35th x int. Did not old Mr. Gunther know of his failure in this enterprise?

Ans. Yes, sir.

36th x int. About what time did he sell out?

Ans. I don't know whether 1885, or 1886.

37th x int. It was then, before Mr. Gunther, by his will, cut-down the legacy to Henry Gunther from $800 to $200; this appears to have been done by him on the 7th of May, 1886? (Objected to.)

Ans. I don't know.

38th x int. You have said that Mr. Gunther's daughter Mary came to your house one night, and complained of her mother's treatment; please state how old she was then?

Ans. I think she was about sixteen or seventeen. I can't say exactly; she might have been older.

39th x int. At that time your father had a bar-keeper named Alexander Brown, had he not?

Ans. Yes, sir.

40th x int. Did he not come to your house the same night that Mary did?

Ans. No, sir.

41st x int. How long did Mary stay there?

Ans. I could not say whether it was a week or two weeks, until she got a place to live out.

42nd x int. Did not Brown visit her while she was there; if so, how often?

Ans. He was there one night; we were all sitting out on the pavement together.

43rd x int. Did you not tell Mrs. Gunther, the defendant, that Brown came to your house the same night that Mary did, and met her in the yard, after midnight?

Ans. No, sir.

44th x int. Did not Mary leave home several times, besides the times she went to your house?

Ans. Once, that I recollect of.

45th x int. Don't you know that the intimacy or relations between this man Brown and Mary, were a source of trouble and annoyance to both Mr. and Mrs. Gunther?

Ans. No, I did not; I know that father came down a day or two after and begged Mary to go home, and cried on the pavement?

46th x int. Is it not a fact, that the last time she went away her father refused to allow her to come home?

Ans. No, sir; the last time I know of he begged her to come home.

47th x int. Was not her conduct such while at your house, and at that time, that you made, or requested her to leave there?

Ans. No; I did not see any thing bad of her, and I never made her leave; I left her there until she got a place.

48th x int. You do know that this barkeeper Brown, left Mr. Gunther's the same night Mary did, and did not return there, don't you?

Ans. No, sir; I don't.

49th x int. Do you say that he did not leave the same night?

Ans. I say that he did not; yes, sir, not as I know of.

Redirect.

1st int. You have stated that after Mary came to your house, her father came there and begged her to return, and cried; state if at that time he said any thing to her about Mrs. Gunther's treatment of her, or made any promises to her if she would return; if so, state what he said?

(Excepted to.)

Ans. Mary went out to him and asked for her clothes, she
