You Wear a Hat!

Of course you do. Do you wear one that becomes you—feels comfortable on your head and costs you a mere song? No! Well surely you have not bought one out of the new lot we have just opened, for if you had done so you would declare that we fill all the requirements. Our hats are up to date in style, quality and price, and we can say the same in every particular

About Our Footwear.

We have this advantage in our business which others do not possess—ALL OUR GOODS ARE ENTIRELY NEW, and consequently the styles are of the newest too. Now about our SHOE Department, we have but this to say—favor us with a call and examine them, and we will prove your benefactor.

All Well Dressed Men

Are particular about their Neckwear, they can't be suited with the ordinary run of ties found in country towns. We have recognized this and have received a fine line of beautiful SCARFS, TIES, etc., which were made to order for us. The styles this Fall are very decided both in shape and color and to be appreciated must be seen. Remember that we are headquarters for Men's and Boys' Furnishings.

NOTICE

To Hotel Keepers and all others Dealing in Liquors.

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Acts of the Legislature passed March 24th, 1865, is published:

CHAPTER 191.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment or other place where liquors are sold, or for any person or persons, directly or indirectly, to sell, barter, give or dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors, ale or beer, or intoxicating drink of any kind, on the day of election hereafter to be held in the several counties of this State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where the offense is committed, and shall, upon conviction before any judge of any of the Circuit Courts of this State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, one-half to the informer and the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of the public roads.

WILLIAM J. DAWKINS,
Sheriff of Talbot County.

NOTICE Against Trespassing.

SEC. 36. Any person, resident or non-resident found trespassing with dog or gun on any posted or advertised property in said county, or who, upon personal notice to leave, shall refuse to comply or shall return, shall be liable to be arrested by any constable of said county, upon a warrant sworn out by the owner or occupant of said land, and shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars for each offense and shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine and costs are paid.

Owing to the fact that our partridges were almost exterminated by the deep snow of last winter, we desire to save any birds that may now be left to restock the country, and therefore forbid all persons trespassing with dog or gun on the lands of any of the subscribers during the present shooting season.

Farm on Wye River,

AND

Two Tracks of Woodland

By virtue of the power contained in a mortgage from Edward L. Key and others to Mary B. Van Wyck and Skipwith Wilmer, trustees, dated February 20th, 1885, and recorded among the land records of Talbot county, Maryland, in Liber T. H. No. 18, folio 300, etc., the undersigned will offer, clear of encumberances, at public sale, in front of the Court House door in Easton, in said county, on

TUESDAY,

The 26th Day of November, 1895

at 12 o'clock noon, all the property described in said mortgage, as follows:

"All that tract, part of a tract or parcel of land situated in

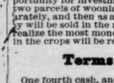

MILES RIVER NECK,

in Talbot county, in the State of Maryland, on Wye river, and joining the lands of Alicia Wilder and others, containing

350 Acres of Arable Land, more or less, and being the easternmost portion of the land called Presquile; also all those two several tracts of woodland described as follows, to wit, 100 Acres laid off on the south side of what is known as White House Neck woods, next to the New Quarter Farm, by a line from the corner of the woods' Place West of the gate at the New Quarter Farm, going into said woods near what is called Turkey Trap, and thence to the road on the West side of the woods going to White House farm; the other 100 Acres of wood land is the same which was laid off from the three hundred acres of woodland which Edward Lloyd, the grandfather of these mortgagors, purchased of J. M. Lloyd's estate in the Park Woods, and on the south side of said Park Woods. The improvements are ample and consist of

TWO TENANT Houses,

Barn, Stable, and Corn House, etc. This property extends for about one mile on the beautiful Wye River, is distant about 9 miles from Easton, 7 miles from a station on the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railroad and is one of the most productive farms in the famous Miles River Neck, offering a rare opportunity for investment. The farm and the two parcels of woodland will be offered separately, and then as a whole, and the property will be sold in the manner in which it will realize the most money. The tenant's share in the crops will be reserved.

Terms of Sale:

One fourth cash, and the balance in equal instalments of 1, 2 and 3 years, or all cash, as the purchaser may elect, the deferred payments to bear interest from day of sale, and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned. These terms may be modified and a portion of the purchase money may remain on mortgage, if deemed advisable. A cash deposit of $100 on each of said tracts of land required on day of sale. For further particulars apply to RANDOLPH BARTON,

Betrayed His Party.

