12th x int. Is that the only time you have seen him, and is that the only conversation you have had with him since we left here on Friday?
Ans. Only I came down with him this morning in the cars.
13th x int. Did you talk about the case this morning?
Ans. No; I did not talk about, only he told us he wanted us to tell the truth.
14th x int. That is the only conversation, then, you have had with him since we left here Friday?
Ans. Yes, sir.
15th x int. Where did Henry Gunther live during his father's sickness?
Ans. He live- on First street, between Tomb and First avenue, about a square and a half from his father's.
16th x int. Did old Mr. Gunther ever sit out on the pavement in front of his house, during his sickness?
Ans. Yes, sir.
17th x int. Where did you live during Mr. Gunther's sickness?
Ans. I lived with him.
18th x int. Can you state what day it was, you last saw Henry Gunther at his father's?
Ans. No; I can't do that.
19th x int. How long do you suppose it was before his death?
Ans. About two weeks.
20th x int. What kind of day was it?
Ans. I can't say what kind of a day it was; he often sat outside on the pavement.
21st x int. Was he out on the pavement then?
Ans. Yes.
22nd x int. Is old Mr. Gunther's house on the corner?
Ans. No; it is between 1st and 2nd avenue.

23rd x int. When you say he often sat on the pavement, do you mean the pavement in front of his house?
Ans. Yes.
24th x int. So that anyone going to his house, would of course see him sitting on the pavement?
Ans. Yes, sir.
25th x int. Who would be with him while he would be sitting out on the pavement in that way?
Ans. I often seen Mrs. Gunther with him.
25th x int. Who else?
Ans. Sometimes some of those farmers from the neck.
26th x int. What hour of the day would he be sitting out on the pavement?
Ans. Well, in the morning, and sometimes in the evening.
27th x int. What time would he go to bed?
Ans. I can't tell; he would often go to bed, and get up again.
28th x int. In what room did Henry Gunther ask Mrs. Gunther if he could see his father?
Ans. It was in the room down stairs, and sometimes in the bar-room.
29th x int. Where did the conversation between Henry Gunther, Junior, and Mrs. Gunther, of which you have spoken, take place?
Ans. That was in the bar-room.
30th x int. Where was Mr. Gunther at that time?
Ans. He was down stairs in a room, right behind the bar.
31st x int. Is that a sleeping room?
Ans. No.
32nd x int. What time of the evening was it?
Ans. I guess a little after six o'clock, or about six o'clock.
33rd x int. You can't say what day of the week it was?