LOWNDES and the prospect of the Republican ticket winning this fall is uppermost in the minds of thinkers and conservatives. Lowndes and Clabaugh made many votes for themselves by their visit to Talbot.

THE Turner brigade are on the increase. They call themselves the "Colored Annex of the Hurst Club." About twice a week they meet at a certain room on Dover Street and there hold high carnival. Their price is not yet given to the public, but it is rumored that there will be a strike and the whole gang will "flop" if money does not flow as fast as that other essential to democratic success —the juice of the maize.

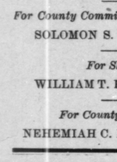

THE vigilance committee will not find much opportunity to sleep, judging from irregularities of the election law that are coming to light. A fair and honest ballot is all the Republicans want and that they insist on and will continue to insist on until it comes. If the other parties outside of the democrats could see the importance of this, and be willing to take one step at a time and to secure this great end, then there would be removed the greatest obstacle against the success of Republican form of government. Once having that in its purity, temperance and populism would have a better show than they have now.

Blood Poisoned

A Running Sore on the Ankle

Yields to the Blood-Purifying Powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I want to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I am an old sea trader, some years since retired, 73 years of age. A little sore broke out on my ankle, and after some effort to cure it, grew considerably worse. Home doctors failed and different medicines and ointments did not give me any help. I endured untold suffering for four years, when I was persuaded by my friends to go to the hospital for treatment. I did so, but the surgeon in charge said they could do nothing for my case. The breaking out spread over my limb, ulcerating the flesh almost to the bone.

Mr. John Hurley, Fairmount, Md.

I Was Almost Past Walking and I could scarcely sleep on account of the severe pain. It was during the fifth year of my suffering that I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. I took two bottles and could see improvement. I continued with the medicine, and shortly the sores entirely healed, and

I am Now Perfectly Well.

I owe all to Hood's Sarsaparilla, the wonderful blood purifying medicine. If it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla I do not think I would now be alive. Today I am a well and hearty man for one of my age, and shall always speak highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla." JOHN HURLEY, Fairmount, Maryland. Remember, Hood's Cures.

Hood's Pills are tasteless, mild, effective. All druggists. 25c.

THE most honest and intelligent can be misled or deceived sometimes, but when a great emergency arises or question of paramount importance arises the American people can generally be relied upon to do the right thing at the right time. Political tricksters emboldened and encouraged by their success in deceiving the people when there are no important questions to pass upon, conceive an exaggerated idea of their own wisdom and underate the intelligence of the masses, and like Boss Tweed said "d-m the people" and imagine that they can fool and cheat them to the end of the chapter. Gorman, Raisin, Hurst and Co , followed by the little county politicians, thought they could induce the people to continue to support them by crying "mixed schools," "negro domination," "negro policemen," &c. but they have found that the negro bug-a-boo has lost its effect and that the people cannot be frightened by such senseless bosh. And now in their extremity, seeing inevitable disaster staring them in the face, recognizing that the honesty and intelligence of the State has risen in revolt against boss rule in Maryland, they are as a last resort, appealing to the oystermen of the State to come to their rescue, insulting this class of our people by assuming that they can be misled by false statements and lying dodgers—that they are less intelligent than their fellow citizens and that they can be deceived into supporting a little gang of corrupt politicians who have for over twenty years run the State for their own private interests. But we think they will find themselves mistaken.

In an article which has appeared in the Reflector, the Ledger and other papers the statement appears that Louis E. McComas said "his party on both sides of the Chesapeake bay is pledged to have laws that will protect the planting of oysters in the water the same as the planting of grain on land. How? By selling or leasing the oyster beds to private individuals, corporations and syndicates." Now Mr. McComas said nothing of the kind and if he had every oysterman knows that it is false. The Republican party has time and again pledged itself against this very thing, and the Cambridge convention adopted a platform repeating the same pledge and Mr. Lowndes in his letter of acceptance gave the assurance that he was apposed to the leasing or selling of the oyster grounds while the Democratic platform and the Democratic candidate for Governor are both silent on this question.

At the convention of '91 at the Academy of Music referred to in the same article, these were present and advocating the leasing of the oyster grounds five democrats to every Republican, yet in the article above referred to Mr. Hodson and Mr. McComas—the first neither a candidate nor holding any official position and latter no longer a resident of the State—are alone mentioned as favoring this policy. We do not claim that there is not a Republican in the State who favors leasing, and we know there are many democrats that do, but we do assert, and every intelligent man, be he oysterman or not, knows that the Republican party of the State is pledged against leasing the oyster grounds, and that the democratic party is not so pledged, and we will not reflect on the intelligence of a large and respectable class of our citizens by assuming that they do not know this as well as we do.