Populist Chairman Sells Out To "Pue" Gorman.

WHAT HE DID IN EASTON.

Advised Populists Not To Vote The Ticket.—Refused To Talk To Men Of His Own Party.

The Populists of Talbot county have been sold out by their State committee chairman and it is reported on the best of authority that it was Pue Gorman's money that bought him.

N. A. Dunning, the chairman, came to Easton last week and remained until Monday night at Hotel Avon. He had been all over the Eastern Shore looking after "his flock." The first thing he did after arriving in Easton was to consult with the Democratic leaders and newspaper men, and to these latter he gave utterance of things to the greatest detriment of the party. He said the men here who call themselves Populists are Socialists. In the whole county, he says, there are but fifteen straight Populists, and the so-called Populist ticket, he says, will not poll a hundred votes here.

In addition to this he issued in the last number of the Star an address to the Populists of Talbot county, advising them not to vote the Peoples party ticket, as it is a Socialist ticket and not a Populist ticket. All this was done without consultation with any of the Populist party here and the first they knew of it was the address issued in the Easton Star.

They had tried to have an interview with him on Monday and they could not see him. One Populist, however, Wm. H. Brown, had a wordy war in Mr. Dunning's room at Hotel Avon Monday morning, which terminated in his ordering Mr. Brown from the room. After a heated argument Mr. Brown accused him of being here in Senator Gorman's interest.

On Monday Mr. Dunning received a visit from the chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for Talbot county and was closeted with him in his room for some time. With the exception of two newspaper reporters, Dunning refused to see anyone but Mr. Bateman.

Monday night, when it was learned what tricks he had been up to, a delegation of the Peoples party went to the Hotel Avon to interview Dunning, and on approaching him in a polite and gentlemanly way and asking for an interview, Dunning asked them if they were a delegation of a tar and feather and egg throwing society, and refused to hold any conversation whatever with them.

In view of the fact that he had talked freely with the democratic newspaper reporters and the leading democrats and issued an address advising the Populist party not to cast their ticket without consulting any of his party, it looks very much like he had sold them to Gorman.

The committe told him in scathing language what they thought of him, to which he said not a word, and shortly after locked himself in his room until morning when he left town. He had intended to leave Easton that night. That the Populists intend to disregard his address goes without saying and have taken active steps to undo the dirty work of Dunning.

Tonight the Peoples party will hold a meeting at Music Hall, at which Rev. Wm. Yvonman, Miss Cleora E. Cook and others will speak, N. A. Dunning, "the traitor" will be exposed.

A GREAT RALLY AT TRAPPE.

The Republican Meeting There Tuesday Night A Most Enthusiastic One.

The Republican meeting at Trappe Tuesday evening was pronounced by unpartisan judges to be one of the best and most enthusiastic meetings ever held there.

The speakers were Clayland Mullikin, Hiram S. Hall, Dr. Barber and Col. Mullikin, and these gentlemen spoke on the issues of the time in such a way that the enthusiasm ran high.

It has been shown, not only in Trappe but throughout the county, that the ladies attend the Republican meetings and that they never fail to hold their audience interested until after 11 o'clock, two claims of which the democratic speakers cannot boast.

The speakers spoke of the existing state of affairs in Talbot county and Maryland and presented the issues fairly, told the truth, and it was the truth that made the enthusiasm run wild. When the mixed school question was mentioned the colored people in the hall cried out as a unit that they did not want mixed schools, and if they don't want it, and if the white people don't want it how are they to have it. The speakers did not have to go to "the grave-yard of dead issues" to find material to speak on, but found more than plenty to talk of affairs in Talbot county and the State.

The Republican Party Says: "Give Maryland a Free School system. Have separate schools for colored children. Have colored teachers for colored children, and white teachers for white children—with Free School Books for all."

The damage suit of Blain vs. the commissioners of Queen Anne's and Kent counties has been compromised at the solicitation of counsel, Maryland, in Liber T. H. No. 18, in consideration of $25, to cover the actual expenses of the plaintiff up to that stage of the prosecution. The case, it will be remembered, had been removed to Cecil county. As heretofore mentioned in The GAZETTE, Mr. Blain is a civil engineer of Easton, and while crossing Chester river in a ferry during repairs to Chester bridge, the boat was overloaded and in returning to shore grounded. Mr. Blain mounted his horse to ride to the shore, but the animal became stuck in the mud and the rider was compelled to dismount in the mud and shallow water, and sued the commissioners for damages.

