Easton Gazette.

WILSON M. TYLOR & BRO.,
Editors and Proprietors.
EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Nov. 17th, 1894.

Persons owing the GAZETTE money are forwarned and have been cautioned that if some satisfactory effort to pay is not made. and that without delay, the editors will not be held blamable for the law's stern demands. tf

Persons receiving sample copies of the GAZETTE need not fear to take same from the office when the word "sample" is printed on wrapper. The law only holds the person responsible who allows the publisher to continue the paper under the assumption that it is wanted and will be paid for. The GAZETTE is as careful to discontinue a name as to place on list, if the subscriber makes his wishes known and his paper is not in arrears. But the GAZETTE does not insult a subscriber by removing his name the very date of expiration if same subscriber is presumed to wish to continue. It does frequently remove names though, when it finds out the parties are defrauding the paper, wilfully and knowingly.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against 73 men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these, 28 made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachments. Then under the decision of Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave the bonds. The postal laws make it petty larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

If your paper is marked at this paragraph it means that you are requested to respond to bill sent. Please read small print top of this column.

IT is becoming something of a fad among country papers to announce their anniversaries with some well oiled and slippery remarks about the "wonderful improvements" their papers have made, which remarks usually engage the attention of one eye of the reader while the other, so to speak, is on the sporting news or column of personal gossip. But we do not have any honors to dish out, although by way of remark, the GAZETTE is 79 years old to-day. The card dish is empty—for it has received no callers. The paste pot is depleted and the scissors are dull, both articles suffering from continued use. The paper is older to-day than it ever was before and feels its infirmities creeping apace. It does not renew its youth like many of its contemporaries, annually, for if it did it would be two or three generations out of date. Neither does it pose as a forerunner and heralder of great events. It is simply the EASTON GAZETTE, with neither title nor honor, and when it dies, as it undoubtedly will some day, let not its epitaph read like the distinguished old lady's, "she tried to do what she couldn't," but rather "It hit the truth occasionally, if it was by accident."

MR. PRESTON B. SPRING thought a recent editorial in the GAZETTE "wickedly absurd" because it said that the democrats held no question paramount to the negro suffrage question.

The great Geo. Colton in an interview with a Baltimore News reporter is reported to have said in last Sunday's edition of that paper:

> The Democrats of Maryland did not do their own thinking on Tuesday last. They were not governed by their calm judgment and sober thought, but by factional hates and prejudice, and it was very fortunate for us that this was not a year to elect a Governor and Legislature or we might today be under the rule of a party placed in power by the votes of 40,000 negroes."
>
> * * * Further he said: "Young man, I want to impress upon your mind one fact, and I want you to remember it when I am gone—that this is a Government of white men; that Maryland is a white man's State; that the Democratic party is the white man's party, and will never permit its Government to be placed in the hands of a party through the votes of 40,000 uneducated, irresponsible negroes."

There is abundance of authority for our statement. Although from the stump and press, but little was heard from democratic source but iniquitous republican legislation and robber tariff, yet because the democrats thought solely of this and did not take the negro into the question—though long since settled, Mr. Colton accuses them of not doing their own thinking. This admits of but one construction, and that one the "thinking" should have been on the color line and not the tariff line.

But the most ridiculous feature and farce is, that so long as the negro can be bought, made drunken or used to vote the democratic ticket, even should Mr. Colton's entire 40,000 cast a solid ticket for democracy, she would still be a "white man's" party, and not the slightest hue of white would mark the "black" republican who voted his own ticket after the "black element" had been eliminated by those who fought harder to obtain it.

WE must again insist upon subscribers watching their date on address slip. When payment is made and date doesn't change immediately denoting time to which credit is given it indicates some omission. In several instances subscribers have paid a third party for the GAZETTE and we have remained in blissful ignorance of it. They do so at their own risk for we have no collectors regularly employed as such, except those who can show proper authority. The safest way is to remit by postal note direct to this office.

THE election is over. The country safe. The people satisfied or ought to be. No turmoil no restlessness. Business may well afford to look up and the old ship of state can speed along under "two bells" once more.

The merchants are beginning to respond to the general business activity and the pulse of the mechanic beats quicker.

All this is the result of navigation being opened in the money market, and the ice bound barriers broken by the result of re-established confidence. There is plenty of money and plenty of work. Confidence is all that is needed, and it is coming, and coming to stay until some deluded demagogues and calamity howlers again freeze up the stream and close the channel of business prosperity.

Supper at Matthews.

The supper held at Matthews last Friday night in the school house was a success in every sense of the word. The tables were arranged very tastefully; lovely bouqets of flowers added charm to everything, and bright lights completed the scene. Salads, meats, pickles, celery, bread, coffee and all the dishes that produce a meat supper were served to the numerous participants.

Ice cream and cake were also sold, and a hot coal fire and a crowded room were in no wise non-productive to the sale of it. A number of cakes were raffled off towards the end of the evening, and the prize cake presented to the fair winner, chances for this cake were sold at five cents apiece. and the proceeds amounted to $1.90.

This supper was given by the teacher and patrons of the school for the benefit of the library, and quite an encouraging sum was realized, twenty four dollars.

The attendance was large, about 200 in all, judging from appearances all spent an enjoyable evening. A straw-riding party of fifteen attended from Easton with their numerous horns, whistles, etc.

Queen Anne Criticised.

In making its report, the Grand Jury of Queen Anne's county referred to the loose manner in which the lase election was conducted, notably the blunder regarding delivery of ballots at Church Hill and Crumpton districts, and failure to post legal notices, making it possible for persons who had not been properly registered to east their votes.