REPUBLICANS have more to hope for this year than formerly, because public sentiment is clearly aroused on this subject of clean and honest elections. Should any glaring frauds be attempted a most earnest and indignant protest will go up from a class that cannot be overlooked or treated with contempt. Heretofore this class has kept silent, partly because of deep disgust and partly because they did not wish to mingle in the politics of the day, even to the extent of publicly protesting against outrages on the ballot. But the great wave in favor of good government and good citizenship has reached Maryland and is sweeping over the State. Governor Brown felt its force when he hesitated so long in appointing new supervisors of elections for Baltimore city, and he was compelled even against his will, to name Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte as the Republican member of the board by the great public demand that came from the best classes of Democrats as well as Republicans. There are thousands of Democrats who wish their ticket to win, but want it to win by fair means and will countenance no other. This class has heretofore kept hands off and allowed the Rasin gang of heelers to run things in the city. But now they have awakened to the fact that the corrupt gang must be kept down or the party is gone for all time. These people are demanding a fair election this year, even at the risk of defeat for their party. So the Republicans have a great cause for hope, and if they keep their eyes open and work, victory will perch on the banners of Lowndes, Clabaugh and Graham.

THE Democrats have placed over 8,000 fradulent names on the registration books this year, and they expect their repeaters will vote on most of these. In fact, some of their leaders openly acknowledge that in this way they expect to counterbalance the disaffection in the ranks. From some houses in the neighborhood of Marsh Market Space, in Baltimore, as many as seventy men are registered from a single house, and the majority of these were never known there. Chief Hofstetter, of Baltimore county, resigned last week because public opinion blamed him for allowing the fraud and violence at the registration offices in his territory, when he and his police were under secret orders from the democratic county commissioners to keep hands off, and not interfere with the plans of unscrupulous polititions. All these things are simply straws, showing that the democrats are desperate, and determined to resort to any kind of fraudulent practices this year in order to win.

HON. CHAS. H. GIBSON is booked to speak in Trappe this afternoon.—He is arranging one of his masterpieces. Mr. Gibion needs no especial preparation when he wants to make a "hit," all he wants is the enthusiasm of the audience and once having that his tongue becomes loose and silver words and molten shot are on tap.

WE give editorial space to the following address which should be carefully perused by every race-prejudiced voter. The democratic cry of negro supremacy is always used in their extremity—and a weaker argument would be hard to find. Here is what the colored people say in refutation of the campaign cry of the Democratic ring "Negro Domination" this address speaks for itself.

Headquarters Colored Republican Association of Baltimore, 305 Courtland street.

To the People of Maryland; Greeting:

As an answer to the issue of Good Government enunciated by the Cambridge Convention and interpreted by the platform there adopted to embrace: the passage of a more equitable assessment law, limitation upon the debt incurring capacities of cities and counties, fair expression of the public will at the polls, non-partisan management of the schools and better school facilities and the merit system as applied to the appointment to office, the ring democracy, in its desperation to succeed itself, abandoning the principles and suppressing the policies of the democratic party says, that if this Good Government movement succeeds, the negroes will dominate.

The Colored Republican Association of Baltimore city deeming it of far greater importance that the cordial and friendly relations hitherto existing between the races, in this state, be continued and fostered than the election of any candidate or the elevation of any party, issues this address to the People of Maryland.

The colored people of Maryland are not all republicans. While a large and respectable element of colored persons have generally affliated with the republican party; believe in its doctrines and are proud of its traditions and record yet; there is a large percentage of colored voters who regularly vote and support the democratic party. As a rule this element is made up of the "walking and sitting boaks," the black repeaters, keepers of gambling dens and the proprietors of the vilest and lowest resorts. They receive in consideration of their support, the protection of the authorities and are as potential in their localities as the authorities themselves. They constitute the lowest stratum of our society and ply without interference the nefarious business that has and is doing so much to corrupt and impoverish the race.

We believe that while the mission of the republican party is to lift all men to that elevation, where they can better apprehend, appreciate and perform the duties of American Citizenship; yet that as an organization it does not exist for the purpose of placing any particular class or race of men in official position.

