and I asked him what was the matter, and he said he wanted to find out where he could see about the school house, and then he went and bought it that day; he asked me if he would make partition in the house if I would live in it; I said, yes, sir; he said, he knowed the house I lived in was damp, and the children was always sick; and in a day or two he came over again and said it would not do to put partitions in, he did not like to see me go in that way; said that he intended to put up a three story house for Henry at the corner; said his wife was not satisfied for him to build houses; that he had intended to put up six houses, and the corner was to be for Henry, because we were going to have a store; and he said he was going to try and put it up anyway.

12th int. Did he put it up?

Ans. Now, sir.

13th int. How many children had you and your husband at the time of Mr. Gunther's death?

Ans. Five.

14th int. Can you state how Mr. Gunther felt towards your children, as well as his son Henry?

Ans. Well, he loved them; dearly loved them; he liked Henry; was worried whenever he went at hard work; never wanted him to go at hard work.

15th int. What was the health of your husband for some years before his father's death, and what has been the condition of his health since?

Ans. He has not been healthy since he fell down in the hole of a vessel about nine years ago, while he was working for his father; they were working at night when he fell.

16th int. You have said that your husband was working on the cars; please state when that was; how long he worked there, and what caused him to stop, if anything?

Ans. About a year and a half ago he worked there; he did not work very long; his father was not satisfied for him to work there; he had such a pain in the breast from working the brake on the car.

17th int. What was your husband doing at the time of his father's death, and what employment has he been in since?

Ans. He was working at his trade, a moulder, at the time of his death, and has been ever since.

18th int. Can you state whether or not your husband was permitted to see his father during his last illness, until about the last day of his life?

Ans. I think the first day my husband saw him was on Friday; when he was so bad he went there twice, that he told me of, and he did not get to see him.

(Objected to.)

19th int. Did you make any effort to see Mr. Gunther in his last illness, before you saw him?

Ans. Yes, sir; on Tuesday before he died.

20th int. State all that occurred then?

Ans. I went over with Mrs. Philips, a neighbor of mine; I did not get to see him; I asked Johnnie Shaffer, the barkeeper, if I could go up to see father; he said, "No; he did not think I could get up;" Mrs. Philips said, "Johnnie, why dont you let Henry's wife go up; it is a shame; (Mr. Barton, objects to this conversation,) and he said, "Wait a minute; I will ask Denie." Mrs. Gunther's daughter; Denie said, "Dont you let her up; dont you let her up; ma
