delivered to said Charles Tyler such deed of assignment and conveyance in trust for the benefit of said creditors, wherefore this release is executed.

Now, therefore, these presents witness, that each and all of the undersigned, in consideration of the premises, and the sum of five dollars to them in hand paid, do hereby release, acquit, exonerate and discharge the said John R. Marchant from all claims or demand whatsoever, which we respectively have or might have against him, whether the same are now due or to become due on any existing account whatever up to this time.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this day and year above written.

Plaintiff's Exhibit Depositions No. 2.
(Filed with the Examiner December 4th 1884.
H. Stockbridge, Jr.,
Examiner.)

This deed, made this Seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, by and between John R. Marchant of the one part, and Charles Tyler of the other part, both of Baltimore city, in the State of Maryland:

Whereas the said John R. Marchant is at this time indebted to various parties in various amounts of money, which debts he is unable to pay in full, and therefore now desires to devote all his estate and property to the payment of his debts, wherefore this deed is executed.

Now this indenture witnesseth, that in consideration of the premises, and of the sum of one dollar to him paid by the said Charles Tyler, at and before the sealing and delivery hereof, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said John R. Marchant has granted, bargained and sold, assigned, transferred and delivered, and by these presents doth grant, bargain and sell, assign, transfer and deliver unto the said Charles Tyler, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, all the property, real, personal and mixed, all assets, effects and credits, whether the same be in possession, remainder or reversion, at
