to be by her held in trust for the use and benefit of the children of her, the said Candace E. C. Hendry, and the said N. B. Hendry, and at her death, to be equally divided among said children share and share alike – that is to say, in the event of said sum of eight thousand dollars not being paid in the time herein limited, I desire that said property shall be sold; and I give, devise and bequeath to the children of my said son, N. B. Hendry, and Candace, his wife, all of the proceeds of sale over and above the said sum of eight thousand dollars, or such part thereof as may remain unpaid, and the costs attending said sale, to be held in trust by the said Candace E. C. Hendry for their use and benefit during her life, and at her death, to be equally divided among them. And it is further my will and desire, that the rents arising from said property during said period of ten years, or such time as said property shall remain unredeemed, shall be applied, first, to the payment of the insurance of the houses on the said lot at Staunton; second, to the making of necessary repairs on said houses; third, to the payment of the interest on the said sum of eight thousand dollars, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid; and fourth, to the payment of said principal sum of eight thousand dollars or such portion thereof as may remain unpaid. And it is also my will and intention that the devise and bequest to my wife, contained in my will, shall be in bar of any claim of dower in the property specified and mentioned in this codicil thereto.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Charles Hendry, (Seal.)
