Easton Gazette.

WILSON M. TYLOR & BRO.,
Editors and Proprietors.
EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Dec. 29th, 1894.

THIS appearance of the GAZETTE was not anticipated last week when we announced no issue for this week, but certain orders from the Court relative to legal advertising in this issue makes it necessary to go to press, or otherwise cause considerable annoyance and expense to the parties concerned. This we, of course, will prevent at any sacrifice on our part and have succeeded in reproducing this half-sheet though the labor had all been granted a week's holiday.

THE year 1894 is dying—his breath is waxing colder, his glassy eye is fixed, his moments numbered. The same will be said of us all some day. Have we thought about it? Of the millions who will not live to see the close of another year have you any assurance that you will not be among them?

MISS LELIA WOOTERS has the honor of being elected by the patrons of the GAZETTE the owner of the Webster's International Dictionary given by this paper to the most popular young lady pupil of any public school in the county. We will make full and further announcement next week, as it was understood in our last issue that the news would be proclaimed on January 5th, as it was anticipated that no issue of this paper would be made this week.

DID the editors of the GAZETTE print their paper in green last week on the theory that similia similibus curantur? Then again, green denotes jealousy.—Ledger

No, we print the paper for others, not ourselves. To our subscribers and patrons green was meant to represent vigor, strength and life of the paper, and also was emblematic of the joyous Christmastide; but to competitors who know of no papers worthy of the name outside their own publication we fed to them a green diet to better suit their condition.

Don't fail to witness the performance on New Year's night to be given by the Easton High School. This entertainment was given some time ago and has received nothing but words of praise. Tickets on sale at Hayward's.

The performance by the Avon Cycle Club on Christmas night at Music Hall was a success. The proceeds were satisfactory and the club, which is composed of the representative young men of Easton and vecinity, deserve great credit for their efforts to bring together, in social intercourse, the young men of our town. They deserve and will invariably receive hearty support.

The High School Entertainment on New Year's night bids fair to eclipse its former triumph. Tickets at Hayward's

It is reported that our old friend, Harry Lindley, will soon pay us a visit. It is an assured fact that he is the most popular commedian that visits our town.

in fair state of preservation. The out buildings are poor, but such as usually seen in this country. I will sell this tract of land, reserving the timber, for $1000, and will take $200 down, balance in 1, 2, and 3 years, with 6 per interest. This farm is now tenanted and pays $100 per year in cash. It is five miles from the Atlantic & Danville R.R. but our narrow guage railroad runs through a corner of it and will be there for next few years

To a man possessed of stock enough to carry on a farm this is a splendid chance to secure a home. You can work all the year here, seldom gets cold enough to stop. They do all their plowing here in January and February. If you mean business write and I will answer any questions you may ask. If you don't mean business don't write, for I have no time to fool away. Address,
