That by virtue of a similar contract made by Mrs. Sarah W. Hodges, the other heir-at-law of said John T. Johns and Edwin Fitzgerald, her trustee, with J. Nevett Steele, and the law-firm of Machen & Gittings, and D. G. McIntosh, and the law-firm of Brown & Brune, the said parties are entitled to one third of all property recovered or to be recovered on behalf of said Sarah W. Hodges. And that by a further supplemental agreement between all of the said counsel, the said respective contingent compensation from the shares of both the said Caldwell and the said Hodges were agreed to be divided in the following proportions, viz:

(1/4) one fourth of the whole to your petitioners, Garitee & Tellett; (1/4) one fourth of the whole to J. Nevett Steele: (1/4) one fourth of the whole to said law-firm of Machen & Gittings and D. G. McIntosh; and 1/4 of the whole to said law-firm of Brown and Brune, consisting of Stewart Brown, Arthur Geo. Brown and Fredk. W. Brune.

Your petitioners now say, that as interested as aforesaid in the entire property mentioned in this case, they, as well as all other the said counsel, ought to be made parties to the suit, to the end that their interests may be recognized and protected in any disposition of said property, or any part thereof.

Your petitioners therefore pray that they may be made parties defendants in the above entitled suit.

Charles E. Garitee,
Jno. I. Tellett.

Petition.

(Filed March 26th 1886.)

In the case of Sarah W. Hodges, et al.,

In the Circuit Court for Baltimore County.
