power goes) kept in ignorance?

Respy. yours,
P. B. SPRING.

We have the greatest respect for the opinion of our esteemed citizen—the writer of the above—and upon second thought notice that our editorial should have confined the negro question to those states south of the Mason and Dixon line. We do not think the democracy of the north considers the question other than a settled one. But the Southern democracy is a unit and that in accord with the sentiment which the editorial accuses it of having. EDITOR.

MATTHEW MARSHALL'S PREDICTION.

The Democratic Policy Must Kill Some of Our American Industries.

It has generally been supposed that Matthew Marshall, the commercial writer of The Sun, was a man of judgment, but people are beginning to doubt this, and with reason. In a recent issue of that paper we find the following:

"Although the protection to other manufacturing industries will not be so great under the new act as it is under that now in force, it is sufficient to keep alive most of them, and the loss to trade by the stoppage of the rest will be compensated by an increased activity in the importation of foreign goods."

Matthew Marshall is kind enough to say that the protection afforded under the Gorman tariff bill "is sufficient to keep alive most of them" (the manufacturers). He acknowledges that some must die, but this is a matter of little concern because in his opinion "the loss to trade by the stoppage of the rest will be compensated by an increase of activity in the importation of foreign goods." It is fortunate that Matthew Marshall did not attempt to explain, because he couldn't, how the stoppage of any of our manufacturing industries, which means idle people with no purchasing power, can "be compensated by an increased activity in the importation of foreign goods," which simply means sending so much money out of the country to pay foreign wages and to check the distribution of wages here and the purchasing power of our people.

Matthew Marshall then went on to denounce those Democrats who urged the president to let the Gorman bill become a law. He must have had in view The Sun's Franco-American contemporary, the New York Herald, when he said, "They exhibit the groveling spirit of the Parisian shopkeepers." Further on he stated, "They forgot that the advantage which they gain will be temporary, while the injury to the country will be lasting." How can this be if "the stoppage of the rest" of our manufactures "will be compensated by an increased activity in the importation of foreign goods?"

This deliberate contradiction in one paragraph of what was written in a previous paragraph not only makes people wonder if Matthew Marshall is sane, but also if the commercial columns of The Sun are becoming as utterly unreliable as its editorial predictions of a wheat famine. Mr. Dana need never go bread hungry. There will always be ample wheat in the world to supply him with a crust. But he should not persistently advocate in his paper a policy for the United States that will make the people go hungry and become dependent upon charities and free soup houses. It is un-American.

NEWS OF ROYAL OAK.

The Election Passes off Quietly. Judge Hammond Home This Week.

ROYAL OAK, Nov. 9.—The election at this place passed off very quietly on Tuesday, Lincoln's nose to the east. Democrats were much chagrined at the very large Republican majority here. Prohibitionists encouraged by one more vote than ever, cast for their party at this place.

Revival services at the M. E. Church will probably close on Sunday evening.

Judge O. Hammond was at home on Tuesday.

Mr. Richard Banning of Baltimore spent last Sabbath with his aunt, Mrs. M. J. Harrison, of Deep Neck.

George Smith and John Henry Johnson, two well-known colored men of this locality, have died this week.

We have a new shop where boots and shoes are repaired. A long felt need in this place. We welcome even small enterprises.

Mrs. E. F. Hoffecher, of New-York City, visited her sister, Mrs. M. E. Thomson, of this place last week.

A Gospel Temperance Meeting will be held in the M. E. Church Sunday at 3 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Mr. Jas. V. Moore, Jr., left Tuesday afternoon for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he has accepted a promising situation in a real estate office.

Miss Georgie Willis, of Island Creek Neck, and Mr. Ralph Shoemaker, of West Washington, D. C., were the guests of Mrs. T. Smith Cox the early part of the week.

Dr. J. A. Robinson received a telegram on Thursday morning saying that his son Joseph was lying at the point of death at his home in Kansas City. Dr. Robinson started West on Thursday evening.

On Tuesday the body of a man, presumably a mulatto, was washed ashore on William Harris' farm in Ferry Neck. The body had been in the water so long that the coroner could come to no definite conclusion in regard to him.

At the meeting of Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. Church on Tuesday, it was decided to have a lunch box social at the M. E. Parsonage on Wednesday evening November 14.

Post Office at Salisbury Robbed.

The postoffice at Salisbury was entered by burglars at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning and $75 in money and $125 in stamps taken, they left their tools, but the robbers can't be found.

The thumb is an unfailing index of character. The Square Type indicates a strong will, great energy and firmness. Closely allied is the Spatulated Type, the thumb of those of advanced ideas and business ability. Both of these types belong to the busy man or woman; and Demorest's Family Magazine prepares especially for such persons a whole volume of new ideas, condensed in a small space, so that the record of the whole world's work for a month may be read in half an hour. The Conical Type indicates refinement, culture, and a love of music, poetry, and fiction. A person with this type of thumb will thoroughly enjoy the literary attractions of Demorest's Magazine. The Artistic Type indicates a love of beauty and art, which will find rare pleasure in the magnificent oil-picture of roses, 16½ x 24 inches, reproduced from the original painting by De Longpré, the most celebrated of living flower-painters, which will be given to every subscriber to Demorest's Magazine for 1895. The cost of this superb work of art was $350.00; and the reproduction cannot be distinguished from the original. Besides this, an exquisite oil or water-color picture is published in each number of the Magazine, and the articles are so profusely and superbly illustrated that the Magazine is, in reality, a portfolio of art works of the highest order. The Philosophic Type is the thumb of the thinker and inventor of ideas, who will be deeply interested in those developed monthly in Demorest's Magazine, in every one of its numerous departments, which cover the entire artistic and scientific field, chronicling every fact, fancy, and fad of the day. Demorest's is simply a perfect Family Magazine, and was long ago crowned Queen of the Monthlies. Send in your subscription; it will cost only $2.00, and you will have a dozen Magazines in one. Address W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, Publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York. Though not a fashion magazine, its perfect fashion pages, and its articles on family and domestic matters, will be of superlative interest to those possessing the Feminine Type of Thumb, which indicates in its small size, slenderness, soft nail, and smooth, rounded tip, those traits which belong essentially to the entler sex, every one of whom should subscribe to emorest's Magazine. If you are unacquainted with s merits, send for a specimen copy (free), and ou will admit that seeing these THUMBS has put ou in the way of saving money by finding in one agazine everything to satisfy the literary wants of e whole family.

Winter Clothing for about the half of what you've had to pay

It's in the interest of the people, sure. Since this store was a store we never sold Clothing as low as now. You'll credit us with knowing Good Clothing. We never had better. Every body, almost, is after it—we mean great crowds daily. No use advertising if we didn't believe there were people who don't yet know our prices.

Perhaps you've seen in the newspapers that wool is lower than it was, that there's also less purchasing power. We know it, for such things come to us first. We've anticipated all these things because we're forced to sell now, and you'll find our prices the lowest—no matter how long you wait for lower.

Needn't spend $10 for All Wool Winter Suit. Our price $5
Needn't spend $10 for All Wool Winter Overcoat. Our price $5
Needn't spend $12 or $15 for Suit. Ours $6.75 or $7.50
