GAZETTE SUPPLEMENT.

THE MURDER CONFESSED.

Shortly after The Gazette had been put to press and the issue run off, the news reached us that Lydia Mills has confessed in regard to the murder of Columbus Nichols near Trappe. She says that George Wright struck Nichols with an ax while he was sitting in a chair and that Thomas Johns made the fatal cut with a razor.

Both the Mills girl and Wright's wife witnessed the murder but were threatened with death by the men if told of the crime to anyone.

Murderers now in Easton Jail.
