COMMITTEE.

THE Baltimore Sun of Sept. 27, had a well written editorial on "Hirelings" which commends itself to every thinking voter. It denounces Mr. Gorman's contempt for "hired" persons and closes with these remarks: "Laboring men, whether they labor with the pen or the pick, whether they earn their livings by their hands or their heads, will repudiate Senator Gorman's scornful allusions to them as "hirelings." If they are the "hirelings" of their employers, whose hireling is Senator Gorman? Nominally, he is the "hired agent" and servant of the democratic party and the people, hired and paid to represent them and carry out their wishes. In reality, while he has taken their hire, he has betrayed his employers. Where, as we have said, the work is honorable, it is not dishonorable to receive "hire" or to be a "hired agent." The stain of dishonor is only incurred when the agent hired to do honorable work is untrue to his trust. Fidelity to his employer in such a case is the test of honor, whether the employer be the people or an individual. Certain it is that no man can serve two masters. It is true now, as of old, that he will love the one and hate the other. The "hired agents" of The Sun and other independent newspapers are, at least, faithful to the public and the cause of the people. While serving the public for the "hire" they justly earn they are not for "hire" to anybody else, which is more than can be said for some of our statesmen."

THE Supervisors of election have acceeded to the demands of the Republicans either through policy or courtesy. Be that as it may, it was the right thing to do. They should carefully guard against the necessity for suspicion when Talbot has become so famous in the State as the breeding ground for democratic deviltry in election matters. If they tried to force names upon the Republicans that the Republicans positively objected to, and they, the Supervisors, had no reasons to give why such appointments were made—that of itself was sufficient ground for suspicion, considering the actions of previous boards. We are glad Messrs. George and Craig acquiesced and sincerely hope there will be no further curtailment of the simple legal rights of the Republicans, for that is all they ask.

IT IS conservatism, growing on all sides, that has so alarmed the Democratic bosses. They are already on the run, and their frantic appeals to race prejudice, war issues and everything else calculated to stir up the passions, is an evidence of this. They have tried in every way to trip up Mr. Lowndes in some unguarded moment and catch up something he might say to make capital out of.—They have had a stenographer follow him around and take down his every utterance. But they have failed completely. Everywhere Mr. Lowndes has gone he has made friends, and every speech he has made has won him votes. Doesn't it look as if the Democrats were badly scared to resort to such practices?

A LETTER that has attracted more attention and had more weight than anything else of recent days is one from Rev, Edmund Didier, the well known Catholic clergyman of Baltimore, and a life-long Democrat, which was published last week. Rev. Father Didier says:

This Gorman business has got to be put down, and I for one intend to vote the Republican ticket, for that is the only way to down the man. I have weighed the matter carefully, and intend to do all in my power to overthrow the ring. I love my country and I want good government. Gorman and his followers are only looking for their own selfish ends. He has grown rich in the business. I sincerely hope, and firmly believe, that the good citizens of this old State will, in November next, retire the bosses to the walks of private life. I shall vote against them and urge all good citizens to do likewise.

EVERY day something turns up to accentuate the desperate condition of Senator Gorman and his ticket. The latest is the refusal of his registration officers to allow a number of republicans who own homes, valued all the way from $1,000 to $50,000, in Maryland, but do business in Washington, to register in this State. A test case will be taken to the courts, but as Gorman controls the courts largely there isn't much hope of accomplishing further than putting them on record.

EXPLANATION.

...presumption that the members of the Prohibition party were sincere in their temperance professions, some three or four weeks ago a committee was told to have printed a circular addressed to them, informing them of what the judge said in sentencing two colored people at the close of the last May term of court. Below is a copy of this circular which was printed and at the proper time would have been sent out, but Major Stewart forestalled the committee, and on the very day they were printed, secured a copy. How this was done I can't say nor do I care to know. All I know is, it was private property and no one had a right to a copy of it without the consent of its owner. The Major went up and down our streets reading it to all whom he could get to listen to it and denouncing those whom he supposed had any connection with it, myself among the number. Here is the circular:

DEAR SIR: As a Temperance man and Prohibitionist you are presumed to be interested in the execution of the laws of your county for the suppression of the liquor traffic. It is a matter of notoriety that these laws are not enforced. So flagrant have these violations become that the Honorable Judge at the last session of the Circuit Court, felt constrained to state publicly in open Court, that it was a matter of record that parties were selling in the town of Easton, from one to two barrels of whiskey every ten days, and yet no one was punished, except occasionally one or two ignorant colored people, and they for selling a drink or a half a pint. And His Honor then said, "There must be gross negligence or partiality on the part of the officers of the law."

The Judge simply voiced the general sentiment. Everyone knows there is no difficulty in purchasing intoxicants in Easton and at other points in the county. Everyone believes it could be stopped if the officers of the law wished it.

