State of Maryland,

Frederick County, to wit:

I hereby certify, that the aforegoing is a true copy of a deed recorded in Liber H. S. No. 4. folio 15, one of the Record Books in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick county.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the Circuit Court for Frederick county, this first day of June, 1886.

(Place of Seal.)

W. Irving Parsons,

Clerk.

(By agreement of counsel, the following copies of bill, answers and audit in this cause:)

Bill in No. 3373 Equity.

To the Honorable M. Nelson, Judge of the Circuit Court for Frederick county sitting in Equity:

Humbly complaining shew unto Your Honor, your orators and oratrix, Nathaniel B. Hendry, Isaac S. Hendry, John W. England and Mary Ellen, his wife, Thomas A. Smith and Ann Rebecca, his wife, John T. Addison and Martha C., his wife, John W. Linthicum and Sarah A., his wife, and Emily Hendry, who is an infant, by her next friend, Nathaniel B. Hendry, that your orators and oratrix, Nathaniel B., Isaac S., Mary Ellen, Ann Rebecca, Martha C., Sarah A., and Emily, and Jane E. Williams, hereinafter to be mentioned, are the grandchildren of Jane Barger, late of Frederick county, deceased, and are the same persons named as such in the last will and testament of said Jane Barger, which was executed, acknowledged and admitted duly to probate in the Orphans Court of said county, and of which a certified copy is herewith filed marked Exhibit No. 1. which, with all other exhibits herewith filed, your orators and oratrix pray may be taken and considered as parts of this bill of complaint, and are all the grandchildren of the said Jane Barger, now living; Charles Hendry, Jr., one of them, named in said last will and testament, having died, leaving no issue, and leaving the rest of said grandchildren hereinbefore named his brothers and sisters and heirs-at-law. And they further state that, as will appear from said last will and testament, and a codicil thereto, John T. Williams and Eleanor Hendry, wife of Charles Hendry, Jr., were appointed executors of said last will and testament; and that the said Eleanor Hendry and John T. Williams were appointed trustees for the portions of said estate allotted to the minor grandchildren, until their full age or marriage—as well more fully appear from said wills. And they further show, that the said Jane Barger died on or about the month of June, 1866, and that prior to her death all the negro slaves mentioned in said last will and testament had been discharged from servitude by the abolition of slavery in the State of Maryland, and that letters testamentary have been duly granted to the said John T. Williams and Eleanor Hendry, and they have taken into their possession the personal estate of the said testatrix.

And your oratrix and orators further shew, that the said Jane Barger, at the time of the execution of said last will and testament, and about the time of her death, was seized of a large and valuable real estate, lying
