Saturday, Feb. 2nd, 1895.

PRES. CLEVELAND sent a special message to Congress Monday relating to financial difficulties which embarrass the Treasury. This message had little effect except to more hopelessly divide his party.

SEN. VOORHEES introduced a bill before the finance committee at Washington, Tuesday and then repudiated the bill before the day was over. With so much school-boy dickering with the currency question, it is little wonder that the whole country is now looked upon with discredit by the rest of the civilized world.

IF the friends of Senator Hayes have their way about it, that gentleman will be the Democratic nominee for Governor, this fall. Then, too, judging from recent letters published by the Senator, one might suppose he is quite friendly towards himself in connection with the gubernatorial nomination.

THE Maryland elections this fall will be unusually important. The State officers to be elected are a Governor, Comptroller, Attorney General members of the House of Delegates and one-half the Senate. When the Legislature convenes, it will have to elect a State Treasurer, two police commissioners and a United States Senator to succeed Hon. Charles H. Gibson of Talbot.

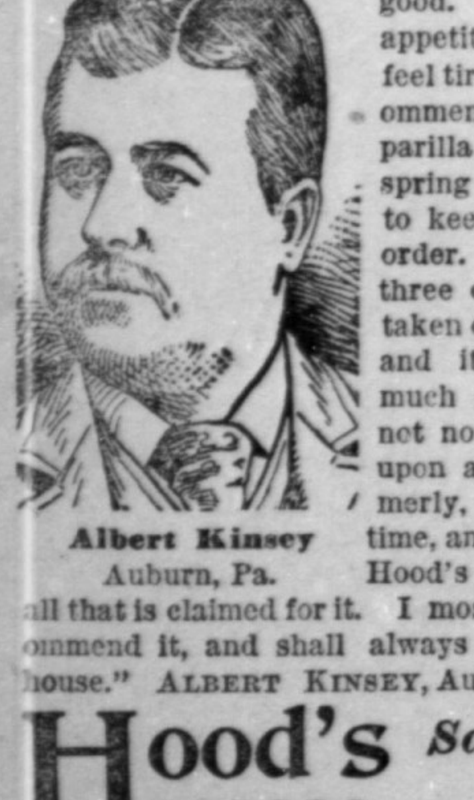

THE indications are that the same spirit which antagonized Senator Gibson two years ago in this county when a State Senator was to be nominated, will manifest itself again this summer when it comes to selecting delegates for the Legislature. Senator Gibson, by all that is right, just and decent in politics, should be allowed to send a friendly delegation to Annapolis—providing, however, the Republicans do not have a word to say on Nov. 5th as to who shall represent Talbot in the next Legislature.

ONE year ago yesterday the House of Representatives passed the Wilson tariff bill by a vote of 204 to 140, and one year ago today this ruinous piece of Democratic Legislation, with its socialistic income tax appendage, was reported to the Senate and at once referred to the finance committee. This committee and the Senate together, took the gentle bird and proceeded to divest it of its plumage. It could hardly hae fared worse had they passed it through a corn-sheller tail foremost. After whacking away at it for six months and two days, making 634 changes, the Senate passed it on July 3d, and forthwith sent the creature of many colors back to the House from which it originated. It was so completely stuffed with "perfidy and dishonor" that Prof. Wilson could only indentify it by an income tax quill which alone remained as a distinguishing feature. He, however, consoled with the returning wanderer, and on August 13th the House adopted it. In the meantime the country has witnessed one of the greatest business depressions that ever darkened its history, and it may be well to remember, Prof. Wilson has been returned to his rural home in West Virginia, while the Democratic majority of 80 in the do-nothing (but make trouble) 53d Congress will be succeeded by 139 Republican majority in the 54th.

