THE Ledger says, speaking of the leasing of the oyster beds, "We know scores of prominent Lowndes men in Talbot county who are in favor of this," and then refers to "the declaration of a distinguished Lowndes man of Talbot county that—he knew—and his party—he believed—were favorable to—and when they got power would do it—a scheme for leasing the oyster grounds, etc." It is a poor compliment to the intelligence of the people and particularly the oystermen to imagine that they can be misled or deceived by such bosh. "Scores of prominent Lowndes men," "a distinguished Lowndes man" and other such favorite expressions of the ring press remind us very much of that well-known personage, the village gossip or slanderer who goes about telling what "a certain person" said, or what "they say" or "it is reported," etc. Why not be manly and brave and tell the public the names of some of these "scores of prominent Lowndes men" or who the "distinguished Lowndes man" is. The fact is there is not a "prominent" nor "distinguished" or any other kind of a republican in Talbot county that we or the Ledger has ever heard of who favor the leasing of the oyster beds.

It is a well-known fact that the Cambridge Republican Convention took decided ground on this question and Mr. Lowndes in his letter of acceptance specially referred to his endorsement of this plank of the platform, while the Democratic platform and candidate were silent on the question. It was either a matter of such little importance that they forgot it entirely or they were afraid to refer to it for fear of losing votes. To this they answer that the position of the democrats is so well known that a convention declaration is unnecessary. If their convention declarations on the oyster question are worth no more than their convention declarations on the reassessment question, then indeed are they unnecessary.

Oystermen and others have been frequently deceived in the past by misleading newspaper articles, deceptive speeches and artful dodgers but the time has passed when the people can be fooled or scared into supporting those who have squandered the public revenues, disregarded the public will, outraged the public conscience, defiled the ballot box and debauched the voter.

FOLLOWING is the oath required by law to be taken by the ballot clerks;

I will not attempt to ascertain save in cases and in the manner in which I am authorized by law to do, for what candidate or candidates any person shall vote or has voted, or any question which may be, or may have been, submitted to the vote of people and if such knowledge shall be acquired by me in the performance of my duty, I will not directly or indirectly by word or act, divulge or reveal the same, or aid in doing so, save when I may be required to do so, by law in some legal proceedings and I will in all things faithfully execute the duties of my office of ballot clerk according to the best of my knowledge, without favor or partiality, so help me God.

THE time has at last come when voters must decide whether their influence and votes shall be cast on the side of partizanship or patriotism; for an infamous ring or against it; in favor of repeaters, padded registration lists and dishonest election methods or in favor of an honest vote and a fair count; whether legislation is to be bought and sold or whether the welfare of the whole people is to be considered; in a word whether Gorman, Raisin & Co. are to continue to control our State in their own private interest or whether the people shall manage its affairs according to their conception of honesty and justice. It is no use to try dodge responsibility in the matter. The issue is clearly drawn and cannot be avoided. Good citizens, regardless of party affiliation, must array themselves on one side or the other. In the past good men have on one pretext or another, voted to sustain the bosses. They have striven to satisfy their conscience by convincing themselves that all the things charged were not true and that in voting to uphold Gormanism they were voting to uphold democracy. But now the veil has been rent asunder, and these plotters against the rights and liberties of the people are exposed in all their naked deformity. Every one now knows that they have stolen the livery of democracy to serve the devil of their own selfishness.

But on next Tuesday these selfish, unscrupulous and corrupt managers and their tools will be overwhelmed by the storm of indignation which their nefarious deeds have excited and the wrath of an outraged people will strike terror to the hearts of these corruptors of the people. The pulpit and the press, professional men and mechanics, republicans, democrats, prohibitionists and populists, all honest, intelligent and patriotic citizens, laying aside personal preferences and political differences and remembering only that they are American citizens, are determined to administer such a rebuke to those who have made Maryland a by-word and a reproach among her sister States, as shall long be remembered by all such as strive to rise to affluence and power by the methods which have so long prevailed in our fair Common wealth.