Literary Society Meeting.

The Literary Society will meet at the Library on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The program is as follows: "Love's Sacrifice," an original story by Mrs. Adams; a recitation by Miss Mary Hardcastle; a declamation by William Goldsborough.

"It is better for the State to help the child up to usefulness than for the State to provide means of restraint for the ignorant and vicious."

Eczema Isn't A Nice Disease.

It is painful, irritating, disgusting—offensive alike to the sufferer and his friends. The little watery, blistery eruptions itch and tingle. Scratching doesn't help. You may scratch to the bone and only make it worse, but it can be cured by using

Foster's German Army and Navy Cure

Eczema shows itself in other ways, but when little blisters, or scaly, watery patches appear, this ointment should be used at once. It cures quickly and permanently. It cures other skin diseases, too—tetter, ring worm, itch, salt rheum, dandruff, pimples, blotches and scald head. Numerous cases of itching piles, which are caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the rectum, have been permanently cured by this potent and soothing emollient.

Looked Like A Cyclone.

Streets Of Easton in Great Disarray Friday.

THE HALLOWE'EN RAID.

Many Of The Citizens Of Easton Awake Friday Morning to Find Gates And Shutters Gone.

Friday morning some of the streets of Easton and a few houses presented the appearance of having been struck by a cyclone.—Gates, shutters, porch steps, choirs and carriage steps were all over the streets, and some choirs were even tied up in the trees.

Now this condition of affairs was a matter of considerable surprise to some. They could not recall to mind any wind storm during the night, and particularly one that could do all this damage.

The fact is, Thursday evening was Hallowe'en and several small regiments of boys had made their plans to "do" the town. They began operations on Railroad Avenue. Some of the pretty fences on that street were devested of their gates, many of which were laid against the front door.

Others had their gates taken several squares below. Several electric door bells began to ring furiously and on the inmates going to the door to see who was there in such a hurry, found no one there. But the bells rang the louder, and continued for a long time, when on examination it was found that a pin had been stuck into the button making them ring.

Several Citizens found in the morning that some one had given them new carriage steps, others found strange chairs on their porches, and in some cases a white gate would be found hung to a brown fence.

A chair was taken from one porch and nailed to a carriage step. Some houses were stripped of their shutters, and in one or two cases were taken off. If they could they would probably have taken the scuttle from the roof.

Several carts and carriages were taken on the other side of town, and it is said a certain man was requested to come on the porch and make a speech. A few chairs were found tied up into the trees, and one citizen found that some one had left him about a dozen door mats.

Altogether the boys had a fine time. They have been practicing these pranks for many years on every Hallowe'en, and it will be well for our people to remember in the future not to be surprised at any unusual sights the morning after, even if they see a house moved into the middle of the street.

SOMEWHAT OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Items of Interest About The Doings Of You And Your Relatives And Friends.

Miss Lelia Wooters is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. Harry Roberts was in New York last week purchasing Christmas goods.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Pippin, of Church Hill, are visiting at the residence of Mr. Sol Pippin.

Mr. Powell Hollyday, a United States Government official, is now with his family near Easton for some weeks.

Rev. J. R. Andrew, of Middletown, Va., a former pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, Easton, was in town for several days this week.

J. R. Treganowan, who met with a painful accident some weeks ago, has now fully recovered and can be found at his store on Dover street as accommodating as ever.

A pleasant Hallowe'en party was given at the residence of Mr. Eli Furness by Miss Carrie Fish. It was a most enjoyable occasion to the large number of young people who attended.

The marriage of Miss May Collier, of Wilmington, N. C., daughter of Samuel P. Collier, General Passenger Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, to Dr. Thomas Atkinson Councell, of Easton, is announced to take place at St. James P. E. Church, Wilmington, Wednesday, Nov. 20. There are no cards.

The populists of Greensborough held a mass-meeting in Mozart Hall Friday night. The meeting was largely attended by representative of all the different parties. Miss Cora Eucenia Cooke, a 17 year-old girl of Easton, was the principal talker of the evening.

DID NOT ALLOW THE BILLS,

Those For Locating And Capturing Marshall E. Price.

The county commissioners of Caroline county on Tuesday considered a bill of Jacob Frey, Marshal of Police of Baltimore, for $500, the reward offered last April for the capture of the murderer of Nellie Dean and a bill presented by W. J. Dukes for $250 for assisting in locating the murderer.

