COMMITTEE.

IN one of Mr. Hurst's Eastern Shore speeches he spoke very bitterly of the independent Democrats and characterized them as traitors of the Benedict Arnold stripe. This is a severe aspersion upon those honest Democrats who refuse to be governed by the dictates of the Gorman-Rasin machine, and who wish to exercise their individual judgment as to whom they will vote for. But Hurst's brain is much beaddled at the present time. He even forgets that a few years ago he was the chairman of an independent Democratic organization which had as its object a correction of the very abuses which then and since have flourished, and which now can only be remedied by the defeat of this same Hurst. Like that of Senator Gorman Mr. Hurst's memory in this campaign is by no means reliable.

We invite these good citizens whom Mr. Hurst now classes with Benedict Arnold to read the following extract from the Association of which Mr. Hurst was President—and remember too that this association was formed by Democrats who were then favoring a reform from the Gorman-Rasin abuses in that party. Here is what President Hurst's Association then handed to the "Regulars:"

"We recognize, however, that national politics have no proper place in local government, and in all elections for city officers and in all judiciary elections the Association shall be free to endorse the candidates of any party, or independent candidates, and in cases of emergency to nominate candidates of its own."

IF Senator Gorman had anything good and truthful to say about the Ring management of affairs in this State, he would very quickly say it, and let national questions alone.

GOV. BROWN seems utterly unable to rise above the plane of partizan action when it comes to treating matters bearing on honest elections. He removed Col. Holland, against whom no charges were made, because the Governor became suddenly sensitive lest the Republican party should not be well enough represented in the Board of Election Supervisors. And then when the Republican party and many Democrats urge the appointment of Charles J. Bonaparte as Col. Holland's successor—upon the sole ground of his eminent fitness, high character and fine qualifications for such a position, the Governor hesitated to appoint him for fear he would be too good. In other words Brown, kicks out Holland on the ground of incompetency and then refused to appoint Bonaparte on account of his competency—which is everywhere conceded; and at the same time keep in Bians, against whom the charges of misconduct and dishonesty in his official acts was sustained—and thoroughly demonstrated to all fair-minded persons. The present Executive of Maryland has made a fairly good Governor outside of party affairs, but when it comes down to honest elections and an honest ballot he is miserably weak, squirms like a baby under the party lash and is pitiable indeed. The people have about had enough of Farmer Brown.

Since the above was put in type, Gov. Brown has appointed Charles J. Bonaparte to succeed Col. Holland.—Had he done this in the first place, his act would have been commended by all classes of fair minded citizens, but by failing to do his duty until driven to it, takes from the Governor, that credit which he would otherwise have received. His statement or excuse for appointing Bonaparte and Lanahan, is palpably weak and puerile.

THE Democratic party has time and again promised the people of Maryland a re-assessment law, and every time has failed to carry out its faith with the people. There has been no palliation or excuse for this failure to make good its promises. The party had a big majority in both branches of the Maryland Legislature and could enact any legislation whatever, without fear or favor from the Republicans. Yet it did not give the suffering taxpayers that relief which decent and honest regard for the wrongs they suffered would demand. Now can this party be trusted again? Will they give you re-assessment any quicker now than before? Would you trust again and again your employe in your private business who had been recreant and false to his promises over and over? Can you have faith in the sudden conversion of Hurst, that arch-enemy of re-assessment? Are we to be forever fools that we may be fooled? Think about it!

WHEN Gorman visited Baltimore one day early in June, he was interviewed by a city reporter and asked who would be the Democratic nominee for Governor. The Senator replied, "I don't know. The PEOPLE will nominate the Governor." The GAZETTE referred to this at the time and stated that when the Democratic convention met it would be another case of the people having nothing to do with it. The people thought they were settling the thing between Hayes and Jones and elected delegates at the primaries to support one or the other of these men, but when this august body of delegates met, presto, change! the delegates became tools and represented their Boss, instead of their constituencies, while Gorman and Rasin said, "The people be——" and nominaten Hurst! The Democrats of Maryland will be no better than their primary delegates if they vindicate the same by voting for Hurst.

LAWYERS McLane, Venable and Willis have "declined" to serve as "associate" Supervisor with Bians. They should feel like Bonaparte—that there is no danger of becoming contaminated by association, officially with this individual. But that it is a duty they owe the State to lend their name, character and intellect in a cause which means a purity of our registration books and a just interpretation of our election laws. Then with such associates Bians would have little chance to get in his scoundrelly work.

