MAUDE COLLINS,	" "
MARIAN AVERY,	" "

The handsome dictionary advertised below will be given away to the most popular Girl Pupil in any public school of Talbot County as a Christmas present from the GAZETTE, and decided upon by her friends without to vote for her.

No vote will be counted not made in accordance with these printed conditions.

The pupil must be in the 6th grade or higher. The vote must be upon a coupon taken from the GAZETTE.

To prevent a person from gathering up coupons from sample papers, no coupon will be counted not signed by a subscriber who has paid for his paper for at least to the end of 1894. The date on the address slip shows the time to which the paper is paid.

Subscriptions will be received for 30 cents for three months, or $1 per year in advance, and stopped at expiration if desired. No subscription received for less than three months.

No subscriber can have counted more votes than coupons offered. The last coupon will be No. 10, and issued Dec. 22d. They may be held until the last is issued and all sent in together, or may be sent in and credited whenever ready.

No votes will be received later than Dec. 26, 1894.

Non subscribers, that is, those who do not pay cash for the GAZETTE but have it through another source, and those who are on the list but are in arrears, may vote by using coupons and paying 3 cents for each, which will be equivalent to a 3 mos. subscription. But no one person will be credited with more than 10 votes, and each coupon must be signed.

The results voted for will be published each week in the order of their ballots, the one standing highest appearing first.

The result of balloting will not be published until Saturday, Dec. 29, 1894.

The winner must furnish her photo. to the GAZETTE for publication and a personal sketch limited to 1000 words. Failing to do this the 2d best will be entitled to dictionary upon complying with the same conditions.

The Unsolved Problem.

FRANK WYSOR.

He had spent long years in college, and acquired all kinds of knowledge,
From smoking cigarettes to reading Greek;
And it was said by many that in Hebrew,
Eskimo and Latin
With the accent of a native he could speak.

He knew every modern science, and for every new appliance
He was able some improvement to suggest;
And from bending on a hawser up to criticising Chaucer,
Of all the greatest minds he was abreast.

He was charmed with hydrostatics, and in higher mathematics
Not a thing to stump him could he find;
And to prove a line's direction or bisect a conic section
Was but a relaxation to his mind.

But he saw a little maiden after all this store he laid in,
The most inviting problem he had met;
And he felt it was his mission to employ his erudition
To solve this most inviting problem yet.

So without a bit of shirking he has ever since been working
On the question with an ardor that never tires;
Yet with all his application, to his great and deep vexation,
He cannot get the answer he desires.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there's nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la-grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and found relief it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at J. C. Henry's drug store. Regular size 50 cts and $1.00.

2. Joseph R. Benson,	2. James Valliant,
3. C. Thos. Stevens,	3. Jas M. Leonard,
2. S. S. Thomson,	1. Chas F. Griffith,
2. Jas. D. Haddaway,	3. Chas. W. Sullivan,
1. John P. Horney.

PETIT JURY.

1. M. M. Higgins,	1. Benj. F. Parlett,
3. J. H. Caulk Kemp,	4. M. H. Dragoo,
3. James Nichols,	1. Wm. W. Baynard,
1. Charles Rigby,	4. Edward T. Roe,
1. M. B. Nichols,	1. Thos. H. Jenkins,
2. Isaac S. Swan,	1. Joseph H. White,
2. Perry S. Leonard,	3. Edwd. G. Lowe,