It will be remembered that Marshal Frey's detectives, Sebold and Gault, arrested Price, who was convicted, and on July 26, lynched.

The commissioners did not allow either bill. They stated that it was the express understanding between the Baltimore officers and the commissioners that actual expenses only would be allowed, and the bills for these have been paid.

It will be remembered by readers of the GAZETTE that Sheriff Dukes and his deputies had located Price as the murderer and went to Harmony for the purpose of arresting him, but were persuaded by the detectives not to arrest Price until the next day, and that night they themselves made the arrest, and it was thought Price would fly the county.

It now looks like neither of the bills will be paid unless a suit is entered.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.

Some Reading That Will Prove Interesting To Young Mothers How To Guard Against The Disease.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the case, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarsness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels; J. F. Sisk, Cordova.

"This additional cost, which amounts to more than one dollar for each child in the schools annually, is kept as a burden on the parents of the children by reason of a Democratic Governor having twice vetoed a bill giving the children Free School Books."
LLOYD LOWNDES.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr Holden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels; J. F. Sisk, Cordova.

Dinner And Supper

The ladies of the M. E. Church of Cordova will furnish dinner and supper in Sisk's Hall on election day for the benefit of the church. A liberal patronage by the public will be thankfully appreciated.

Good advice: Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels; J. F. Sisk, Cordova.

Editorial Excursion.

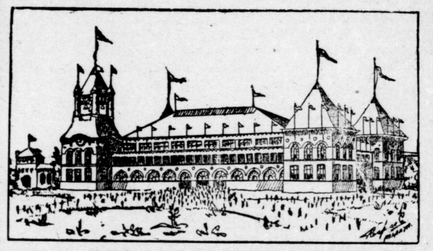

What The Gazette Man Saw At Atlanta Exposition.

DESCRIPTION OF BUILDINGS.

The Wealth Of Exhibits An Education In Itself.-Views and Impressions Gathered, Etc.

LETTER II.

Once in Atlanta ready to see and be entertained, there is not much time to deliberate for one's self. He is simply taken charge of by some of the polite officials or the conductor of a bus or car until he finds himself at the gates of the Exposition enclosure. There he sees those inevitable turn stiles adorned with the signs "ticket gate," "half-fare gate," "pass gate," etc. Not seeing any gate for "Puma" some of the editors turned with hopefulness to the "pass gate" and click, click, turned the stile on its hinges and registered a "dead head" at each click. Editors have large hearts—and when they saw such immense crowds using the "pass gate" and noted the keeper of the ticket gate nodding over a newspaper, they shed some crystals brought with them for the occassion that the managers could see how sorry they were that the receipts were so far short of paying daily expenses. Oh, how rejoiced would we have been to have been allowed the sweet privilege of paying our way and more too—but no, no. Two people were employed to do nothing else but write passes and they attended strictly to business, and got no tips either. And while the editors accepted the generosity reluctantly (being a set of men entirely void of "cheek" or presumption) they each one made an inward vow to either "write up" the fair or steal what some other fellow had previously written. This is the only way to get even with those whole-souled, hospitable southerners.

Some of the editors were thrown among the bankers who were in Atlanta at the same time, having a Convention of the American Bankers Association. Editors and bankers often go together. This time they went on separate trains, stopped at separate hotels, and attended to separate business, but never the less would frequently mix. The bankers were given a rousing and swell banquet one evening, but when noses were counted the Eastern Shore editor and lady was in it. Very few places he does not stick his bill if there is any chance for free lunch. These bankers are great people, the country could not do without them. They teach people how to save their money, and how to spend it judiciously, they make it easier for Uncle Samuel to regulate finance. It was known that a mere academic discussion of the money question at the bankers' convention would do no good whatever. What was desirable was that these distinguished gentlemen who were familiar with the details of banking and with the movements of currency should suggest a reasonable remedy for the existing condition of affairs and no doubt they did. If they did not the editors will soon find it out and tell on them.

Minerals and Forrestry Building.

Money was not invented for the benefit of the banks, but for the convenience of the people. With this fact in plain view all the time it might seem an easy matter for those men of experience to formulate a remedy for the present trend of our currency.

In looking over the official programme of the convention we noted that there was to be a report from the committee on the Baltimore plan; an address on "Sound Money;" an address on "The Pending Reform of Our Monetary System," a "Plan for the Creation of a Safe and Elastic Currency," and "An Outline of a National Currency System." These are all interesting and suggestive topics. How far they will go in the direction of providing a remedy for the present dislocation it is impossible to judge by the titles, but it is to be hoped that some great good will result, and defect, whatever it is, of our present monetary system, will be speedily remedied.