We feel that Talbot will contribute her share towards the glorious victory which is already acheived. But let it not be a close fight here. Let the majority be large enough to wipe out the remembrance of our past disgrace. Let it be clearly shown that bribery of voters, false registration, and recounts are things of the past here and that henceforth the good citizens of the county whether democrats or republicans, prohibitionists or populists, shall occupy the posts of honor and responsibility.

VOTERS, citizens, man, come to the rescue! We need you, your State needs your assistance. Baltimore is $35,000,000 in debt, the counties are bonded, our children are heavily taxed for the meagre equipments for learning and thousands are prevented from attending the "free" schools on that account, and who is responsible? You, in a great measure, voter, is as much responsible as any one.

Come out on the side of honest government carefully administered, even if you have never voted the Republican ticket before it will not hurt this time, if for no other reason than that "a new broom sweeps clean."

All the churches are with us for reforming all Associations, (except Gorman-Raisin clubs.) All newspapers except those for boodle only and lastly but not least the ladies of the grand old commonwealth of Maryland side with reform and a new regime.

Now who are with the ring? Count in the bums of the slums, such as at Marsh Market Space, Sandy Bottom, and the Meadows, Baltimore, as well as "dark" coops throughout the State. Raisin is controlling the city and Gorman the State, to prevent further examination of the official records where great misdemeanors are suspicioned. How long will you be lashed into line? Form a new combination this fall and destroy that one now existing, or it will destroy you.

THE republicans are diligently circulating, in those quarters where money is used, the story that the democrats are without funds.—Ledger

On the contrary, brother, the Republicans believe the Democrats have abundant funds and that they intend to use same, as in the past, to purchase the venal voters, white and colored. This and frauds in the polling room are the only hopes of the ringsters this time. Take your own figures. Every well informed man of all parties admit a normal republican majority of from 150 to 200. You concede 100 or 150 democrats who will vote the republican ticket. This counts 200 or 300 more majority. Add this to the 150 or 200 and we have 350 or 500 majority. How can this be overcome? The Republicans are united as never before. The Prohibitionists, realizing this to be a fight for good government and honest methods, will many of them vote the Republican ticket. How can all this be overcome? Simply by fraud and corruption, and good citizens, irrespective of party, are determined to reduce these to a minimum, this year.

THE citizens of Baltimore are aroused as they never were before, and are determined that this shall be a fair election. It has been found out that at least 8,000 fraudulent names have been placed on the registration books. It is now too late to have these taken off, and the best that can be done is to watch closely, and prevent, as far as possible, repeaters from voting on these names. For this work hundreds of prominent Democrats as well as Republicans, have offered their services at the polls as watchers. Another shrewd trick was unearthed this week. At the last registration at least 2,000 colored voters were taken off the pollbooks in Baltimore. This was by getting a lot of hired colored men together, furnishing them with the names of colored voters all over town, then having them go to the registration offices, impersonate the bonafide voter and ask for a transfer to some other ward. This transfer would, of course, be given, and the real voter stricken from the books. In order to prove that there has been a heavy fraudulent resistration this year, the Reform League sent out 1,100 registered letters to names appearing on the books in certain wards. Of these fifteen were receipted for and the rest returned, as the person to whom sent could not be found.

THE Ledger said last Thursday. "It is reported that one of the populist candidates who has heretofore been a republican, offered to use his influence in behalf of the democratic ticket for $50 but the offer was declined with thanks." Messrs. James Valliant, Wm. A. Pratt and Daniel A. Cook are the only ones who have been Republicans. They have always stood in the community where they live as honorable men to charge one of those gentlemen with a willingness to sell himself and his party is an outrage which they will no doubt resent. They owe it to themselves, their party and the community generally to rebuke such indiscriminate slander.

RESCUE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY FROM THE WRECKERS.

