THE COMING STORM IN OUR POLITICS.

NATIONAL politics having been practically divorced from the arena of public discussion by the overthrow of the democratic party last year, we are transferred to the narrower zone of State politics, which more directly concern our individual interests and domestic happiness. We have a bonded debt of $8,684,986, which should long since have been paid; and by proper management could have been discharged without oppressing the taxpayers. But the policy of the party in power since 1867 has not been one of economy. On the contrary, the democratic leaders have uniformly showed a readiness to encourage measures, the adoption of which compelled the appropriation of large sums of money. Many of such expenditures were incurred, and hence, all of these years that have been favorable to debt paying have been allowed to pass, and the State debt has not been materially reduced; while many of the productive assets which had hitherto been carefully cherished by all political parties have been squandered. The remaining productive investments and the sinking fund aggregate $5,303,233, which leaves a net debt of $3,381.756 upon the people.

In view of the enormous depreciation of all kinds of property and values in the last two years, and the appalling depression in business, every tax payer cannot but regard future burdens with apprehension; and all must regret that this weight of debt has not been discharged in those years of prosperity since the civil war, in which the General Government paid off more than $2,000,000,000 of the federal debt without a single individual being oppressed. Moreover, the policy pursued by those who have been in power for the last twenty five years and more, has been such as to create perpetual annual burdens.

The contest before us must necessarily be a stormy and bitterly fought one. Those in power have grown insolent in its enjoyment and will resent opposition acrimoniously—hence the battle will be one of incessant hostilities from beginning to finish—and unavoidably fierce and desperate. Those who have long aggrandised themselves in power will be unwilling to surrender the possession of that power without a desperate struggle. While those who have resolutely determined to throw off the yoke, may not be expected to meet their adversary in any other spirit than that of lofty purpose and a corresponding determination to win the coveted prize.

Let nobody, therefore, be deceived as to the character of the conflict, but be prepared to do their duty in any emergency that might arise in liberating the State from the horde that has so long debauched our politics and prayed upon our substance.

THE POPULAR WILL SHOULD CONTROL.

THERE is no sounder proposition than public sentiment should be consulted, respected and obeyed under our form of government. Yet, nothing is truer than the statement, that for more than a quarter of a century the popular will in Maryland has been systematically supressed or arrogantly defied and throttled in all matters of State. Political control for this long period has been in the hands of a few men who have insolently dominated the politics of the State, and succeed in setting up an obligarchy distinguished for misrule, and self-aggrandisement which they have managed to perpetuate for nearly a generation. This baleful condition of affairs is rendered possible only by the indifference of the people to their duty. It is needless to say, that such a shameful and degraded condition of affairs could have prevailed for a life-time but only as the result of indifferentism on the part of the people.

It is manifest that a change has come over the spirit of the dreams of the people all over Maryland. A long and loud protest has gone out from the business men of the cities and towns of the entire State; from the yeomanry of the counties and from the vast army of men who live by daily toil—all of the vast multitude have joined in a proclamation that the will of the people shall formulate the policy of the State, and guide and control in the management of public affairs. They will no longer submit to the tyranny and indignity of being "steered" by insufferable "Bossism" and plundered by robbers.

Rests the Tired Brain

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gives Nerve Strength and Bodily Health

Hood's Pills are "Much in Little."

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills for many years and consider them the best on the market. Hood's Sarsaparilla has given me health and strength from time to time when tired and and the worry of business. It has purified my blood, toned my nerves, and rested my tired brain by restoring sleep and invigorating my entire system. Hood's Vegetable Pills are much in little. I use no others. They invigorate the liver to healthy action, act gently on the bowels, relieve sick headache and indigestion, and thus assist tired nature to remove disease and restore health." J. M. CROCKER, 1419 Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D. C.

WHO SHALL CARRY OUR BANNER TO VICTORY?

ALREADY, and most frequently, the question is asked, who shall be our standard bearers in the coming fight? The answer to it, to our minds, is as plain as it is momentous and weighty. All personal and selfish considerations must be thrown overboard. The deck must be cleared, and the fullest and most complete preparations must be made for the approaching engagement. Availability and fitness must govern in the choice of candidates. Who, but the people, can know who would be acceptable to them? Nothing is truer than the instinct of the great masses of the people as to the availability and the fitness of those amongst them for public place. Therefore, let them have the freest and fullest opportunity to manifest their preference as to who shall lead them in the coming battle to redeem the State from grinding misrule and insolent "Ring" domination. The people are prepared for a change, and they know best who they want for their servants in places of power and control.