But we have side-tracked unintentionally, and once within the gates we will turn about to face the grand entrance from the inside, which also combines in striking effect the Administration Building.

Its dimensions are 240x50 feet. In point of design it is a combination of several architectural monuments, familiar to the traveler arranged as a harmonious whole. Here the visitor will find a bit of the London Tower, recalling the dark deeds of Old England, the ghostly Blarney castle in Ireland, St. Michael's in France, and a partial imitation of the Rheinstien in Germany. The whole is particularly attractive, nor does the mediaeval effect seem out of place, for it asserts itself in the form of turrets, battlements, imbedded windows with old leaded glass and other ancient methods employed in building.

The main entrance is a large hall with massive gates finished to harmonize with the exterior. This structure is designed principally for the Administration staff of the Exposition Company, and is provided with the necessary offices.

Turning from this, one of the first duties of the GAZETTE was to locate Mr. David Bell, our special correspondent who has been treating the readers of these columns to exposition notes. We found him in his editorial room of the Fireman's Building, editing the Official Daily Program, and seemed to have his hands full. Mr. Bell has relatives in Easton and many friends in Talbot and welcomed the callers. It is through him that much valuable information was secured for use in these letters. He also aided us in securing illustrations suitable for the same.

Overlooking the Plaza in a southeastwardly direction, and commanding a view of every point of the park, is the Manufactures and Liberal Arts Building, the largest of the exposition group. In point of architecture and construction, it is an imposing structure. Towers at each corner, rising to the height of three stories, add much to the exterior effect. Its dimensions are: 320x504 feet, with a floor area of 193,000 square feet. The interior is one grand hall, finished in natural wood with galleries on all sides, and a clerestory of 25 feet. Massive trusses constructed in grace ful curves support the roof, lending a beautiful and perspective view to the wandering eye, while the exhibits grouped in every part of that mammoth building and coming from the four corners of the earth, tastefully arranged in handsome booths and spaces, with suspended flags, banners, gonfalons and streamers, make this the most attractive and interesting building of the Exposition.

In this building California has tried to again surpass herself, though she has a special building of her own on the grounds. This exhibit consists of several thousand artistic glass jars, containing a full assortment of the fruits and grain of California; of a collection of California woods; of a collection of the minerals of California; a full assortment of California dried fruits under glass; a display of California wines and a display of California olives and olive oil; a display of raisins and other miscellaneous articles which go to illustrate the products of the State.

Besides the large display of foreign and domestic jewelry, finery and art work, most of which was for sale, the editors were highly interested in lithography, color printing and "process" illustrating. The Chicago Western Bank Note Company had a beautiful and instructive exhibit. The type-writer industry was also exhibited and gave one an idea of the relative merits of the various machines on the market.

School exhibits and work in physical and manual training from the leading institutions of the country, besides music and musical instruments from the cornstock fiddle to a large pipe organ or orchestracon. This building contained enough to keep one studying for months, foreigners were well represented here with the best of their products. Fabrics from Milano, furniture from Micenza, fruits from Torino, embroideries from Rome, specialities from Venice, fancy goods of all kinds from Brescia and whatcountry, and portions of foreign ones. The selection of exhibits for this building was under the direct supervision of the departments of Forestry and Mines of the United States Government.

The exhibits comprise minerals, ores and geological specimens; gold, silver and other metals; history and literature of mining and metallurgy, and forestry and forest products The roof has on it a magnificent "garden" under awning where music from the celebrated Mexican band is heard while a sumptuous meal can be served in elegant style to the listeners. An inclined walk or brige extends from the roof to the "Midway" and under electric display makes an imposing spectacle.

Located in one of the most attractive parts of the grounds, at an elevation of 918 feet above sea level, on the eastern border of "Clara Meer" and just north of the Transportation Building, with its wide portals and high dome, is the Electricity Building. Here is to be seen one of the best exhibits ever gotten together for Exposition purposes, showing in detail and by actual contrast, the rapidity of electrical development, and further, demonstrating by practical application, its many and various uses. The dimensions of this structure are: 252 feet in length by 80 feet in width, giving a floor area of 21,000 square feet. An imposing central dome, 60 feet in diameter, rises in graceful proportions to a height of 100 feet above the floor line, and here thousands of lights, great and small, reflect the outlines of this beautiful structure upon the smooth waters of the lake.