THE great issue of this campaign is not, as the Gormanites pretend, whether the democratic party shall hold or lose control of the State. The democratic party is not now in possession of the State. It is not even in possession of itself, and to speak of any party as controlling the State when it does not so much as control itself is the height of absurdity.

Names and things must be kept separate and distinct in this matter. The Gorman-Rasin combination is not made any different in its real character nor any better in its purpose or its methods, by calling it the democratic party. It remains at last what it was at first, and what it has been all the way through, a conspiracy of two men, manipulating other men of sympathetic character and aims to usurp the authority of the democratic party, appropriate its organization and use its name, its principles and the rank and file of its voters, each and all, as the instruments and tools of their selfish personal ambitions and interests. That is not democracy. Placarding the democratic name over primaries packed with mercenaries and spoilsmen to promote this conspiracy does not make it a democratic performance. Labeling the convention chosen by primaries thus manipulated "regular democratic" in no way changed its essential character as a convention of political automatons, who were brought together not for a purpose of deliberating first and choosing a candidate afterward, but to first make a dictated nomination and then go home to deliberate about it. Calling a t cket produced by this mechanical process the "regular democratic State ticket" does not alter the fact that no such ticket was ever considered or discussed by the democratic masses whom this mechanical convention purported to represent, nor the further fact that if such a ticket had been submitted to free consideration and discussion by the democratic voters of Maryland it never could have been nominated.

THIS, then, is the vital issue to be voted upon at the coming election—shall the democratic party of Maryland continue to be owned by a pair of bosses, or shall it henceforth own itself? As matters stand today the party has no more to do with the government of its own organization, or the naming of its own candidate to any elective office, or the choosing of any of its members to fill any appointive office in this State or city, than it has with the ordering of whatever political procedures may be going on in the mountains of the moon. There are, indeed, no elective offices left in Maryland or Baltimore under the existing regime. All our State and city offices have become appointive offices, with Gorman and Rasin holding the appointing power. Mr. Hurst was not nominated in any real sense of the term; he was appointed by Gorman, Rasin concurring, to run for Governor. The rest of the Hurst ticket was appointed in the same way. Nominations have become works of fiction in what styles itself the democratic party of Maryland, conventions empty formalities and primaries the mere shadows of substances that are gone.

TO SPEAK, therefore, of the democratic party as the ruling party of this State today is to speak of what should be, but is not. The democratic party is not the ruling, but the ruled party of this State, and Gorman and Rasin are its rulers. They have ruled it for years past and they are ruling it today with a rod of iron. Their will is supreme in its councils, and their word is law to all the officials high and low who wear the collar of their joint dictatorship. They have driven thousands of honest, independent, reputable democratic voters of the State and city completely out of the organized lines of the party. They have not only reserved the stage boxes for themselves and divided the seats on the floor of the democratic auditorium among their mercenary crowd of followers, but they have not left even standing room for decent democratic citizens. These latter are, to all intents and purposes, stripped of their primary rights within the party—the right to be heard in its councils, represented in its conventions and consulted as to its nominations. They are virtually disfranchised as democrats and their names stricken from the roll-call of their party so far as the Gorman-Rasin combination can do it.

WHAT calls itself the regular democratic party of this State is nothing else than a private polical enterprise, which ought te do business under the firm name of Gorman, Rasin & Co., (unlimited) with branch offices at Annapolis, Laurel and Washington (during the sessions of Congress) and permanent headquarters in Baltimore. Instead of doing business under that honest designation it is conducting a large and miscellaneous business of political piracy, jobbery and spoils—grabbing under the stolen name of the regular democratic party, to which it has no relation whatever except that which the thief has to the goods he has stolen or the forger to the person whose signature he has counterfeited. That is why at the coming election the chief issue the decent democrats of this State and city have to deal with is whether they will take their party now and forever out of the hands of the wreckers. They know that the combination back of the Hurst ticket has purloined the good name, burglarized the organization and confiscated the working machinery of the democratic party, and in prostituting them all to the selfish service of two brazen bosses of as heartless a type as any who have ever gained the mastery of an American State or city, and challenged the reputable manhood of the community to clean them out.