The officers of the court are Col. Hughlett, clerk; Henry Hollyday, Jr., deputy; Wm. J. Dukes, sheriff; John H. McHale and W. T. A. Lockerman, deputies; James A. Roe, crier; Sam'l Tucker and John Thompson, bailiffs to grand jury. Edward Lloyd was appointed foreman of the grand jury. Judge Stump carefully instructed the grand jury and called their attention to the acts of the assembly relating to defaulters and other crimes. He further said, "The oath you have taken, gentlemen, points out very clearly the duties which, in the most solemn manner you have promised to perform. To you is committed the preservation of the peace of the county, and upon you is imposed the duty of presenting to the court all persons who violate the law, in order that they may be tried and if convicted, may be justly and properly punished. In other words, you are selected by the law to glance at and survey the conduct of your fellow-citizens, and inquire when and by whom the law has been violated. It is only through your agency that those who violate the law can be brought to trial, hence you should investigate all cases which are brought to your notice, or of which you have personal knowledge, and present all persons whom you believe, after a careful examination, to be transgressors of the law. And you should not be deterred in such duty by any feeling of personal friendship or by any other motive.

"It is proper to say, gentlemen, that I do not doubt that you will fully discharge your duties."

None of the cases brought up are of any great importance, at least not sufficient to go into details. The appeal docket was first taken up.

The case of Frank G. Wrightson vs. Lewis G. Pascault was called and dismissed by consent. J. C. & C. Mullikin for appellant, A. L. Tharp for appellee.

George E. Handaway vs. Luther W. Covey; appeal from Justice Frank C. Mason; appeal dismissed; J. F. & W. Bateman for appellant, Price Kirby for appellee.

Two cases of Edwin S. Zell vs. Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club; same vs. Wilford Bateman, trustee of Charles T. Councell; same vs. Edward T. Nicols; same vs. Thomas C. Nichols, and Henry A. Nichols; appeals from the docket of Justices Nicols and Hubbard; plaintiff called and failed to appear; judgment affirmed, with costs above and below. J. Frank Bateman for appellant, Alfred L. Tharp, J. F. & W. Bateman, Wm. H. Adkins and Wm. R. Martin for appellees.

William King, agent for Fannie King, vs. George A. Mullikin; appeal from Justice of the Peace Stevens; trial before court; judgment affirmed, with costs above and below. W. E. Stewart for appellant, J. C. & C. Mullikin for appellee.

Baltimore & Eastern Shore Railroad vs. James G. and Thomas B. Jones; action to recover on subscription to capital stock of company subscribed for by appellees; appeal from Justice Gibson; trial before court; not concluded; H. L. D. Standford and J. F. & W. Bateman for appellant, and William E. Stewart and J. C. & C. Mullikin for appellee.

Gen. Joseph B. Seth sued the Talbot Fair Association for $100 for professional services in obtaining extension of a mortgage. The association gave T. Wood Martin, A. L. Tharp brought the suit for Gen. Seth, and Maj. Wm. E. Stewart and C. Mullikin appeared for the Fair Association. This case occupied nearly all Tuesday; verdict for the plaintiff for $100.

G. Alpheus Wrightson brought an action for trespass against Thomas J. Slaughter. They own adjoining farms in Bay Hundred, district. It was alleged that for years Mr. Wrightson's land was drained by a ditch through Mr. Slaughter's land and Mr. Slaughter put a dam across the ditch. Gen. Seth and J. F. & W. Bateman represented the plaintiff, Maj. Stewart, J. C. & C. Mullikin and R. R. Walker for the defendant.

Judge Wickes arrived Wednesday.

The grand Jury has indicted Nancy M. Jackson, a colored woman, for attempt to poison Mrs. Catharine J. Robinson by putting laudanum in her coffee, an account of which was published in the GAZETTE at the time it occurred.

Edward Burke was indicted for assault with intent to kill John Russell Seemer.

The proceedings of Thursday were the continuation of the case of Wrightson vs. Slaughter. The jury returned a verdict on Friday morning for the plaintiff for $1 damages.

The next case called was Young vs. Slauchter, Replevin of a Stallion. J. C. & C. Mullikin for plaintiff, Gibson & Carrington for defendant.

Temperance Notice.

The Executive Committee of the W. C. T. U. and the leaders of Loyal Legions are requested to meet at their room, corner of Washington and Lowber Streets, on Saturday Dec. 1, at one o'clock p. m.

