Plaintiffs Exhibits D. E. and F. (Insolvent Proceedings.)
(Filed 24th August, 1887.)

On the twelfth day of October, A.D. 1878, as appears from these insolvency proceedings, Robert F. Thompson filed his petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, praying for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of the State of Maryland, and exhibited therewith a schedule of his property, real, personal and mixed, to which he was in any way entitled; (except such as was exempted by law:) said schedule showing the following property, viz: "A supposed life estate under a deed of trust from Annie E. Thompson and Robert F. Thompson to George E. Ballard, (heretofore set out in full,) valued at about $1,000. An interest in a fund of about $350 in the hands of Clement Sullivane, of Cambridge, Md., and attached by Annie Willoughby, whose claim herein mentioned is reduced to judgment. Debts due, &c., to said Robert F.

Thompson, "None". A list of creditors of said Thompson, aggregating $11,471.43, all bearing interest from the year 1869. Affidavits &c.
On the third day of February, the Court granted unto the said Robert F. Thompson a final discharge, in the words following, to wit:

State of Maryland,
Court of Common Pleas.

Whereas, Robert F. Thompson, of the City of Baltimore, being an insolvent debtor, on the twelfth day of October, A.D. 1878, made application to the Court of Common Pleas for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of the State of Maryland, on the terms and conditions prescribed in said law, and on his final appearance or final hearing of the above named insolvent debtor, to wit, on the third day of February, A.D. 1879, it appeared that the said debtor had complied with the terms and conditions of the said insolvent law, and had acted fairly and bona fide.
It is thereupon, on the day and year last aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions of the insolvent law aforesaid, adjudged, granted and ordered by the Court of Common Pleas aforesaid, that the said Robert F. Thompson be and he is hereby fully and finally discharged from all debts and contracts made before the filing of the application aforesaid.
Given under my hand the day and year last above written
