Special interrogatories to Manoah Metz, to be answered by him, under oath:

1st. Are you the grantee in the deed of which Exhibit No. 1 is a copy?

2d. Did you pay to Jesse H. Haugh, or to any other person, the consideration money mentioned in said deed; if yea, when did you pay it; to whom did you pay it; did you pay the whole amount on one occasion, or did you pay parts of it on several occasions; when did you pay the whole, or when did you pay the several parts; state specifically the time or times of the payments made by you, and to whom each of said payments was made, and the place and places where each of said payments was made; who was present at the time of making said payments or payments, as the case may be.

3d. Did you pay said consideration money with your own money; if yea, state when you obtained said money; did you have in any bank before you paid the same; if yea, in what bank; did you give a check for the same; if yea, when, and on what bank, and for what amount was said check; did you pay said money in bank notes or other currency; if yea, when and where, and from whom did you obtain said bank notes or other currency; state particularly the place where you got said notes, or currency, on the occasion when you paid the same, and state the person who handed to you or gave you the said notes or currency; did Jesse H. Haugh hand or give to you said notes or currency; did Margaret A. Haugh, the wife of said Jesse, hand or give to you said notes or currency; if yea, when did said Jesse H. or said Margaret A.

hand or give to you the notes or currency; how long did you have said notes or currency in your actual possession; to whom did you hand or give the same.

4th. At the time of the execution of said deed, did you not know that said Jesse H. Haugh was largely indebted to various persons; did you not know that he was unable to pay his debts, did not he tell you so on the occasion of executing said deed, or at sometime prior thereto, and at what time?

5th. Did you not take said conveyance with the knowledge that the same was for the purpose of preventing the creditors of said Jesse H. Haugh from applying the same to the payment of his debts?

6th. Did you not take said conveyance for the purpose of securing said property, or the proceeds thereof, to the benefit of said Margaret A., the wife of said Jesse H.; or did you buy said property for your own use or for an investment of your money?

7th. Who has been in possession and occupancy of said property since the date of said deed, and who is now in occupancy of the same; have you made any contract of renting to the tenant in possession; if yea, what contract and with whom?

Wm. P. Manlsby,
Harry M. Clabaugh,
In proper person and Sols. Complts.

Special interrogatories to Jesse H. Haugh and to Margaret A. Haugh, his wife, to be answered by them, and each of them, on oath:

1st. Was not said Jesse H. Haugh largely indebted to divers persons prior to and on 9th May, 1883; was he able to pay his debts at that time; if yea, what