difference in that and what I am telling now.

10x int. You have said in this case, page 79, 2nd x inty, that Mrs. Gunther had control of the business, and further on you said that Mr. Gunther took charge of the business and stock after you left it in March, 1885; did you not say in the Has vs. Gunther case, in answer to question 9 put to you, that Mr. Gunther took possession of all the stock and entire business after Baumgardner's death, and issued the orders to you and to others?

Ans. Yes; so Mr. Gunther did; he put me in charge of the business, he had the possession of it sure; but Mr. Gunther had to do exactly as Mrs. Gunther said; he would come and tell the hands to do things and Mrs. Gunther would come up and tell the hands to do exactly as she said, and the hands would come in the house and say they did not know who was boss and who wasn't boss; and that they did not know what to do.

11x int. If you swore, as you now say you did in the Has case, that when Baumgardner died Gunther took possession of the entire business and control, and if, as you now admit, he did take such possession on the 15th of November, 1884, when Baumgardner died, why did you swear a few days ago that he did not take charge of it until after you left in March 1885.

(Excepted to.)

Ans. You did not understand my meaning at that time; I had to go according as Mr. Gunther said; Mr. Gunther was my boss, and if I said he took charge of it after Mr. Baumgardner's death, I meant that he was boss of it, and put me there as overseer.

12x int. Who lives with you?

Ans. That is my business; don't concern Mr. Barton whatever.

13x int. Are you married?

Ans. That's my business.

14x int. Does any female live in the house with you?

Ans. Yes; the old lady that lives down staire.

15x int. Who lives upstairs?

Ans. An old man lives upstairs in the second story; he has one room.

16x int. Who lives in your room with you, or on the story you live?

Ans. I told you before that that was my business, and nobody elses.

17x int. Does not Mrs. Baumgardner live with you, and has she not been so doing for a number of years?

Ans. I say Mr. Barton is getting very inquisitive, and that is my business and not his; I did not come out here to tell what I am doing; I was summoned on this case to testify in it, and not about my family affairs.

18x int. I want an answer to these questions, yes or no, Mr. Stromer; and I now repeat my 12th, 13th, 14th, 16th, and 17th questions?

Ans. I have given you all the answer I am going to give you; I say it is none of your business.

19x int. Does not Mrs. Baumgardner live on Pautuxent street, one door below Elliott?

Ans. No, sir, she does not live below Elliott.

20x int. Does she live above Elliott?

Ans. Yes, sir.

21x int. Does she not live in the third story of that house?

Ans. Yes, sir.

22x int. Don't you live on Pautuxent street, one door above Elliott?

Ans. Yes, sir.

23x int. Don't you live in the third story of the house?

Ans. Yes, sir.