THE time is surely ripe for a reckoning with the Gorman-Rasin combination and its hungry horde of servile camp-followers, who trail along in the wake of every boss's army, eager for spoils and ready to perform any sort of dishonest ruffianly electioneering service that may be asked of them in return. In spite of fraudulent registration lists crowded with bogus names and the swarm of repeaters and thugs who are waiting the Gormanites' signal for business on election day, we hope and believe that the honest, upright, stalwart democrats of Maryland and Baltimore are going to the polls in sufficient numbers to wrench their State and their party from the ignoble, iniquitous and deeply degrading domination of the Gorman-Rasin oligarchy.—Balto. Sun.

THE Ledger says that Major Stewart in one of his campaign speeches says that it is strange that a man like Lloyd Lowndes should send letters to Democrats all over the State begging for their support and thanking them in advance. Is it not strange that Major Stewart, with his record on the whiskey question, should ask Prohibitionists for their support? Is it not strange that Major Stewart should beg colored men to vote for him after threatening to send a thousand niggers to the House of Correction sooner than be defeated?

ONE of the United States Senators in addressing the Hurst Club of Easton last Tuesday night said what Mr. Gibson, also a United States Senator, has often said before, that the worst Democrat is better than the best Republican. That is, Buck Wrightson, Will Swales, John Gray, et id omne genus, better than Robert B. Dixon, Edward A. Powell, George M. Jenkins, B. F. Padlett!!! Every man to his taste.

LET all good citizens irrespective of party be at the polls on Tuesday next early and stay late and see the class of people who run elections in Talbot county in the interest of Gorman and Rasin and themselves. It will be the "same old gang" of office holders, law breakers and their pals who have grown fat and sleek on the spoils of office. Come out and lend your presence and influence to the side of good government, honest methods, fair elections and pure politics.

OYSTERMEN ATTENTION.

To arms! Free men of Maryland, to arms! my fellow oystermen, crabbers and fishermen, watch that smoke house door of your fellow workers!

I have just learned that in the excitement on the re-assessment cry this fall, that there has been placed on the Democratic ticket men who will favor the LEASING OUT OF THE OYSTER BEDS OF THIS STATE. You know they tried that several years ago, but you were up to them; but this fall, they think you are lulled asleep with other matters, and there men have been slyly put on the ticket. Don't you know the thief always enters when the good man of the house is asleep, or he thinks so? Do you want them to take away your Smoke House? I hear you say in a voice long and loud, No! Then you will have to watch, how you vote. Vote any ticket except the Democratic ticket. Don't keep them or you will give away the key to the smoke house. You know these industries are immense, and a means to give to our wives and children, bread and meat and clothes. This is our goose that lays the golden egg, and we do not desire to loan it. Our wives and children are as dear to us, as other people's who do not work. Now, do not be fooled. Say No, and mean it, for if you once let this great business leave your hands you will never get it back again. Don't give away the key. Go to the polls on the 5th of November and vote against that ticket. This is my appeal to you. Remember your wives and children. Yours,

GEORGE EUSTACE, Oystermen,
702 Hanover St., Baltimore, Md.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS.

If the voter intends to vote the straight ticket of his party, it is simple enough. He stamps one mark at the top of the ticket in the square to the right of the party emblem, or in the smaller square to the right of the party name. That is all that is required, and any other mark will tend to defeat his intention. But if the intention is to vote a "split ticket"—that is, to vote for some candidates on one ticket and some on the other—he should carefully understand how to do it before going to vote. A split ticket can be voted in two ways: First, by placing the stamp after the name of each candidate the voter wishes to vote for; second, by putting the mark after the party name or emblem of one ticket and also after the names of the particular candidate he wishes to vote for on the other tickets. Thus, if the voter wishes to vote the democratic ticket except for Governor, for instance, he puts his mark in the square after the Jackson and Liberty picture and another mark after the name of Lloyd Lowndes on the Republican ticket. This will be a vote for the entire democratic ticket except Hurst. Or if he wishes to vote the entire Republican ticket except for Governor, he puts the mark to the right of Lincoln's head and another mark after the name of Hurst on the democratic ticket.

