April Term 1887.

John T. Williams
For Self and Wife.

W. I. Ross.

Solicitor for Defendants Williams and Wife.

Nathaniel B. Hendry, Isaac S. Hendry and Others. vs. John T. Williams and Jane E. Williams, his Wife, and Others.	No. 3373. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity. September Term, 1868.

This cause being submitted to the Court upon the bill, answers, exhibits and the foregoing agreement of the parties, it is thereupon, this 29th day of October, 1868, by the Circuit Court for Frederick county, sitting as a Court, ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the real estate, lands and premises of which Jane Burgee, late of Frederick county, deceased, died seized and possessed, be valued, appraised and divided between and among the following named grandchildren of said Jane Burgee, to wit; Nathaniel B. Hendry, Isaac S. Hendry, Mary Ellen England, Ann Rebecca Smith, Martha C. Addison, Sarah A. Linthicum and Emily Hendry, according to the terms and provisions of the last will and testament of said Jane Burgee, and that Jane E. Williams shall be excluded by the agreement of the parties filed in this case, from any participation in the division of said real estate, and that the farm, land and premises conveyed by said Jane Burgee to said Jane E. Williams, by deed dated on the first day of August, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-two, filed in this case as Exhibit No. 2, shall be excluded from such valuation and appraisement and division, and that said Jane E. Williams shall hold in severalty in fee the real estate specified and described in said deed of conveyance, marked "Exhibit No. 2," according to the terms and provisions thereof.

April Term 1887.

It is hereby further adjudged, ordered and decreed, that Singleton King, John T. Jamison and Rufus Reagnder, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners to make said valuation, appraisement and division, and that they shall so divide said lands by farms, as will not injure or detract from the value of the same.

And it is hereby further ordered adjudged and decreed, that John T. Williams and Eleanor Hendry, as executor and executrix of the last will and testament of said Jane Burgee, shall render a full account of their said trust, exhibiting a full and perfect statement of their receipts and disbursements, and that the Auditor of this Court shall state an account herein between said estate and said executors, and shall distribute the balance of the trust funds in their hand after allowing to said executors their disbursements, and a commission of — per cent, among the grandchildren of said Jane Burgee, first hereinafter named, excluding said Jane E. Williams from said distribution as aforesaid, and the said Commissioners and Auditor shall report to this Court their proceedings for the further action of the Court.

John A. Lynch,
W. Viers Bonic,
Judges of the Circuit Court.

The joint and several answers of John T. Williams and Jane E. Williams, his wife, of Frederick county, State of Maryland, to the bill of complaint of Nathaniel B. Hendry, Isaac S. Hendry and others, filed in the Circuit Court for Frederick county, as a Court of Equity, against themselves and others: