Easton Gazette.

WILSON M. TYLOR & BRO.,
Editors and Proprietors.
EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Nov. 24th, 1894.

Persons owing the GAZETTE money are forewarned and have been cautioned that if some satisfactory effort to pay is not made, and that without delay, the editors will not be held blamable for the law's stern demands. tf

Persons receiving sample copies of the GAZETTE need not fear to take same from the office when the word "sample" is printed on wrapper. The law only holds the person responsible who allows the publisher to continue the paper under the assumption that it is wanted and will be paid for. The GAZETTE is as careful to discontinue a name as to place on list, if the subscriber makes his wishes known and his paper is not in arrears. But the GAZETTE does not insult a subscriber by removing his name the very date of expiration if same subscriber is presumed to wish to continue. It does frequently remove names though, when it finds out the parties are defrauding the paper, wilfully and knowingly.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against 73 men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these, 28 made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachments. Then under the decision of Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave the bonds. The postal laws make it petty larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

"SHOULD irrascible old gentlemen be taught to knit?" asks Sarah Grand, the author. Perhaps it would be as well to let them continue to do the darning.

THE best way to appreciate how far the new football rules have eliminated the element of roughness from the game is to read the rules carefully and then refrain from witnessing any football matches.

FARMER Swayne of Huntington, Pa., who has unearthed the skeleton of a mastodon on his farm, is watching the mouths of the scientists water as they angle for his prize. It is the best crop Farmer Swayne has raised in several years.

JOHN HUSSMAN of La Crosse, Wis., had a busy day a short time ago. In the morning his horse ran away and smashed up a costly carriage. In the afternoon another runaway bruised him, and in the evening he was shot accidentally.

THERE is a great excitement over the newly-discovered gold fields in Coalgardie, Western Australia, where it seems, the precious metal is being mined like iron ore. "Four cuts of rock yielded 555 ounces of gold" and "the Londonderry mine has been sold to an English syndicate for $1,950,000."

THERE is positively no safe place outside of the tomb. The abnormally apprehensive had better put aside their apprehension and eat as many grapes as the appetite craves. There is no more wholesome fruit than that which the sly old fox refused to eat, fearing it was sour or that a seed might injure his vermiform appendage.

A BRITISH officer, who apparently knows, says that it "would be reasonable to pit brave men armed with pitchforks against brave men armed with rifles as to pit, man for man, the Chinese in their present condition against the Japanese. Of all native and colonial troops." said he, "I would, next to Ghoorkas, prefer a regiment of Japanese. They are brave, temperate, patient and energetic, and at this moment the Chinese, whatever might be done with them, are 200 years behind the times."

WE are accustomed to regard the Japanese as little better than half civilized, even though recent treaties with the great powers have placed her on equal footing with them. But there are many ways in which her people are eminently superior to the average American, who might profitably copy the example of the Japanese workman, who bathes his whole body once a day, and sometimes twice. Public baths are provided on every street, which are fed by a constant current of cold and hot water. The bather plunges in, remains immersed some ten minutes, then comes out and receives a warm douce of fresh water.

WE would not criticise the Ledger unfavorably for we have nothing but the best of wishes for it and yet, why does it persistently leave out of its Court proceedings the names of prominent Republican lawyers who have figured this term in many cases, and at the same time be car ful to report the other attorneys? All this would not seem so bad if it did not say across 8 columns at the head of the paper this week in bold type, "Yes, the Ledger has a good opinion of itself—have you?"

All That's Claimed

Albert Kinsey
Auburn, Pa.

"I had a poor appetite, that tired feeling and was run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good. I have a better appetite and do not feel tired. I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent spring or fall medicine to keep the blood in order. Myself and three daughters have taken over six bottles, and it has done us much good. We do not now have to call upon a doctor, as formerly, in the spring time, and I can say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is all that is claimed for it. I most heartily recommend it, and shall always keep it in my house." ALBERT KINSEY, Auburn, Pa.

IN considering possible Republican timber for the Presidential nomination in '96, it may be well to keep one eye on Senator Allison.

DANA still pays his respects in no uncertain sounds to Mr. Cleveland for surrendering the Democracy to the Populists.

THE Democratic managers, or some of them, say that State Senator Hayes will succeed Governor Brown. Then what is to become of Spencer C. Jones and John Walter Smith?

THE German Democrats are already beginning to say "I told you so." They believe that he has buried Hill, retired Wilson, and made a back number of Cleveland, and will himself be the logical candidate for President in 1896.

JAPAN is not disposed to have Uncle Sam arbitrate or adjust her troubles with China. Mr. Cleveland's foreign policy has been palpably weak, and the proposition to meddle in the Japan—China difficulty affords another instance to that effort.

Now that the Republicans control one Branch of the Baltimore City Council—corrupt methods in municipal affairs of that city are about to be made the subject of special investigation, with a view to a general reform. A Lexow committee might do much towards placing Baltimore's government on a better plane.

THE Seventh Ward Republican Association, the oldest organization of the kind in Baltimore, the President of which is our popular and genial friend W[illegible] will give its Fourteenth Anniversary dinner at the Entaw House, Baltimore, on the evening of December 13th. Distinguished Republicans, including Hon. Thos. B. Reed, and others, are expected to be present.

REV JONATHAN S. WILLIS, of Delaware and Hon. John K. Cowan, of Baltimore, will represent two new characters in the 54th Congress, who will not be required to sit there a term or two that their importance may first be gauged by older members, before giving them special attention. They may be spring chickens, but they will crow with the roosters from the start.

HON. WM. R. WILSON delivered a lecture in Balto., Tuesday night on the subject of "the evils which beset a modern republic." The distinguished lecturer made no allusion to the recent elections in the United States, but caused a smile in his audience when he apologetically stated that he was a novice at reading manuscript but such a course, at least, would prevent the mistake of him forgetting himself and making a political speech. Prof. Wilson deserved a larger audience than the one which greeted him.

Fight for Post-Office in Cambridge

The fight for postmaster of Cambridge is going on in earnest. The candidates are John G. Miles, editor of the Democrat and News, and Robert G. Henry. The term of the present incumbent expires February 1st.

Harper's Bazar
IN 1895.

Elegant and exclusive designs for Out-door and In-door Toilettes, drawn from Worth models by Sandoz and Chapuis, are important feature. These appear every week, accompanied by minute descriptions and details. Our Paris Letter, by Kathar ne de Forest is a weekly transcript of the latest styles and caprices in the mode. Under the head of New York Fashions, plain directions and full particulars are given as to shapes, fabrics, trimmings and accessories of the customs of well-dressed women. Children's Clothing receives practical attention. A fortnightly Pattern-sheet Supplement enables readers to cut and make their own gowns. The woman who takes HARPER'S BAZAR is prepared for every occasion in life, ceremonious or informal, where beautiful dress is requisite.

An American serial, Doctor Warrick's Daughter, by Rebecca Harding Davis, a strong novel of American life, laid in Pennsylvania and partly in the far South, will occupy the last half of the year.

My Lady Nobody, and intensely exciting novel by Maarten Maartens, author of "God's Fool," "The Greater Glory," etc., will begin the year.

Essays and Social Chats. To this department Spectator will contribute her charming papers on "What We are Doing" in New York society.

Answers to Correspondents. Questions receive the personal attention of the editor, and are answered at the earliest possible date after their receipt.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The volumes of the BAZAR begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order.

Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of $1.00 each. Title-page and Index sent on application.

Remittances should be made by Post-office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the Chino Japanese War and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

Fiction. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of old-time days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelties and many short stories by popular writers.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.
