Ans. That when I asked Mr. Gunther if he was ready to sign the deed, he acknowledged the same, and so did sign with his own hand, to the best of my recollection; I considered it an acknowledgment.

17th x int. Don't you know that when he signed that deed, he asked for another paper, and signed that also?

Ans. I don't recollect any other paper.

18th x int. Don't you remembered that he then signed some paper in connection with the Canton Church?

Ans. I recollect a paper of the Canton Church, but can't say positively at that time.

19th x int. How long was it between the taking of the acknowledgment of the deed in question, and your last meeting with Mr. Gunther theretofore?

Ans. To the best of my recollection it was several days, but I could not say how many.

20th x int. What change did you perceive in his mental or physical condition, from the time you took his acknowledgment, and the time last before then?

Ans. His physical condition was considerably worse; I could not say directly as to his mental condition, as I had no conversation much with him.

21st x int. Don't you know that you saw him the day before you took the acknowledgment to that deed, and that he made a formal affidavit before you, as a Justice of the Peace, to a certain business paper?

Ans. That may have been the case, but I do not recollect it now.

22nd x int. Do you not know that Mr. Gunther talked about and attended to business for three days after you took the acknowledgment to that deed?

Ans. Not of my own knowledge.

23rd x int. When you went to take the acknowledgment, did not Mr. Gunther, sit up in bed, and put his own spectacles on, before signing the paper?

Ans. He sat up while he signed the acknowledgment; but I don't recollect about the spectacles.

24th x int. Can't you say whether he had spectacles on when he signed the paper?

Ans. I could not.

24th x int. When you went in the room, did you not hear Mrs. Gunther say to her husband, papa, here is Mr. Dorsey, and did you not hear his reply?

Ans. I heard Mrs. Gunther speak to Mr. Gunther, but can't recollect the words, nor the reply if any.

25th x int. Do you know Mr. Randolph Barton, and where his office is in the city of Baltimore?

Ans. Slightly acquainted with Mr. Barton; I know where his office is but could not state the street or number.

26th x int. How often have you talked with Mr. Barton about Henry Gunther and his mental condition, at the time he signed the deed in question, since the bill was filed in this case?

Ans. I can't recollect that I talked with him on that question at all; I can't remember.

27th x int. Did you not, in the month of March, have one or more talks with Mr. Barton, at his office in the City of Baltimore, about Mr. Gunther and the said deed, and the execution of the same, and say to him, that at the time that he. Gunther, acknowledged the deed, that he was all right mentally, or use words to that effect?

Ans. I might have had conversations with Mr. Barton, but I do not recollect the words used, if we referred to the matter at all.
