SOME of the Baltimore papers and others outside of Talbot County are exhausting their energies and wit upon ridiculing Senator Gibson. There are a few persons in the county who consider these effusions wonderfully good and true and that the Senator deserves all the burlesque that can be heaped upon him. While it is not necessary for us to attempt to bolster up the distinguished gentleman, (for he needs none of our support or sympathy and perhaps would thank us to leave him alone with his party,) yet we cannot help saying we think it exceedingly unbecoming in any Talbot county democrat to fail to appreciate certain facts.

1st, It will be many long, weary years before a democratic legislature assembled will again honor a Talbot county citizen with a seat in the U.S. Senate, if Mr. Gibson is turned down. Furthermore he has secured many good positions for some of our citizens which would have fallen outside our borders.

2nd, He obtained more appropriations for Maryland and the Eastern Shore when he was in Congress than any of his predecessors from this Congressional District.

3d, He is a young man in the Senate and it takes time for anyone to make his mark and soar to distinction beyond those who have spent the greater part of their lives in Senatorial Halls.

4th, His seeming dependence upon the Senior Senator is only that which ninety-nine out of a hundred would have. Mr. Gorman, a leader of the party, a man of acknowledged ability, a man of national reputation is one in whom the democrats have time and again exhausted the English vocabulary in their attempts to elevate his greatness. Both these gentlemen being elected by the same party on the same platform it was becoming, to say the least, in Mr. Gibson to consult with the Senior Senator on important voting, especially when his own party was divided. And 5th, Had Mr. Gibson not taken the course he did in the Senate, there would have been even a greater howl among the "antis" than there is now on the ground that whenever a momentous question came to a vote, the Junior's vote killed the Senior's vote and it practically resulted in Maryland having no representation.

It must be acknowledged that Mr. Gibson has a large amount of that personal magnetism which has made him Senatorial friends, and that his influence is growing in Washington. If a Democrat must succeed Mr. Gibson in the Senate, by all means let it be Mr. Gibson himself, anything short of that is not loyal to Talbot in our opinion.

Now if it is Mr. Gorman and his methods that is keeping the Talbot and Eastern Shore Anti-G's in such a whirlpool of discontent and uneasiness we would say to them strike at the fountain head and elect a republican legislature, thereby securing to yourselves the purity you seek, at the same time legislation that will be in the interests of good government, economically administered and to the greatest advantage to the people at large.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, June 17th, 1895:—Mr. Cleveland goes on his summer vacation in a doubtful frame of mind, notwithstanding the personal assurance of Secretary Carlisle that the administration democrats will control the Kentucky State Convention which meets next week. He fears that Carlisle is over sanguine, and he has other political troubles on Land. He has other reason to believe that Senator Brice while standing on the administration financial platform in his Ohio, campaign, is working for Brice and not for Cleveland. He tried to get his fingers into the Ohio muddle by persuading Congressman Sorg to become the democratic candidate for Governor, but, although Sorg is a multi-millionaire, he thinks he spent enough in getting elected to Congress without being expected to open his barrel in the gubernatorial campaign and he isn't inclined, even to please Mr. Cleveland, to lead the democratic forlorn hope this year. Mr. Cleveland and his friends are also worried over Senator Hill's activity in democratic councils in New York; they know it bodes no good either to Mr. Cleveland or his friends in the presidential campaign.

The eyes of republicans are now turned towards Cleveland, where the National League Convention will meet this week, and all those who can make it convenient will be there in person. No republican—not even Senator Dubois, who has been in Washington on business—with whom your correspondent has talked, believes that the convention will try to usurp powers belonging solely to a National convention of the party to the extent of declaring by resolution what the Republican party shall or shall not support in the presidential campaign; that would be too much like playing into the hands of the democrats.

The scheme to keep the democrats now employed at the Government Printing Office upon Uncle Sam's pay roll after the republican administration takes charge, March 4, 1897, has been approved by Mr. Cleveland, and the whole outfit, including its more than 2500 employees, has been put under Civil Service rules. This is entirely satisfactory to the "ins," but the "outs" will not be apt to regard it with the same sentiments.

The higher the mercury in the thermometer climbs, the more pressing—in the eyes of Secretary Herbert—grows the necessity for an official inspection of the North Atlantic Navy Yards. Anticipating this necessity the Secretary sometime ago ordered that the dispatch boat Dolphin be overhauled and put in proper inspection condition, including her commissary stores. This has been done and the inspection tour will take in all the swell ocean resorts from Fortress Monroe to as far north as Bar Harbor, will begin as soon as Secretary Herbert completes his list of summer guests, and will last from six weeks to two months. Last year the Secretary had as assistant inspectors, his daughter and a jolly party, including a rich widow against whom rumor credited him with waging a losing matrimonial campaign. This year his daughter is in Europe and the names of none of those chosen as assistant inspectors have yet been announced. It is treason to refer to this inspection cruise as being other than a performance of an official duty but if Secretary Herbert was a republican official every democratic paper in the country would call it a private junket at public expense. I call it not all; merely give the facts, and leave the reader to do his own calling.

Commissioner Lochren, of the Pension bureau, may find himself in hot water with Congress, in connection with the one hundred dismissals from that office which are to take effect July 1st. The list of dismissals has been kept secret, but it has been learned that it includes a number of old soldiers whose dismissal is a direct and flagrant violation of law, as well as a grand-daughter of the author of the "Star Spangled Banner," who has a record of fourteen years efficient service in the bureau, and already steps are being taken which it is believed will result in a searching investigation by the Republican House. There are also a number of other matters connected with Mr. Lochren's or rather Secretary Hoke Smith's administration of the pension bureau, as it is well known that Mr. Lochren has never been allowed to take any step of importance without first getting Secretary Smith's approval, which deserve a congressional investigation.
