Second codicil to the last will and testament of George Presstman:

I hereby revoke the appointment of Cumberland Dugan as one of the executors of my aforegoing last will and codicil, and appoint my wife, Mary Ann Presstman, in his place and stead, hereby ratifying and confirming said last will and codicil thereto, except so far as to said appointment of Cumberland Dugan as one of the executors thereof.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name and affix my seal, this fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

George Presstman, [Seal]

Signed, sealed and published, and declared by George Presstman, the above named testator, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in the presence of us; who, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses. –

Philip I. Tilyard.,
Alex. Yearly, Jr.,
Sam. E. Houlton.

Baltimore County, Ss:

On this 6th day of October, 1880, came Alex. Yearly, Jr., and Samuel E. Houlton, subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing 2nd codicil to the last will and testament of George Presstman, late of said county, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see the testator sign and seal this codicil; that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be a 2nd codicil to his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing he was, to the best of their apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that they, together with Philip I. Tilyard, subscribed their names as witnesses to this codicil, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each othea.
