T. Harris Hodges, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the plaintiff, being first by the Examiner sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God and examined, makes oath, deposeth and saith as follows:

T. Harris Hodges: residence Baltimore city; one of the parties plaintiff.

1 int. Did you know the late John Tolly Johns, of Balto. co. if so, is he living or dead; please state when he died, and who are and were his only heirs-at-law?

A. I did; he is dead; he died in August, 1881, unmarried and left surviving him, as his only heirs-at-law, his sister, my wife, Sarah W. Hodges, one of the plaintiffs in this suit, and his niece Mrs. Anna R. Caldwell, wife of Dr John I. Caldwell; the said Ann R. Caldwell was the only surviving child of Mary Love, a sister of the said John T. Johns, deceased.

2 int. How many children did Mrs. Hodges have; state their names and whether they are living or dead; and if dead, state whether such children left any child or children and give their names, and if you can, the ages of any deceased child?

A. Six; three living three dead; the three living are named as follows:

1. Alice Hodges; unmarried; over twenty-one.
2. Bessie Hodges; unmarried, and over twenty-one.
3. Sarah W. wife of Edwin Fitzgerald. The three dead were named as follows:

1. Mollie Johns Love, widow of R. Horace Love, who left two children, who are parties to this proceedings and named therein, Roberta Love and Fanny Love, both infants children.
2. Kensey Johns Hodges, who left one daughter, Florence, infant, under twenty-one.
3. Ann Ridgely who intermarried with Alfred Price; they had one child, Agnes or Florence Price, who is now the wife of DeBert B. Huntley, of Chicago, Ill. both parties to this suit; don't know certainly, but believe she is over twenty-one; Mrs. Price aforesaid, I have been informed, was divorced from her said husband, and also informed that she had married again, but do not know of my own knowledge whether she left any children by her second marriage or not; she had long been absent from Balto, living in the north and west, and her intercourse with the family was not kept up.

3 int. State whether or not your daughter, Mrs. Fitzgerald, has any children living; and if so, how many;