The members of this committee are the county officers, the Presidents of local Unions, and the superintendents of departments. A full attendance is requested, as the subject of inviting the state convention to Easton is to be considered.

Thanksgiving Day.

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day, a day that will be observed by all throughout these United States in some degree, although it used to be much more universally kept in the old Puritan days than it is now. The family always gathered round the heartstone then, for the distance was short and the stage coach could soon land the absent under the parental roof. Now sons and daughters have perhaps made their homes in the far North, West or South, and a family reunion is hardly possible. Then, too, the summer outing which grows in length and frequency, and the Christmas and New Year's gifts and feastings have encroached on Thanksgiving. In the primitive days this day served the only dinner of the year, when the strict Puritan could conscientiously and religiously enjoy the pleasures of the table; and the Puritan dame, while forced to close economy during the year, threw it to the winds for this once and exercised her skill in housewivery. It was ever a bountiful table, and while the women folks were engaged in preparation, the men folks went hunting. Turkey, as king of the repast, and all the accompaniments of the old-time Thanksgiving dinner were served, and great merriment at night. A yearly reunion like this, whether at this time or Christmas, helps to bind the heart to the home with a strong hold.

THREE QUIET WEDDINGS

IN EASTON WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

And as Many More to Follow in a Short Time.—Miss Eliza Starr and Dr. McMillan Married, also Miss Mattie Smith and Wm. Councell.—Cards Out, Etc.

On Wednesday evening, at 8.30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Walter H. Thompson, on Railroad Avenue, Miss Eliza Starr was married to Mr. Wm. G. McMillan, Rev. Dr. Avery performed the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one, only intimate friends and relatives being present. The parlors were tastefully and prettily decorated with flowers, etc. After the wedding a reception was held at the conclusion of which the bride and groom were driven to their home on South street. Mrs. McMillan is a most estimable lady, and is well and personally known here, where she has many friends. Mr. McMillan is in business in Easton, having moved here a year or so ago from the north. He is greatly esteemed. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan are consistent members of Ebenezer M. E. Church.

The marriage of Miss Mattie P. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Martha N. Smith, and Wm. C. Councell was celebrated at the home of the bride on Goldsborough St. near the P. W. & B. depot last night at eight o'clock. Rev. L. B. Baldwin, rector of Christ Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was very prettily attired in white silk, trimmed with lilies of the valley and ribbon, and the groom wore the conventional black. The drawing room was tastefully decorated in chrysanthemums and potted flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Councell took the nine o'clock boat for Baltimore, Washington and other places of interest.

Rev. J. W. Sheridan of the M. P. Church married at the parsonage on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. Wm. Simpson of New Mexico, and Miss Jennie Farnsworth, of Cordova. The wedding was private. The bride and groom left on the nine o'clock boat for Baltimore, en route for New Mexico.

Last Friday, James B. Rathell and Miss Annie B. Warner were married in Baltimore, at the rectory of the Church of Our Saviour by Rev. John B. Harding. Both are well known in Easton, and have many friends. Mr. Rathell is head clerk in M. B. Nichols' Dry Goods Store, and a very popular young man, and the bride the daughter of Rufus Warner. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Bonds have been issued at the GAZETTE Office for the marriage of Susie Bennett Grasely to William Wallace Spence on Wednesday evening the twenty eighth at eight o'clock, at the residence of Jerome B. Bennett on Wolf street. The bride-elect is the only daughter of Judge Bennett a very accomplished young lady. Mr. Spence, Cashier of the Talbot County Savings Bank, is a very upright young man, and a credit to the town of Easton.

The marriage of Mr. Alonzo Lee Nichols and Miss Ida M. Pippin, daughter of Mr. Solomon Pippin, is announced to take place at Ebenezer M. E. Church on Wednesday, Dec. 5th, Dr. Avery officiating. The bride and groom elect are both well known in Easton.

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the symptoms, and treatment is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. In a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the rough cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels.

