Ans. I do not recollect his wife's stating anything; I do recollect him speaking about having trouble with his children about that time.
4th int. Don't you know that Mr. Gunther, sometime before his death, was often vexed, disturbed, and annoyed by his children abusing his wife and quarrelling with her, and the failure of some of them to get along with all the help he could give them?
Ans. He was troubled with his children from the abuse of his children of his wife, and quarrelling with her, and she quarrelling with them; that caused the trouble; yes, he spoke of the failure of some of them to get along.

Re-Re-Redirect.

1st int. Do you know that Henry Gunther, at times was driven to drink by reason of his wife quarrelling with, and abusing his children, and at such times he would abuse her and cause her to flee from his presence?
(Excepted to.)
Ans. When he became vexed and excited from quarrelling by his family, I have seen him resort to drink, but I can't say that his wife left the house or premises; I only heard that she left his presence.
2nd int. How would he then treat her, or speak of her in your presence, or to your knowledge?
(Excepted to.)
Ans. I never heard him; I can't recollect any occasion that he ever spoke of her, or treated her amiss, from the fact that I generally absented myself about that time.
Formal question by Examiner:
Ans. I cannot.

Jas. P. Dorsey.

Henry Gunther, Jr., a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the plaintiffs, having been first sworn in due form of law, makes oath, deposeth and saith as follows, to wit:

Answer to 1st int. I am a son of Henry Gunther, deceased, and one of the plaintiffs in this case; I am thirty three years of age, and live in Canton, Baltimore county; I know all the parties to this suit; my father died the ninth of last August, and left four children surviving him by his first wife, viz: Frederick, Louisa, who married William Kiefer, myself and Mary, who married Baumgardner; he is now dead, and she is a widow; he had no children by his second wife; by his third wife, his widow, the defendant in this case, he had the following children: Dona Christina, aged about fifteen or sixteen; Annie, aged about fourteen years; Charles, aged about seven or eight years, and a girl baby, whose name I don't know; the children by his first wife are all of age.
2nd int. State, if you can, what property your father had at the time of his death?
Ans. He had the double house he lived in, on First street, Canton, two stone houses, and one frame house, adjoining, and a blacksmith shop; McKnight's tavern on Fifth street, a small house, on Second street, opposite the car stables, and one on Chestnut street, and the old Canton school house, a share in Swartz's Church, a farm down the neck, and he has often told me that he had a share in the washing house or Orphans' asylum, on Trinity street, Baltimore; I don't know whether he held anything against it; he often told me he had put a good deal of money in it; he had a lot of horses and carts, and money in bank; the last time he went down the road with me, he told me that he had about thirty five thousand dollars worth of personal property, including money in bank.
(Exception to the conversation between witness and his father.)
