Exhibit E. H.

I, Eleanor Hendry widow of the late Charles Hendry, of Frederick county, State of Maryland, do hereby make and publish the following as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other wills by me heretofore made, viz:

1st. I direct that all my just debts and my funeral expenses be paid out of my personal estate, and designate as the fund or property first liable for the same, any money or rents due me; and personal estate other than the debt charged upon the real estate in the city of Staunton, Virginia, under my said husband's will, but if said other personal property shall prove insufficient for that purpose, then the residue out of said debt aforesaid.

2nd. Having executed deeds conveying real estate to or for the benefit of my daughters, Mary E. England, Martha C. Addison, Ann Rebecca Smith and Emma C. Shipley, I hereby declare that the provisions thus made for them, together with what I have otherwise given, them is to be in full of their share of my estate, both real and personal.

3. My daughter, Jane, having received a considerable amount from her grandmother's estate I leave her nothing.

4th. My daughter, Amanda S. Leinkeum having sued me for money which I do not regard as justly due, I hereby declare it to be my will that she shall not receive anything from my estate, neither are her children to receive anything in the event my said daughter shall recover anything against me in said suit. But if my said daughter shall fail to recover anything against me,

I hereby bequeath to her children the sum of five hundred dollars, to be divided equally between them one year after my executors shall qualify as such – to them if they shall be married or of age, and if not, to such guardian for them as may be appointed upon the nomination of my executors, or be otherwise appointed by the proper Court under the law.

4. I hereby devise and bequeath to my two sons the residue of my estate of whatsoever kind or character, to be equally divided between them; my son, I. S. Hendry, to have and hold his said half absolutely, in addition to the land which I have heretofore conveyed to him in Montgomery county, Maryland, and any advancements made to him; and the other son, A. B. Hendry, only to hold his said half in trust, free from all encumbrances, debts or charges of any kind whatsoever, heretofore created – my purpose being to give him control of the same, to be used in such manner as will secure to him a maintenance and support during his life, but so as not to be subject to the claims of his creditors – and at his death, the residue thereof to go to his wife, Candace, and their children. This provision of my will is intended to dispose of the debt of eight thousand dollars secured upon real estate in the city of Staunton, Va.; and all other property to me belonging at my death, except as hereinbefore provided, whether such sum shall be paid up, as my husband's will provides it may be, or is realized by a sale of said property or otherwise, I request that no security be required of my sons, A. B. and I. S. Hendry, who are hereby appointed my executors by the Court, and I authorize the payment of A. B. Hendry's share of my