Give us honest election supervisors. The ballot box will never record a fair election so long as the election machinery is corrupt—or susceptible to evil influences. So if Governor Brown will not remove Bians, he should insist upon the associates of that individual being morally and intellectually his superior to such an extent that Bians and his unfair registration appointments will be a thing of the past.

THE Democratic managers have at times been much bewildered at the attempt of Mr. Hurst to make himself right with the people as regards his position towards the Ring. In this respect his statements have been rediculously absurd and altogether misleading. It is quite apparent that the more Mr. Hurst talks the better it is for those who want a complete change in Maryland affairs.

He has apologized for the company he is now in, expostulated, promised, excused and made every endeavor to turn the tide which is flowing rapidly against him—and now, after six weeks of constant labor in this direction, Mr. Gorman's candidate for Governor is in a desperate state of mind to find that instead of nearer he is farther away from the Gubernatorial chair than he has been at any time since his nomination.

THE Hurst Democratic meeting at Music Hall, Baltimore, last week, was anything but a well attended affair, considering its big advertisement and the outside eloquence imported from other states. At the Lowndes meeting at the same hall on Tuesday night of this week, the building was packed till standing room in the aisles could not be secured, while several thousand clamorous, but good natured citizens, remained on the outside. It does not require a prophet to tell what is going to happen to the Gorman-Rasin ticket on Nov. 5th. All Bosses have their day. And Maryland, one of the most notoriously boss-ridden states of the Union is fully awake to the true situation of affairs, and will cast off the yoke at the coming election.

RING-RULE and miss-rule go together. It is impossible to separate the two.

AFTER four failures to pass a re-assessment law nothing short of a Gorman Democrat would have the brazen audacity to ask the people for further support based upon the same old promise, and at the same time running for Governor the man who headed a strong delegation before Gov. Brown 2 years ago having in view the express purpose of defeating the re-assessment law which some honest Democrats had placed in the Governor's hands for approval. Hurst's anti-election, re-assessment conversion is a fraud, a delusion and a cheat. Better beware of him.

ANTI-MACHINE, anti-Gorman, anti-Rasin is the cry throughout the State. Old party lines have faded. It is not the two old parties arrayed one against the other in Maryland today, but it is honest and better government for the future against a dishonest and curropt continuance of that of the past. Nothing short of a crushing defeat of the Ring will bring this condition of improvement to the management of public affairs.

ATTORNEY GENERAL POE got $30,000 for codifying the State laws. How much of this money from the tax-payers went to pay for this little "innocent" "inadvertency" by which the word "veto" in our election law came out in the shape of "vcte" in the new code? Poe is only better than Bians in the fact that he is smarter. Without such men the Ring would have ceased to exist in this State years ago. But the tax-payers pay the freight!

REASSESSMENT, free school books, fair registration and an honest count are the issues which confront the Maryland voter today. National questions are by no means involved, and the importation of foreign Congressmen into this State to tell our people how to vote is, at this time, a piece of impertinence which will in the end do the Ring more harm than good. The average Marylander is no fool.

MR. HURST will hardly accuse Mr. Lowndes again of not being the choice of the Republican party in Baltimore as expressed by the primary vote. The latter gentleman very promptly reminded Mr. Hurst that he (Hurst) had not gotten a single vote at any Democratic primary, whatever, but rather owed his nomination to two men—Gorman and Rasin.

SENSELESS yarns and vain imaginations appear to be the stock in trade in the Democratic camp. Such twaddle as mixed schools and social mixture of the two races is but evidence of the desperate condition of the opposition. They are hopelessly beaten and an insane bewilderment is the result.

