Henderson, the within named testatrix, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us; who, at her request, in her presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

W. H. McFarlin,
D. Caldwell Ireland,
Wm. Watts, Jr.

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the eighteenth day of December, 1883, came William Watts, Junior, one of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing last will and testament of Eliza C. Henderson, late of said city deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he did not see the testatrix sign and seal this will; that he did not hear her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be her last will and testament; that at the time he signed his name to the paper-writing propounded now as the last will and testament of the said testatrix, she was, to the best of his apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and that he, together with William H. McFarlin and D. Caldwell Ireland, two other subscribing witnesses, subscribed his name as a witness to this will, in her presence, at her request and in the presence of the other witnesses.

Sworn to before the subscriber.

Baltimore City, Sct:

On this 18th day of December, 1883, before the subscriber, Register of Wills for Baltimore city, William Watts, Junior, maketh oath, on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he is well acquainted with William H. McFarlin, one of the subscribing witnesses to the last will and testament of Eliza C. Henderson, deceased, and to the first codicil thereto; that he now resides beyond the limits of the State of Maryland; and that he verily believes that the name "W. H. McFarlin", signed as an attestation of the said will, and the name "W. H. McFarlin", signed as an attestation of the first codicil to the said will, are in the true and proper handwriting of the said Wm. H. McFarlin.