MR. DIXON A DIRECTOR

A FORMER CITIZEN HONORED

Mr. William T. Dixon Elected a Director of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Solely Upon His Ability as a Financier.—He Did Not Own Any Stock at all.

Mr. Wm. T. Dixon of Baltimore, whose family usually spend the summer months at their Bloomfield home so elegantly situated on the Tred Avon river, was last Monday made a director of the Balto. & Ohio R. R. through the personal and urgent solicitation of some friend, though he neither held stock nor wished to add to the many duties devolving upon him.

The Baltimore News in speaking of him says:

Mr. Dixon takes the place in the Board formerly filled by Mr. Charles J. M. Gwinn, who died shortly after he was elected last year. Mr. Dixon is president of the National Exchange Bank and is one of the foremost financiers in the United States.

Mr. Dixon is a native of Talbot county, this state, put has resided in Baltimore for the greater part of his life. He took a prominent part in the banker's convention, recently held in this city, and has been identified with several of the most important enterprises in the State.

Mr. Dixon's father was James Dixon of Easton, and the family has been prominent on the Eastern Shore for several generations. All are members of the Society of Friends. All the present members of the family are rich, and are largely interested in banking. Mr. Robert H. Dixon, one of the brothers, is president of the Easton National Bank, which, with the exception of the Farmers' Bank of Annapolis, is the oldest bank in Maryland. Mr. Isaac H. Dixon, the youngest of the brothers, is a large stockholder in various banks and is a member of the large paper firm of Smith, Dixon & Co. Mr. John B. Dixon, another brother, died a few months ago, and at the time of his death was vice president of the National Bank of Baltimore. In addition to the fortune he has made by his own energy and business ability, Mr. Wm. T. Dixon inherited a considerable fortune from his father, who when he died left one of the largest estates on the Eastern Shore.

CONCERT TUESDAY NIGHT.

Little Miss Thompson to be the Star of the Occasion.

Everybody is looking forward to the concert to be given by the Easton people in behalf of the Mercantile Library next Tuesday night with a great deal of pleasure. Miss Edith May Thompson, of Minneapolis, will star, and as she is considered a musical prodigy of just six years, all are anxiously waiting to hear her. She can sing over one hundren songs and has them at the end of her tongue. She plays and acts beautifully, and has never been taught. Miss Mary Conner, of Wilmington, a noted soprano singer, will lend her voice, and Miss McNulty, also of Wilmington, who has a fine contralto voice, has offered to assist, and both will appear as soloists. Besides solos, duets, trios and quartets, there will be choruses, all of which will be accompanied by Prof. John Valliant's orchestra of St. Michaels. The orchestra is considered a fine one and have offered services gratis. The orchestra will also render overtures, and altogether be quite a feature of the evening. Seats for concert are for sale at D. Hayward's and Harry Roberts.

RETURNED FROM JAPAN.

A Former Easton Pastor was in town Last Sunday.

The Rev. R. W. Waters, who was several years ago the pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South, was the guest of Squire Nicols on Sunday and Monday on many of his old friends. He left town Monday morning but expects to return in a short time with his family. He was greatly surprised at the beautiful new church and said many flattering things concerning it and its people. He occupied the pulpit both morning and evening. In August, Bishop Wilson appointed him a missionary to Japan, in which capacity he was engaged until last August, when he sailed from Tokio for the United states. While in Japan he married a young lady from Mississippi, who was also engaged in missionary work in the same portion of Japan. Mrs. Waters and two children accompanied Mr. Waters to this country, and at this time are visiting relatives on the Western Shore. They will remain with this country until next spring, when they expect to return to Japan and engage in missionary work again.

THE VILLA AGAIN SOLD.

Dr. Nickerson Sells the Villa to a New Yorker for $12,000 Cash.