IT is generally supposed Mr. Cleveland will call an extra session of Congress as soon as the present one adjourns. If so, the Republicans who will control that body can hardly be expected to pass any financial legislation more than an act increasing tariff duties which would at once enlarge the Treasury receipts. The whole trouble lies in the fact that the Government expenditures are greater than its receipts. Such a condition would bankrupt anything. If this is the case as the result of the Wilson tariff law as ammended by the Senate, what would be the condition of the Treasury had the Wilson bill pure and simple become a law without the senate amendments, when it is remembered that the estimated receipts under the Wilson bill as it passed the House would be about $60,000,000 less than the revenue derived therefrom as it eventually became a law? The Democrats, who are trying to howl down Senators Gorman and Gibson for the stand they took in opposing the Wilson bill as it originally passed the House, may well stop to reflect. It rather looks as if the Maryland Senators knew what they were doing and we believe they did.

All That's Claimed

"I had a poor appetite, that tired feeling and was run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good. I have a better appetite and do not feel tired. I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent spring or fall medicine to keep the blood in order. Myself and three daughters have taken over six bottles, and it has done us much good. We do not now have to call upon a doctor, as formerly, in the spring time, and I can say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is all that is claimed for it. I most heartily recommend it, and shall always keep it in my house." ALBERT KINSEY, Auburn, Pa.

FOUR Eastern Shore Counties elect State Senators this fall. They are Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset and Wicomico. This ought to mean two Republican Senators, sure. It's more than likely Kent will return Hon. Wm. D. Burchinal to the Senate for a second time or possibly Chas. T. Westcott, Esq., while Somerset County possesses some excellent Senatorial timber in the Republican ranks. There is still hope for Queen Anne's and Wicomico.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, Jan 27, 1895.

More water is to be poured into the sieve. In other words the administration has decided to scold Congress and issue more bonds to replenish the gold in the Treasury and to meet the expenditures of the government. Knowing the sensitiveness of business the republicans in Congress have purposely refrained from saying much that might have been said about the position the administration has taken upon financial matters, preferring to lose opportunities to make party capital to arousing public sentiment which might prove detrimental to the great business interests of the country. It was the same feeling which prompted the republican leaders when approached by the democrats to say that they would offer no factious opposition to any measure that promised to be of the slightest assistance to the treasury, and to advise the democrats that the best thing this Congress could do for the Treasury was to amend the tariff so as to increase the revenue. This advice might have borne good fruit, but Mr. Cleveland, with his usual obstinacy, prevented it by announcing pompously that legislation to increase the revenue would not be satisfactory to him. So Congress has done nothing, and another issue of bonds, the third within a year, is to be made.

Republicans in the House will do nothing to prevent the passage of the bill for the repeal of the differential duty on sugar from countries paying an export duty on sugar, which will probably be passed by the House this week. They will, however, call especial attention to the declaration of the German government that this sugar duty had nothing to do with the embargo placed on American cattle and meats, notwithstanding Representative Wilson's having in his opening speech in favor of this repeal bill insisted that it did. As Ex Speaker Reed tersely puts it, the bill is so insignificent that "Nobody cares anything about it."

The new republican Senator from North Carolina—Mr. Pritchard—although not yet a week in his seat, has cast two important votes, one for the Nicarauga Canal bill, which passed by a vote of 31 to 21, and one against the Vest amendment to the Hawaiian resolution. Mr. Pritchard has made an excellent impression upon his colleagues.

Much regret is expresseed among republicans in Congress because of the disputes which are delaying the election of republican Senators by several legislatures. Such disputes are always stumbling blocks to the future success of the party.

An object lesson in democratic statesmanship was given when a number of democratic members of the House unblushingly and openly opposed an appropriation for the detection of persons violating the internal revenue laws, specifically illicit distillers. The reason for the opposition may be found in the reply of Chairman Sayers, of the Appropriation committee, who is a democrat, but not one of the moonshiner kind, to a question asked by Representative Swanson, of Virginia, as to whether the abolition of the fee system had not been recommended—"I do not know, and I am not willing to take the gentleman's word for it as long as his election to this House depends upon the moonshine vote."
