Editors and Proprietors.
EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Dec. 1st, 1894.

Persons owing the GAZETTE money are forwarned and have been cautioned that if some satisfactory effort to pay is not made, and that without delay, the editors will not be held blamable for the law's stern demands. tf

Persons receiving sample copies of the GAZETTE need not fear to take same from the office when the word "sample" is printed on wrapper. The law only holds the person responsible who allows the publisher to continue the paper under the assumption that it is wanted and will be paid for. The GAZETTE is as careful to discontinue a name as to place on list, if the subscriber makes his wishes known and his paper is not in arrears. But the GAZETTE does not insult a subscriber by removing his name the very date of expiration if same subscriber is presumed to wish to continue. It does frequently remove names though, when it finds out the parties are defrauding the paper, wilfully and knowingly.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against 73 men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these, 28 made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachments. Then under the decision of Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave the bonds. The postal laws make it petty larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

"GENTLEMAN," as defined by the highest authority, is "a person of polished and agreeable manners," "a person of good breeding and character." A "pessimist" is defined as a "universal complainer," one who "maintains the most unfavorable view of things."

The above classes adorn the editorial fraternity of Easton, the first by authority of the GAZETTE, the second by authority of the Ledger. We want another good truth-teller now and since the wisdom and egotism of the Ledger has never yet been bounded, we are sure it can furnish either the editor or the information wanted.

OF LITERARY INTEREST.

Interesting Announcements of Forthcoming Magazines.

The Christmas number of Scribner's Magazine presents a remarkable list of popular writers, including Rudyard Kipling, Robert Grant, H. C. Bunner, Brander Matthews and Geo. W. Cable. In illustration it shows a number of novel features. Oliver Herford produces a series of fantastic drawings which are curiously interwoven with the text of Brander Matthews' story in a manner new to magazine illustration. Another notable feature in illustration is the three frontis-pieces showing the best work of A. B. Frost, Albert Lynch and Emile Friant, each drawing being very original in sentiment and treatment.—One of the richest illustrated articles ever published in an American magazine is the account of the great English painter, George Frederick Watts, R. A., by the eminent art critic, Cosmo Monkhouse, who writes from the fullest knowledge and with the approval of the artist. There are twenty pictures representing the most characteristic phases of Watts's art, both the wood engravings and the process places showing a delicacy that is seldom seen. The number opens with a noble poem by Rudyard Kipling, entitled "McAndrews' Hymn," which gives the philosophical reflections of the old Scotch engineer of an ocean liner. In elevated feeling and stately rhythm Mr. Kipling has never surpassed this poem. It has been interpreted with equal dignity in a series of pictures by Howard Pyle.

Another poem with striking pictures is "The Wood-cutter's Hut," by A. Lampman; Frank French has drawn and engraved the illustrations in a very sympathetic manner. H. C. Bunner contributes another of his suburban sketches, in which he quaintly tells "The Story of a Path" from its origin to the present day. A. B. Frost, who is familiar with the locality described by Mr. Bunner, has made the pictures, which of themselves almost tell the story.

Robert Grant (whose story "A Bachelor's Christmas" was the great success of the last December number) contributes another Christmas tale which should meet with equal favor. It is entitled "The Matrimonial Tontine Benefit Association." There is a novel idea suggested in the story which will probably be utilized in a practical way. The illustrations are by A. B. Wenzell. Other fiction is an amusing railway story by Francis Lynde entitled "By Special Invitation;" the pathetic tale of a spiritualistic medium entitled "Minnehaha," by Eva Wilder McGlasson; the story of a sensational discovery in Egypt, "The Mantle of Osiris," by Walter L. Palmer, and the concluding chapters of "John March, Southerner," Mr. Cable's dramatic novel of life in a southern town during the period of a "boom." Other poems and the Point of View complete one of the most entertaining and artistically attractive numbers of this magazine.

The Christmas number of Harper's Magazine comes in a cover printed in colors from a special design, and is unusually strong in artistic features. More than one hundred pictures, signed by well-known names, illustrate its stories, poems, and general articles.

Six short stories appear in the December Harper's, making the number of complete one part tales published in that Magazine during 1894 sixty. This has been done, too, a year when readers of Harper's have had for their delight "The Golden House," Chas. Dudley Warner's latest novel, and the peerless "Trilby."

C. S. Reinhart will contribute to Harper's Weekly for December 1 a double-page drawing of the first Thanksgiving in New England and a descriptive article in regard to customs which were peculiar to the observance of that day in the early history of this country. There will be a Thanksgiving story by Sophie Swett and "The Parasite," by A. Conan Doyle will be concluded. Henry Loomis Nelson will contribute an article on "Our Commerce Destroyers," which will be read with special interest in view of the recent agitation in naval circles in favor of heavy battle-ships.