About two weeks ago Dr. George F. Nickerson exchanged his residence in Easton and the Morton farm near Longwoods with Mr. Simeon Brady for "Ashly Villa." The exchange in both instances call for only about forty acres and the buildings thereon. In the latter part of last week Dr. Nickerson sold the Villa to Mr. L. C. Balch, of New York for $12,000 cash. Thus does this beautiful place continue in its checkered career of handsome residences owner. It is doubtful if there is any other seat in the county with so romantic a history. It was built by Richard Frame but soon passed into the hands of Henry Nay. Addison Randall was the next owner and he was quickly followed by Mr. Brady. The circumstances attending these changes is what makes the Villa's history so interesting.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at J. C. Henry's drug store.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing as good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels.

OF LITERARY INTEREST.

Interesting Announcements of Forthcoming Magazines.

An Englishman, who, when she was a girl, Mrs. Frances Hodgson burnett really looked upon as her enemy, turns out, upon mature reflection, to be the man who, of all others, most influenced the famous author's life. Mrs. Burnett has written out the story of her curious friendship for The Ladies' Home Journal, which periodical will publish it as the initial article in its series of "The Man Who Most Influenced Me," to which six of the most famous American and English women will contribute.

Everyone fond of Hunting, Fishing and Canoeing, and those interested in Natural History, Fish Culture, Rifle and Trap Shooting, and Owners of Dogs, who like to read interesting, instructive and practical articles on these subjects, should read the "Amateur Sportsman," a magazine published monthly at one dollar per year. Each number of the "Amateur Sportsmen" contains numerous practical articles—many of them illustrated that should be read by every lover of the gun rod and dog. Send to the Amateur Sportsman Co., 6 College Place, New York, for a free specimen copy. Also see sample copies on file at Mercantile Library Rooms, Easton.

The announcement that Harpers will print during 1895 the "Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc," written by "the most popular of living American magazine writers," has set curious persons wondering who this author is. It ought not to be very difficult to find "the most popular American magazine writer." In order to attain this distinction he or she must have written stories that were afterward reprinted in book form, and the statistics of the circulating libraries would give some valuable hints on this point. Besides the number of American popular magazine writers who would undertake to put into a novel the most romantic series of events in all history is not large. The authorship of "The Breadwinners" has never been divulged. Plenty of men and women have claimed to know who wrote it, and several interesting persons have said modestly that they were the authors, but the public does not know whether anybody has told the truth. It remains to be seen whether the "Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc" will provoke as long a search for the writer as "The Breadwinners" did. At present "The Breadwinners" has no rival in popular anonymity; it hardly has a second.

News From Cordova.

CORDOVA, Nov. 22, 1894.—Mr. Leon Fitzjarrell of California is visiting his father, near Cordova.

A Revival Service will begin to-morrow evening at the M. E. Church South. The Pastor, Rev. J. T. Lambert, will preach.

The young people of the M. E. Church, assisted by the pastor and others, have concluded arrangements for a Thanksgiving program, which will be presented at the church on the 29th. Among other features of the service, the music will hold a prominent place, a mixed choir of select voices having been engaged. All are welcome.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was celebrated here Wednesday afternoon, the 21st inst., at the M. E. Church. Miss Nannie Stevens, daughter of Mr. W. W. Stevens, was united in marriage with Mr. P. Howard Hubbard, son of the late J. P. J. Hubbard, Esq. The Church was beautifully dressed in chrysanthemums and roses, and every seat was occupied, the audience including many of the bride's relatives and closest friends.

At the appointed hour, the bridal party having arrived, the bride and groom entered the church, and preceded by the ushers, Mr. Wm. T. Callahan and Mr. Wm. Stevens, the bride's brother, marched down the aisle to the chancel, where they were met by the Rev. W. R. McFarlane of Berlin, Md., who performed the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome gown of blue cloth, with hat to match, and carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Miss Anna Keyins officiated at the organ. From the church the bridal train moved to the Railroad Station, where the newly married couple took the North bound train and the best wishes of a multitude of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard will reside on the late Mr. Hubbard
