April Term 1887.

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county,

Sitting as a Court of Equity;

Your orators and oratrix, who are severally infants under the age of twenty-one years, by Charles P. Meredith, of Baltimore city and State of Maryland, their next friend, complaining shows:

1. That on the 13th, day of April A.D. 1876, certain Adrianna McKeen and Gustavus W. Ridgely, the latter by the name of Gustavus Ridgely, and your orators and oratrix, infants, by the said Gustavus their next friend exhibited their bill of complaint in this Court against Cumberland D. Hollins, trustee, Robert T. Hollins, Jane Nicholas, Bayly K. Kirkland, Alexander Kirkland, Randolph Barton and Agnes K., his wife, Cordelia D. Hollins and Samuel Sterrett, and thereby set forth that a certain Sarah Moore, wife of Nicholas Ruxton Moore, was in her lifetime seized and possessed in fee of one undivided both part of the easternmost half of a tract of land in Anne Arundel county, called "Duck Cove", described in Complainants' Exhibit A. McK., No. 1 filed with said bill, the said Sarah being so entitled by descent from her mother, Rebecca Keles, who was one of the heirs of Andrew Hammond, who died in January, 1777; and that said Sarah Moore also acquired in fee one-fourth of three undivided fifths of said portion of said whole tract, by deed from Samuel J. Donaldson and wife, dated the 4th July, 1834; a copy of which said deed marked "A. McK., No 2," is also exhibited with said —; that said Sarah survived her said husband, and died shortly before the 28th day of January, 1853, seized and possessed of said undivided interests in said land as aforesaid, and leaving a last well duly