Coming events cast their shadows before, and the coming Christmas holidays already impart flavor to the pages of a fashion paper. The Thanksgiving number of Harper's Bazar gives charming descriptions of toilettes worn by beautiful women at the Horse Show, and the designs from Paris are fitted to please people of taste of either sex. The opera and evening gowns and cloaks, the elegant house dresses and richly elaborate visiting costumes, are likely to commend themselves to men who enjoy seeing their wives and daughters brilliantly and beautifully arrayed. The stories in the Thanksgiving number are unique in their way. Mr. Hezekiah Butterworth's "Wych Hazel" is founded on a real and very dramatic incident. Bessie Chandler's "After the Wedding" addresses itself to that undeniable yet singular fact in human experience, that the quarrels of the married, especially if they are well bred people who ought to be happy, are quite delightful subjects to the outsider and reader of the story. "The Larks" is a comedy for parlor acting, from the facile pen of Fannie Aymer Mathews

The portion of the costume which seems to be the leading subject of enquiry at the present moment is the Skirt. While bodices and sleeves are still following to some extent the general lines of the former season, skirts are the absorbing theme of interest in the new importations. Great is their variety. The question of choice embraces an extensive field, both of extreme novelties and simple practical designs. Models to suit every taste and occasion are illustrated in the popular "McDowell Fashion Journals" which we have at hand. One finds, moreover, in these magazines in their coupon patterns, a feature exceedingly convenient for those who desire a cheaper grade of patterns than the more expensive made up models. Among these coupon patterns are seen some artistic and practical skirt designs filling very appropriately a general demand for the latter. "La Mode de Paris" and "Paris Album of Fashion" cost $3.50 each per annum, or 35 cents per copy. "The French Dressmaker" is $3.00 a year or 30 cents a copy. "La Mode" which is the best home magazine of its kind, costs only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a copy. If you are unable to procure any of these journals from your news-dealer, do not take any substitute from him, but apply by mail directly to Messrs. McDOWELL & Co., 4 West Street, New York.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be free from every deleterious substance, and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25 cents per box. Sold by J. C. Henry, Druggist.

Notice.

I have bought out the Club Stable on Harrison St., near Hotel Avon, and will keep a Livery, Sale and Exchange Stable. The best of teams always on hand. Any one trusting their teams to my care may feel assured that they will have the best of attention.

Harper's Bazar
IN 1895.

Elegant and exclusive designs for Out-door and In-door Toilettes, drawn from WORTH models by Sandoz and Chapuis, are an important feature. These appear every week, accompanied by minute descriptions and details. Our Paris Letter, by Katharine de Forest is a weekly transcript of the latest styles and caprices in the mode. Under the head of New York Fashions, plain directions and full particulars are given as to shapes, fabrics, trimmings and accessories of the customs of well dressed women. Children's Clothing receives practical attention. A fortnightly Pattern-sheet Supplement enables readers to cut and make their own gowns. The woman who takes HARPER'S BAZAR is prepared for every occasion in life, ceremonious or informal, where beautiful dress is requisite.

An American serial, Doctor Warrick's Daughter, by Rebecca Harding Davis, a strong novel of American life, laid in Pennsylvania and partly in the far South, will occupy the last half of the year.

My Lady Nobody, and intensely exciting novel, by Maarten Maartens, author of "God's Fool," "The Greater Glory," etc., will begin the year.

Essays and Social Chats. To this department Spectator will contribute her charming papers on "What We are Doing" in New York society.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the Chino-Japanese War and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

FICTION. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelties and many short stories by popular writers.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The Volumes of the WEEKLY begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of Order.

Harper's Magazine
IN 1895.

THE SIMPLETONS, a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will be begun in the December Number, 1894, and continue to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and The Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, Her Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern papers.

Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will contain four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life there. Julian Ralph will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first chapters of A Three-Part Novelette, by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer.—Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.

FOR SALE.

A farm known as the RICHARDSON FARM, being in Southampton County, Va., containing 285 acres of land, more or less, fully 200 acres under fence and cultivation. It is a medium soil, will grow all kinds of grain and truck.—It has a six room in fair state of preservation. The out buildings are poor, but such as usually seen in this country. I will sell this tract of land, reserving the timber, for $1000, and will take $200 down, balance in 1, 2, and 3 years, with 6 per interest. This farm is now tenanted and pays $160 per year in cash. It is five miles from the Atlantic & Danville R.R. but our narrow guage railroad runs through a corner of it and will be there for next few years.

To a man possessed of stock enough to carry on a farm this is a splendid chance to secure a home. You can work all the year here, seldom gets cold enough to stop. They do all their plowing here in January and February. If you mean business write and I will answer any questions you may ask. It you don't mean business don't write, for I have no time to fool away. Address,

INSTRUCTION IN PAINTING.

I am prepared to give instruction in Oil Painting at reasonable rates, at my residence on Aurora street near Dover. For terms apply to 10-6 CLARK S. MARSHALL.

Have you had your share?
Has your boy had his share?
Has your friend had his?

If you live within half a day's railroad ride of this store you probably know somebody who has bought our Clothing lately. Ask them to show you the clothes. Ask them to tell you what they paid. Sales almost surpass what you'll believe—thousands a day.

How does it strike you? Men's All Wool Suits, $5 and $6.75.
How does it strike you? Winter Overcoats, All Wool, $5.
How does it strike you? Dress Suits worth $16.50 for $12.
How does it strike you? $30 and $35 Dress Suits for $20.
How does it strike you? Overcoats—half what you've been paying.
How does it strike you? Boy's Suits—half what you've been paying.

We never knew news to travel so in all our experience. The prices impress buyers deeply. The story is too good to keep. There's a Million to sell. With customers to the doors it's going quick.

Owing to settlement of a Partner's Interest it must be all sold.
Owing to settlement of a Partner's Interest it must be all sold.

No difference to you, of course, except that it makes us put all our prices mighty low. Keep in mind the facts—

Prices much lower than we ever knew them
Clothing new and in process of manufacture
Return of goods under usual liberal conditions.

Do low prices stop repayment of Railroad Fare?

No, we continue that as before. On purchase of reasonable amount the railroad expense is returned to you.