WILSON M. TYLOR.

Oystermen Arrested.

Capt. A. Stanley Bryan, of the Police Schooner Frolic, recently captured Capt. Charles Lock, of Talbot county, for oystering without license; trial before Justice Sparks of St. Michaels. Lock was fined $10 and costs. Capt. Bryan has made many captures of this class, the violators being in small boats, and often evade arrest being made by running their little craft in small creeks and running streams. To capture them it is often necessary to place men on shore and start men in small boats to drive them to their lair. Nearly all tongers have been overhauled and are licensed. There are a number of scrapers and dredgers in Eastern Bay. They report oysters plentiful.

The Wail Of The Chronic Kicker.

For the GAZETTE:

Nothing to do but work,
Nothing to eat but food,
Nothing to wear but clothes
To keep one from being nude.

Nothing to breathe but air,
Quick as a flash 'tis gone—
Nowhere to fall but off,
Nowhere to stand but on.

Nothing to comb but hair,
Nowhere to sleep but bed;
Nothing to weap but tears,
Nothing to bury but dead.

Nothing to sing but songs,
Ah, well, alas and alack;
Nowhere to go but out,
Nowhere to come but back.

Nothing to see but sights,
Nothing quench but thirst,
Nothing to have but what we've got;
Thus through our lives we're cursed.

Nothing to strike but gait,
Everything moves that goes—
Nothing at all but common sense
Can ever withstand these woes.

Somewhat Of A Muddle.

A brother editor who had to contend with a swell wedding, a horse race and a bibacous printer, got his articles mixed up like this: "The bride was a vision of loveliness as she came up the aisle holding a bouquet of roses in her hands, and as she slid under the wire a wild cheer went up for the little filly, winner by a neck in a hard fought race. The groom is well known here. His coat shone like satin and his superb knee action made him an instant favorite in the pools. Miss Smith, the maid of honor, looked bewitching in fleecy mull; tumultuous storm of applause came from the dense throng as she came into the last quarter and came tearing down the stretch, showing daylight between her and the big black. She was an easy winner." It is needless to say that the editor is now in the happy hunting grounds.

Talbot County Schools.

In Talbot county there are sixty-eight schools, which are attended by 2,336 scholars. Multiply the number of children by $2.00, for the actual annual cost of books when furnished by the parents. There are 304,846 scholars in the State attending public schools and with free school books the number would easily run up to 325,000.

Scholarship Filed.

The School Board on Tuesday appointed Frank Barton, son of F. T. Barton, of Chapel District, to the scholarship in the Maryland Agricultural College made vacant by the resignation of Arthur Wooters. The Board selected the Friday following Thanksgiving Day for the next teachers' meeting.

No miracle

about them—they are simply the result of a lifetime study and practice by the one man in America who is best qualified to treat diseases of the stomach and bowels.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills have a greater sale on less advertising, where best known, than any other pill in the world. Eat good food, and take one of Dr. Deane's pills after each meal. Your stomach, liver, and bowel troubles will disappear. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose.

IT'S GOING TO BE COLD

This winter. All weather prophets agree on that point. So the wise woman will begin to look around for

CAPES, CLOAKS and WRAPS,

The right time to buy such things is before you need them. This gives plenty of time to compare prices and qualities, and plenty of time to think the matter over and make up your mind. Being sure before buying is a good deal better than buying first and finding out afterwards. To simply say our new lines of the latest are pretty is not doing them justice. They are more than pretty—dainty and sensible novelties that combine style and wear and satisfaction. Prices the lowest.

FALL DRESS GOODS, ETC.,

TOUGH CLOTHES FOR BOYS

to wear to school this winter. Strong Clothes to stand the wear and tear of sleigh riding and snowballing and out-of-doors fun in cold weather. Clothes with the seams well sewed and the buttons tightly fastened on. We have just such things for the youngsters. Besides being full of wear, they are neat and shapely. Six to seven dollars will buy a suit.

IT'S A LONG REACH.

The way to make money reach a long way is to invest it right. The first cost is the point where a short-sighted man stumbles on the road to economy. He thinks it extravagant to pay $12 for a suit of our clothes when $10 might buy one elsewhere. He forgets that $12 suits won't last very long or look very well. Price and quality ought always to be considered together. Price alone means nothing.

Dry Goods, Trimmings, Shoes, Carpets, Gent's Furnishings,