But if he wishes to vote, for instance, the full democratic ticket with the exception of one or two Republicans for the Orphans' Court or the House of Delegates, he must put the mark in the square after the democratic emblem and after the names of the Republicans he desires to vote for, and then he must erase from the democratic ticket with a lead pencil as many of the names of the democratic candidates for those offices as he marks on the Republican ticket. The reason is that he cannot vote for more than three judges of the Orphans' Court and three delegates, and he must erase the names, so that in counting the ticket the election officers will know which he does not want to vote for as well as those for whom he wants to vote.

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, October 28, 1895.

They are dear dollars that go into a storekeeper's till at the cost of the shopper's satisfaction. We do not want them. That is why we have for years and years asked our public to take their dollars back when they want to. That was one of the first singular things this store did. It has been a singular store always. Singularly best. Who misses frequent rambles through Wanamaker's has not kept in the most perfect touch with the world of goods.

DRESS STUFFS

Think of the greatest bargain you ever got in Dress goods and then try to realize that better bargains are offered you at Wanamaker's today. Well-steered manufacturing concerns strike shoal water once in a while—and we are bound to get the first offer, if the lots are large.

46 inch Fancy Suitings at 31c—all-wool and good wool at that; pretty styles. The stores that ask 50c are doing the best they can.

36 inch Boucle at 37½c—a new comer. Had we bought it a week ago you would have had to pay us 50c.

36 inch all-wool Serge at 25c—French made, but that didn't save the importer. Eleven colorings.

40 inch Fancy Suitings at 37½c—thirty styles of them. Many pretty patterns for waists among them, and four yards of this wide goods is enough!

Dress Checks—
black and white blue and white
brown and white and they grow in popular favor daily. They are the acme of neatness. Their scarcity is noticeable in stores that were not forehanded. 37½c, 50c, 75c.

Twilled Cheviot, 54 inches wide, at 37½c! Think of it! Such goods was never dreamed of at less than 75c. They are all wool and have the coveted roughness of surface. Fifteen mixtures in grays, browns and blues are shown. A liberal dress-length for $2.25.

WOMEN'S COATS

Think of $5, $6 or $8 being enough to buy stylish comfortable Coats made from stuffs altogether reliable; made in shapes altogether new! Four hints of them—

At $5—Coats of Black Melton; wide sleeves, ripple back; all bound with mohair braid; half lined with satin rhadame.
At $6—Double-breasted Reefers of Twilled Cheviot; 36 in. long, inlaid velvet collar; front and ripple-back; lined with satin rhadame
At $7.50—Walking Coats of Boucle Cheviot; tailor finish; large sleeves; seams double stitched and bound.
At $8—Box Reefers of rough-faced Diagonal Cheviot; large lapels, extra full sleeves; ripple back; coat half lined with satin rhadame.

SEWING MACHINES

Every sewing machine buyer who forgets that Wanamaker's Quaker City Sewing Machine is the peer of any $60 machine sold—every forgetter loses whatever amount over $35 is paid.

Is the statement clear?

The handsomest Quaker City Sewing Machine, with drop-head cabinet—an elegant bit of sewing-room furniture, we sell at $35.
Same working parts, in less elaborate case, $18.
Same working parts, in case with four drawers, $30.

There is no basic patent to hinder any one from making a good Sewing Machine. It is simply a question of knowing how to assemble the best features, make handsome, durable, honest cases, and sell without wasteful methods.