The forty-acres and-a-mule heresy has long been exploded. The "fish backs" are political relics; they belong alone to that chaotic period that followed close upon the heels of the war. It is however, openly avowed by the democratic candidate for Governor and accentuated by imported orators and the democratic state press that in the event of the success of the republican ticket the state will be over-run with negro-policemen and firemen, and that mixed schools will be instituted and that intermarriage between the whites and blacks will be legalized, in short that the negroes will dominate the whites. This is asserted when the fact is open and notorious that the democracy is employing every means proper or corrupt, when they are swarming the state with their black emissaries and missionaries and when a large corroption fund is available to obtain the colored vote. It must be obvious to all fair minded men that in this appealing to the prejudice of race, that in thus kindling anew passions which have long ago been extinguished, in presenting issues which belong to another and different generation and which we all hoped were buried forever, a great and grievous wrong is not only perpetrated upon us but upon the whole community. The man who would seek to array the races against each other, may be a partisan but certainly is not a patriot. The colored people of Maryland have never clamored or asked for mixed schools, on the contrary when the question was raised one year ago, at the Convention of Educators of colored youth which assembled in Baltimore, the concrete judgment of the educators of that body, as overwhelmingly expressed in a resolution, was in favor of separate schools for the races.

One year a o the republicans organized the first branch of our City Council, there were a number of appointments incident thereto but there were no colored applicants and no colored persons were appointed.

Respecting the argument against the introduction of colored policemen, it is strange to see such horror and fright manifested by the democratic orators and press, when a democratic mayor of his own unrestrained will introduced them for the first time in the City of Philadelphia, and when, as far back as ten years ago, Senator Gorman had Wm. H. Murrell, a colored man, appointed to the police force in Washington as a reward for services rendered in this state.

Is it not plainly apparent that this special plea of "nigger" is designed for the especial purpose of evading the issues and striking at such men as James A. Gary, William Keyser and a host of honorable men who have enlisted in this movement for the especial purpose of giving all citizens a better, cheaper and purer government?

We are in full accord with the Cambridge Convention on the merits system. We believe that the whole official service as far as pr ctic able ought to be governed by this system. We prefer to do whatever aspiring we may have through a non-partisan board upon an honest competitive basis. It is to be hoped that the great Anglo-Saxon race, "The conquering and unconquerable," with its centuries of civilization and with its enduring monuments of undoubted progress having nothing to fear in such contests, can now at least afford to be fair, if not generous, to a race who are but a quarter of a century removed from the shambles and who but yesterday turned the pages of a book.

Knowing that all popular governments rest upon the will of the people, we feel and believe that it is the paramount duty of citizenship to afford ample and honest opportunity for the expression of the people's sovereign will, and that when expressed it should be registered as intended. It is our deliberate judgment that no greater crime can be committed against a state than to tamper with, hinder or delay a citizen from voting or to count his vote other than as cast.

Rising above all mercenary motives, with which we have so often been unjustly charged, without asking or expecting favo , preferment or power, and placing our motive upon the high ground of duty and loyalty to our state, we stand with all, whether republicans or democrats, for good government as against incompetency in high office, against an inequitable assessment as against wasteful expenditure and criminal extravagance in the disbursement of the people's funds, against the centralization of power in the hand of any man or set of men, against dishonest and fraudulent election methods, against the bartering away of the people's rights, against the system of spoils that has made our state a stench in the nostrils of all honorable men and a byword in the land.

We entertain the fullest confidence in the candidates named on the republican ticket, both state and municipal, and believe that the promises of better government made by them will be fully performed if the people should entrust to them the control of the government.

Let no man deceive you as to our motives. We intend to live in this community in the future, as in the past, not by obtruding our ignorance or our vices upon the white race nor on the other hand submitting always to their usurpations, but in the pursuit of all progress and those virtues wherein they and we alike will find peace, prosperity and glory.

THE COLORED REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION OF BALTIMORE.

Executive Committee at Large—I. W. Adams, Jr., Chairman; W. E. Tighman, Vice Chairman; Jos. S. Galamason, Geo. M. Matthews, Secretaries; Rev. J. C. Allen, Treasurer.

Malachi Gibson, W. T. McGuinn, Connor L. Willis, Nathaniel Gibson, Sr., Rev. Geo. W. Brodie, Alex. Williams, John R. Granger, Rev. Wm. M. Alexander, J. H. Hill, Sr., H. Sharp, E. B. Reid, Samuel Young.

