April Term 1887.

and - privileged, and the clients objected to its disclosure.
5. Because it was irrelevant.

Milton E. Manor,
C. V. S. Levy,
Jas. McSherry
For Defdts.

May 29th, 1886.
And the plaintiffs, by their counsel, filed in said cause, on the day and date aforesaid, the following exceptions to defendants' testimony:

John T. Williams and Jane E. Williams, his Wife, vs
Eleanor Hendry and Others.

No. 4661 Equity.
In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity.

The complainants, by their attorneys, except to the following questions and answers proposed to and answered by the witnesses produced on the part of the defendants as follows:
To the 3rd interrogatory proposed to the witness, Thomas A. Smith, and the answer given by said witness.
To the 7th, 9th, 15th and 20th interrogatories proposed to the witness, Thomas A. Smith, and the respective answers given by said witness to the same.
To the 9th interrogatory proposed to the witness, John S. Addison and the answer given thereto by said witness.
To the 13th interrogatory proposed to the witness, John S. Addison, and the answer given thereto by said witness.
To the 3rd, 6th, 7th and 8th interrogatories to the witness, Isaac T. Hendry, and the answers given thereto by said witness.
To the 3rd interrogatory to the witness Martha E. Addison, and the answer given thereto by said witness.
To the 3rd, 7th, 8th, 9th interrogatories proposed to the

April Term 1887.

witness, Emily E. Shipley, and the answer elicited thereto.

W. F. Maulsby,
Charles W. Ross,
J. E. R. Wood,
Attys. for Plaintiffs

And on the day and year last aforesaid, by agreement of plaintiffs' and defendants' attorneys the following copy of a deed from Jane Burgee to Eleanor Hendry, was substituted and filed in said cause, as for Exhibit No. 3. heretofore filed.
At the request of Eleanor Hendry, the following deed is recorded the 7th day of August 1841:
This indenture made this nineteenth day of July, eighteen hundred and forty-one, between Jane Burgee, of Frederick county, State of Maryland of the one part, and Eleanor Hendry, daughter of the said Jane Burgee, of the same county, of the other part;
Witnesseth, that the said Jane Burgee as well for and in consideration of the natural love and affection which she, the said Jane Burgee, hath and beareth unto the said Eleanor Hendry, as also for the better assuring to the said Eleanor a comfortable support and maintenance, hath given, granted, aliened enfeoffed and confirmed, and by these presents doth give, grant, alien, enfeoff and confirm unto the said Eleanor Hendry, her heirs and assigns (though covert) and without being subject to the control or disposal of by her husband Charles Hendry, or subject in anywise to the payment of any debts or liabilities of her said husband, now existing, or which he shall hereafter contract or create; it being the true intent and meaning of the said Jane Burgee, by the said gift and grant, to provide for the said Eleanor Hendry as