Ans. I don't know.

16th x int. Did you never hear of a suit against Mr. Gunther, growing out of his taking possession of Baumgartner's cows when he died?

Ans. I heard of a suit

17th x int. Didn't you hear that Baumgartner owed Mr. Gunther money?

(Excepted to.)

Ans. Not as I know of.

18th x int. Did not your husband tell you that when Baumgartner died, he owed Mr. Gunther some twenty five hundred dollars?

Ans. No, sir; I did not hear him say any thing.

19th x int. Did not you or your husband, after Baumgartner's death, get the milk route and store that Baumgartner had had?

Ans. Henry bought the route, horse, wagon and milk fixtures.

20th x int. Who did he buy it from?

Ans. From his father.

21st x int. Did he pay his father for them?

Ans. Yes, sir; he paid his father $350.00, and he gave him a note for the $100.

22nd x int. How long did Henry continue the milk business?

Ans. About two or two and a half years.

23rd x int. Did not Mr. Gunther buy him another route?

Ans. I think Henry bought it himself, with money he worked hard for, and she knows it.

24th x int. Who did he buy the other route from?

Ans. Mr. Berends.

25th x int. Are you positive that Henry Gunther, your husband, paid the money for that route?

Ans. My husband told me that he paid for it; I was not there when he bought it.

26th x int. You state then, that your husband paid his father $350 and Berends $440, out of his own money; am I right?

Ans. I gave Henry an order for $350; it was in bank in my own name; I was not there when the second one was bought, and would not have been there when the first one was bought, but the money was in my name.

27th x int. The $350 was the earnings of yourself and your husband at Hawkins' Point?

Ans. Yes, sir; I think it was pretty well earnt, too.

28th x int. Where did your husband keep the $440 which you say he paid Berends?

Ans. I don't know where he kept it.

29th x int. From what source, and where did he get it?

Ans. I don't know; I would not have had that first money in my name, only Mrs. Gunther took me up to the bank; Henry did not know nothing about it until I got home.

30th x int. What became of the $440 milk route?

Ans. Henry sold it, but it was not worth much when he sold it — only about fifteen gallons a day, and lots owing him.

31st x int. How much did he get for it?

Ans. I don't know; I never meddle with his business; he paid all the milk men, and attended to the business.

32nd x int. Why did he sell out?

Ans. Because it was no use of his keeping it, he was working and disheartened, and has money standing out on it to-day.

33rd x int. Did not he lose pretty near all he put in?

Ans. Yes, sir; lost right smart.

34th x int. Did he pay the $100 note?

Ans. Not as I know of.