Any knot of politicians who may attempt to hatch out a ticket for the race this fall runs the risk of being vigorously rebuked. Such monements only complicate our politics, and they should not be countenanced by sober and thoughtful men.

THE Boston Transcript said: "The most remarkable Congress in American history came to an end at noon on Monday last; and the same date marks the half way point of the most unfortunate Administration."

To which Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, replies as follows:

In a certain sense Mr. CLEVELAND may be called unfortunate. Any man, or any body of men, who will engage in fraud, in swindling, in false pretences, or in other crimes, will truly be unfortunate. But cheating and lying, treachery and imposture, cannot be palliated by such an adjective.

Mr. CLEVELAND came into power pledged above everything else, to secure the enactment of a tariff for revenue only; yet from the first moment he entered upon his office, he has not uttered one word, nor made one suggestion, nor put forth one effort to obtain the passage of such a tariff. On that subject he has been as dumb as a stone.

In this it will not do to say he has been unfortunate. He has been dishonest and dishonorable; he has deliberately and impudently cheated the people of the United States. He has squarely reversed and spit upon the platform, upon which he worked for election; and he has insulted and disgraced the party which elected him. For such an offence what forgiveness can there be?

REPUBLICANISM UNIFIED AND ORGANIZED.

THE fratetnal feeling and unity of purpose which prevails amongst republicans throughout the State, denotes a common object on their part to eradicate every trace of discussion that may have existed in the ranks of the party, and secure a thorough and efficient organization of the hosts who are to carry the banner of the people to victory in November next. The ranks of the Republican party have been largely extended in every section of the State in the last twelve months, and they are gaining accessions daily.

The appeals of the democratic leaders to stand by the party and save it from defeat upon their pledges to reform the abuses complained of within the party are no longer potent as a rallying cry. The afficacy of such appeals is lost amongst the shattered fragments of broken promises, and the old veteran has taken the political principles he loves and the doctrines he has always revered, and borne them into the party founded by Abraham Lincoln, who he believes was honest and just, and who loved the common peeple with an undying devotion and did what he could to benefit and elevate them. Thousands of men in Maryland have left the fold of the Democratic party and joined the ranks of the Republican party because they are convinced that their interests and sentiments are better represented by that party.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, March 18, 1895.

A verbatim report of Mr. Cleveland's conversation with Secretary Gresham concerning the diplomatic happenings of the past week would unquestionably make what the late Horace Greely would have called "mighty interesting" reading, but as neither of the principals in this interview are likely to tell what was said the country will have to wag along without the knowledge. It has leaked out, however, that Mr. Cleveland thinks it would have been just as well had Secretary Gresham, who is still far from well, not been in such a hurry to prepare and send that demand to the government of Spain, and that he would have been better engaged in trying to nurse back his strength.

Allowing that the facts are as they have been stated by the captain and other officers of the Alianca, the language of Secretary Gresham's demand for an apology from Spain and for the issuing of such orders to the commanders of Spanish warships as will make it certain that no other vessel flying the U. S. flag and engaged in legitimate business will be fired upon, was all right, although unnecessarily strong; but there was no occasion for such undue haste. Americans with all their other faults are credited by all the world with a love of fair play. It is therefore unfortunate that an American Secretary of State has been guilty of threatening a weaker nation upon an ex parte statement of a case, in the face, too, of an assurance from the Spanish minister that he would present a statement of the other side as soon as the Spanish authorities in Cuba could communicate with the gunboat which is charged with having fired at the Alianca; and of the further assurance from the Spanish minister that his country would apologize if the firing had taken place as charged unless it could be justified in a manner satisfactory to this government. While it was thoroughly undiplomatic for the Spanish minister to have publicly criticized Secretary Gresham's actions, in ignoring his assurances and making a direct demand, which really is an ultimatum, upon Spain, it certainly is not surprising. One does not cease to be a man upon becoming a diplomat, whether he be a Spaniard or an American.

SIGNS OF APPROACHING SPRING

On counters and shelves brilliant and quiet color harmonies abound—a prelude to the season of bright sunshine and balmy breezes—and a suggestion to visitors that the time to discard winter rainment is at hand.

Never before have we been better prepared for the coming of Spring. Months ago our buyers visited the manufacturing centers of the world, and purchased rich and most exquisite dress stuffs, especially in

SILKS, DRESS GOODS AND COTTON FABRICS.

In Silks—from the exquisite wash matearial to the heaviest and most expensive fabric—the stock is best characterized in the one word—complete. Never before have designs of equal elegance been conceived and executed. Nor have the delicate silken threads ever been given colors so dainty and beautiful.