MR. GORMAN said very significantly in his speech to the Baltimore 17th Ward democrats on Monday night: "We have got control, and we intend to keep it." That, however, rests with the people, no matter how Mr. Gorman may be disposed to leave the people out of his calculations. Some prophets early in the campaign asserted that the Republican cause would take a great tumble in October. Well October has about gone, and, unless all signs fail, Mr. Lowndes is stronger than ever. He is making friends daily, and there is not the slightest indication anywhere that the great nmmber of Democrats who have made up their minds to vote for him are changing. The great silent vote is still silent, but it is still determined to wipe Democratic bossism in Maryland off the face of the earth.

THE Gorman ring has succeeded in raising a corruption fund far beyond its expectations in amount, and its members are now boasting of their ability to buy enough voters to carry Maryland next month. According to a published report, one Baltimore democrat openly said: "We have now money enough to buy up the whole republican party in Maryland and we are going to win." The republican leaders of the State are wide awake. They know the Gorman ring has plenty of money, and that prominent colored republicans have been corruptly approached, and they are determined either to stop the bribery or to send some of the bribed and briber to prison, if it can be done, and they are satisfied that it can.

NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.
EASTON, Oct. 22, 1895.

For the information of those who do not understand, it is necessary to state that under the head of Public Roads in the annual Statement just published the cost of shoveling snow in each supervisor's account is named and placed opposite the supervisor's name, and the total amount disbursed to each supervisor for work on the road embraces also the cost of shoveling snow on his road. The object of the Statement is to show the public how much of each supervisors account is for shoveling snow. WM. REDDIN, Clerk.

THE time is now nearly here when the issues will be joined and the battle of ballots fought. The Republicans will go into the fight this year with that serene confidence born of a consciousness of strength and right, while their opponents were never so demoralized or disheartened upon the verge of conflict. The campaign now about to close has been a succession of triumphs for the Republican leaders. They have outgeneraled the foe at every point. There have been three pitched battles, so far, between the parties, not to speak of numerous minor skirmishes, and in all these the Republicans have won signal victories. Surely, this should be an augury of success on November 5th.

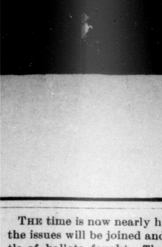

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, October 21, 1895.

Autumn attractions—The beauty of the ripened year gathers in field and forest. Who does not enjoy the picture under the stimulus of these bright October days? And Nature sets most of the copies for textile workers. The warm tints of the Autumn are reflected on every side.

The wealth of the textile world is most easily studied here. We did not stop with the equaling of past seasons. That was but the starting point. Under such impetus stocks grew a million of dollars beyond last year's limit, and the zenith of readiness is now reached. Who does not know the fashion world at its best lives too far from Wanamaker's.

WINTER COTTON STUFFS

King Cotton has no notion of relinquishing his sway because the Summer has flown. Here are a handful of Winter triumphs—

Woolenette—The colors, weave and finish would make you guess it wool. Just cotton—contrived by Yankee wit. Six styles; 30 in., 12½c. A pretty dress stuff.

Cotton Plaids—Pretty grounds overplaided with bright streaks that make them very effective. They bid fair to grow scarce unless the mill can run faster. 28 in., 12½c.

Flannelettes—You would know they were new, for none so pretty have been shown before. Just arrived, but the supply was arranged for before the cotton market had so materially advanced. 24 styles; 30,000 yards, 5c.

WOMEN'S COATS

It is the difference between fetching and copying that distinguishes the Coats we sell. There isn't a bright Paris or London or Berlin idea but is shown here—unless it was born here after the latest-arrived steamers left the other side.

And each season finds us a more potent factor in the foreign markets—making the values we bring you more surprising.

This season's Coats at $15 and $20 are equal to our best past offerings at $25 and $30. Have foreign-made garments grown more interesting anywhere else?

Not many other stocks to judge by, to be sure—you are mostly regaled with feeble copies.

WOMEN'S SHOES

There is much good sense in making Women's Shoes with congress webbing in the sides so that they may be pulled on or off with no worry about buttons or laces, but because it seems strange to see a woman's shoe without the accustomed styles of fastening these are finished with buttons in the usual position.

The Congress Shoes are one of fifteen sorts of Women's Shoes for Fall and Winter wear that we sell at $2.20, despite the fact that they could not be made today to sell profitably under $3.50. Some of the other sorts are—

Button Shoes, common sense.
Button Shoes, square toes.
Button Shoes, patent leather tips, medium, narrow and razor toe; kid or cloth top.
Lace Shoes, narrow toe; patent leather tips.