As a good citizen what is our duty in the premises? You have no candidate on your ticket for State's Attorney. There are supposed to be at least two hundred Prohibition voters in the county. This vote may be sufficient to hold the balance of power. With you may rest the responsibility of a continuance of this state of affairs, brought about by what the Judge calls "gross negligence or partiality on the part of the officers of the law." By voting for a change it may be better, but can't be worse. Let your vote for State's Attorney be a "conscience vote" as well as your vote on the rest of the ticket.
COMMITTEE.

No one will question the truth of every word in it, and no one, I presume, will pay any attention to the vaporings of any individual, whether drunk or sober, as to the impropriety of issuing such a circular, and attention is called to it simply to show the inconsistency of the Gormanites and the depth of their conviction that they have rights which are denied to those who are not in accord with them whether they be Republicans or Democrats, Prohibitionists or Populists. It is a favorite device of the ring bosses to issue a few days before election and too late for refutation, circulars filled with false statements and misrepresentations. I have before me one such, issued four years ago and addressed "To The Oystermen of Talbot County" which is but a sample of many such. False in letter and spirit. Yet this is all right, but if others have a circular prepared stating facts, which if questioned, could be easily proven, it is a terrible outrage. Probably this is natural. They have so long controlled affairs that it is not surprising that they think the whole county, as well as the Democratic party belongs to them, and that no one has any right they are bound to respect.

"The Kodak" the new comedy presented by this clever attraction to be at the Opera House in the near future is heralded as a fantastic musical burlesque extravaganza. The play, it is said, comes to us set to new music and embellished with new costumes and witty sayings, and as presented is a bright and mirth provoking entertainment, the Comedy element being of a new order especially interesting and laughable, and is interspersed with new and catchy music and funny songs. The dialogue is as bright and sparkling as the morning's dew. The company is said to be one of more than ordinary ability, headed by Chas. I. Aldrich, and has received the greatest praise for its finish in the interpretation of the different roles.

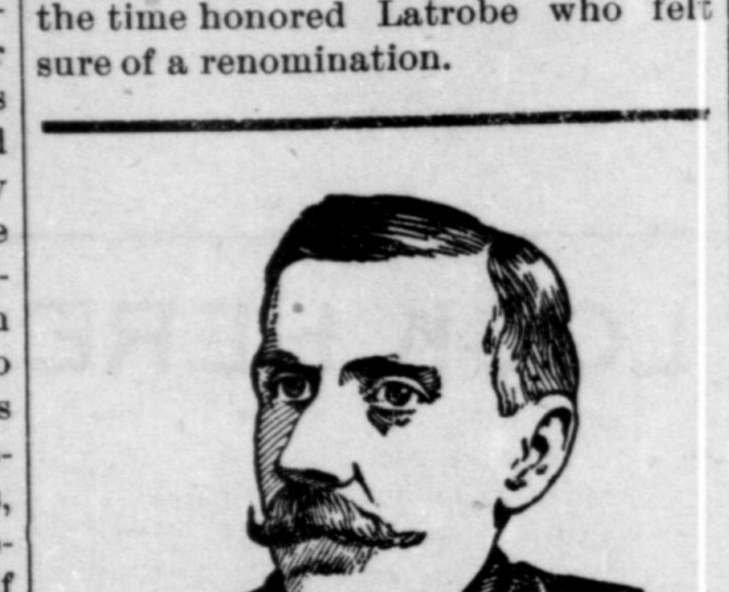

MR. ALCAEUS HOOPER of Baltimore was nominated on the Republican ticket for mayor on Thursday. Many thought that Malster would be the nominee but the poll resulted in 103 for Hooper against 95 for Malster. The Democrats nominated Henry Williams for mayor and turned down the time honored Latrobe who felt sure of a renomination.

A Great Push for Fall Business.

What are Wanamaker & Brown after.? Last year they could hardly wait on the crowds. They took out their front, enlarged the holding capacity of their store fifty per cent, sold Suits at $5 and Trousers at $2. What next.?

Why more of the same sort of prices and better goods for you. We haven't half the business we can attend to. We've prepared goods by the carload. Next thing is to sell.

We'll sell—no doubt about that, we've fixed the prices where every customer is sure to become a purchaser. The keynote of the season—Lower prices for all sorts of clothes—Best Suits, Every day Suits—everything in the Clothing line.

No greater Clothes selling possible than $5 and $6.75 Suits.
$20 and $25 kinds Black Suits for $13.50 and $16.50 this season.
ubstantially half prices for Fall and Winter Overcoats.

Prices will be no lower. Materials are rising. Iron is on the upgrade. We're told we're getting too little. The way we're selling, it will take half the money or about half to buy what you're used to in clothes. Boys Clothes, too—same rate, about one-half prices.

No change in the Railroad Fare conditions. Purchasers of reasonable amount of our goods are entitled under our rules to their carfare paid.
