estate to him as trustee as aforesaid without security by my executors.

In witness whereof I hereby set my hand and seal, this 31st. day of January, 1881.

Eleanor Hendry. (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Eleanor Hendry, as and for her last will and testament in our presence; who, at her request, in her presence, and the presence of each other, have hereunto set our hands as witnesses to the same —

John I. Uniack,
J. E. Michael
J. F. Pearson.

Codicil.

I, Eleanor Hendry, widow of Charles Hendry, late of Frederick county, Maryland, being of sound, disposing mind, memory and understanding, and being desirous of making some changes in and additions to my last will and testament heretofore made by me, and dated the thirty-first day of January 1881, do make and declare this codicil to my said last will and testament:

Whereas, by my said last will and testament, I devise and bequeathed to my two sons Isaac S. Hendry and Nathaniel B. Hendry, the residue of my estate, of whatsoever kind or character to be equally divided between them. I now alter and change said residuary devise and bequest so far as may be necessary to carry out my will and instruction herein set forth, namely: I hereby will and direct my executor hereinafter named, to deduct from and take out of that portion or moiety of the residue of my estate, which, by the terms of my said bill, would have gone to my son. N. B. Hendry, a sufficient portion or sum to make the following payment, to wit: First, to pay to said I. S. Hendry a note for four hundred and eighty-six dollars and eighteen cents. ($486.18.) signed by me, dated 26th day of November, 1887, and payable to the order of I. S. Hendry, one day after date — said note having been given by me to I. S. Hendry, on account of the assignment by him to me of his claim against said N. B. Hendry, which claim I now hold still unpaid; and I hereby acknowledge said note and waive any right to take advantage of the Statute of Limitations that I or anyone else might have, directing my executor to pay said note.

2nd. To retain with interest thereon out of said N. B. Hendry's share and pay I. S. Hendry an amount equal to the total sum or amount which I, at the time of my death, may have paid to a certain building association in Staunton, Virginia, on account of the indebtedness of said N. B. Hendry to said association — such amount to be ascertained by the pass book containing the receipts of such payments, or in absence of this from the books of said association. It being my intention and will that the aforesaid amounts shall be taken from the share of my estate which the said N. B. Hendry would have received by my said will and testament, and shall be given to my said son, I. S. Hendry, in addition to the share of my estate given him, the said I. S. Hendry, by the terms of my said will. The said N. B. Hendry to have and hold the portion remaining to him in trust, in the same way and manner as set forth in my said will.