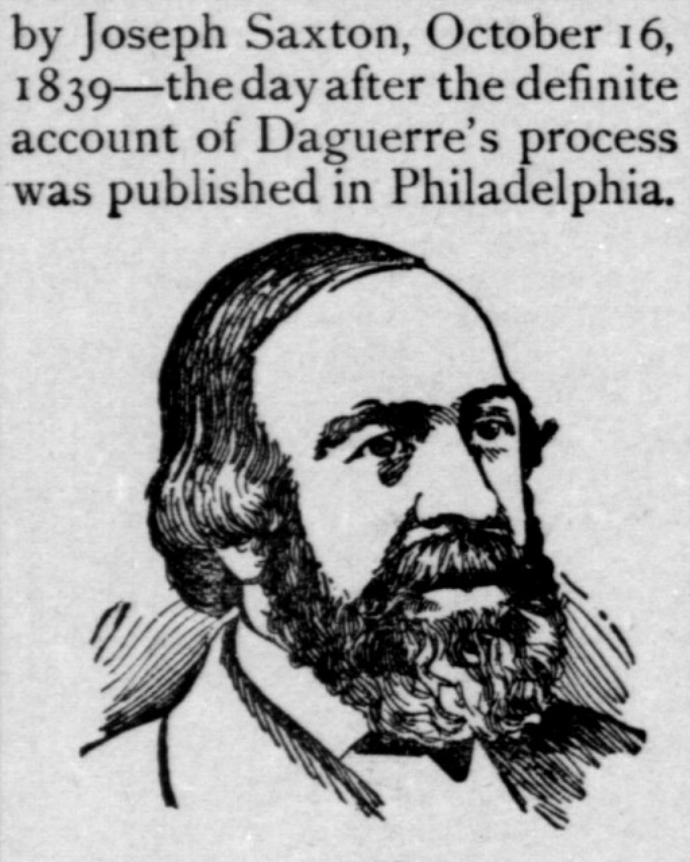
HURST was the chairman of a kicking association in 1882, which had for its object the smashing of the very bosses whom the Democratic nominee for Governor now worships.

TALBOT Republicans are well organized, and if given a fair election have every reason to feel hopeful.

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, October 14, 1895.

The first photograph made in America was a view taken on a sheet of polished metal, from one of the upper windows of the United States Mint by Joseph Saxton, October 16, 1839—the day after the definite account of Daguerre's process was published in Philadelphia.



A seidlitz powder box with a few flakes of iodine answered for a coating box, while a cigar box and burning glass were improvised for a camera. An iron spoon served to heat the mercury to develop the plate. The result was a picture showing a portion of the State Arsenal and Philadelphia High School, which then stood on the ground now occupied by Wanamaker's.

WOMEN'S COATS

Depends on the stuffs whether or not the coat is lined. These cold-resisting double-faced cloths would be half spoiled were the stylish plaid back hidden by a lining. The cloths that have all their beauty on the one side, are backed up with satin rhadame. Wonderfully stylish Coats, pick where you may. $15 to $20.

Most of the Coats we show are imported and neither the apeless style or the sea voyage seem to add much to the cost, for here are Imported Cheviot Coats, reefer front, seams all bound; half satin lined; at $8.50. Made in Berlin.

There is a story of Coats at $5—but no room for it today. The Coats are of Diagonal Cheviot, half silk lined; velvet collar.

DRESS STUFFS

Twenty-five cents today buys such qualities as were fifty cents two or three years ago. It is needful to keep this in mind, or you would count as mean the goods we tell of today. They are right, pretty, good! For instance—

36 in. all-wool French Serge. Eleven colorings. 25c.

Much the same effects in

WANAMAKER'S.

American goods. They, too, are 25c.

And, skipping to the 37½c range, the selection is vastly greater than ever. Beauty and serviceableness are combined in every one.

There are—
8 styles of Imported Melange Suiting.
13 styles of Imported Mixed Suiting.
8 styles of Domestic Bouretted Novelties
83 styles of Domestic Figured Novelties.

Storm Serges in navy, black and brown, maintain their prestige. 38 in., 37½c.

SHOES

The wizard of the Shoe store keeps right on with the surprises that have set the whole town wondering. Such shoe selling is altogether too interesting to miss. Those who have depended on us longest for footwear are the store's staunchest friends—for, somehow, shoes from Wanamaker's wear better than those to be had anywhere else. It is this Shoe wizard's know-how that keeps them to the high standard.

For Men—
All hand-sewed French Calfskin Shoes, $5. In Patent Leather, if you wish.
Men's best American tanned Calfskin or Imported Patent Leather Shoes, $3.90.
Men's Patent Leather Shoes of Imported stock; welted and stitched soles, $3.

For Women—
Best Chrome Kidskin Shoes, button and lace, are best judged by comparative prices—
$3.50 for $5 and $7.50 Shoes.
$2.20 for $4 Shoes.
$1.50 for $2.50 and $5 Shoes.

CARRIAGE ROBES

Part of this eye-opening harness business is to sell Robes. Pick at random and see how we are doing it. These fine Mohair Plush Robes at $9 are in the very best designs—about what you would pay $12 for.

There are Plush Robes at $4, at $35—at almost any price between.

Cloth Robes, domestic and English; green and blue, $5 to $36—and something about each to make it worth the price marked on it.

Horse Blankets, too. Some fine ones of California wool, fawn color, 90x96 inches, $6. Others for less—and more.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
